Make Kiddie This Bloomer-Frock and Realize A Saving PATTERN 2652

by Anne Adams

Mary Jane's a welcome caller at playmates' homes because she always looks so fresh and dainty. Other mothers ask the secret—a very simple one, for Mary Jane's frocks are made at home and she has a goodly supply of them since they're so inexpensive to make and launder. Any mother can make this cunning model herself, in just a morning or so, and the matching bloomers in a few additional moments. A wide center panel and all-in-one sleeves and yokes cut the actual sewing time in half. Some tops look best in a flared sleeve, others in elastic-run sleeves that puff, but both are sure to favor a gay cotton print, and patch pockets.

Pattern 2652 is available in sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6 takes 2 1/2 yards 26 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Be sure to order OUR SPRING PATTERN BOOK for smart new clothes that'll fit you and your needs to a "T"! Gay, practical frocks to cheer you at work.
