

GRANGE UNIT FETES 25TH ANNIVERSARY

Special Program Enjoyed by Members on South
Deer Creek.

In commemoration of the 25th anniversary of the organization of South Deer Creek grange a special program was presented by the lecturer, Mrs. W. A. Karcher, last Saturday evening.

Following a 7 o'clock supper and the regular scheduled meeting, numbers on the program included a song by Madeline Flora Cox, Fred McIntee, T. E. Duncan and Joe Kunish with Mrs. Ada Melton as accompanist. The song is an original one written by a member of the order entitled "When the Grange is Called to Order I'll Be There."

A roll call of officers for the first year of the existence of the grange by Dr. C. H. Bailey showed that he served as the first master and W. A. Karcher is now the lecturer, following the footsteps of his father, who was the first to hold that important office. Only one other charter member of the four still connected with South Deer Creek grange was an official during the formative years, Wm. B. Melton Jr., who served as the first gate keeper.

Records disclosed that the grange started with 24 charter members, and this list was read by the steward, Harry Collison, who was followed by Mrs. Fred Cachelin, the chaplain, reading the list of those who have passed away. There have been five deaths among the charter members.

At the conclusion of the program the master, Mrs. Harry Collison, instructed the stewards to conduct to the altar Dr. C. H. Bailey, W. A. Karcher and Wm. B. Melton Jr., the charter members present, and with well chosen words, pinned upon the lapel of each a pin denoting 25 years of service in the organization. The only other charter member, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, is in Michigan, called to her former home by the death of her mother.

U. S. HANDS BACK $56,000,000 TAXES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Topped by $5,366,666 for Swift and company, Chicago packers, a list of federal tax refunds showed today that the treasury handed $56,122,153 back to taxpayers in the last fiscal year.

The report was submitted to congress by the internal revenue bureau and made public by the house expenditures committee. It showed that the money was repaid to 147,426 companies and persons from whom the government had collected more taxes than it should have.

In the 1935 fiscal year, $47,494,723 was distributed among 78,278 claimants.

Refunds cover processing, capital stock, distilled spirits, estate, income, narcotics, sales, silver and tobacco taxes.

Movie stars, authors, a former prizefighter, and a poet were on the list beside men well known in business and finance and former cabinet officers.

Some of the nation's biggest business and industrial firms were there besides a cemetery association, a policemen's benevolent organization and a "polo series."

To Ogden L. Mills, of New York, secretary of the treasury under President Hoover, the treasury handed back $11,449. Roy D. Chapin of Detroit, who served in the cabinet with Mills as secretary of commerce, got $7,206. Newton D. Baker of Cleveland, wartime secretary of war, drew $4,603. J. P. Morgan pocketed $1,989. M. E. Coyle, Detroit, head of Chevrolet Motor company, counted twice for $4,221 and $252.
