American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By Mrs. Walter S. Fisher
 Our Motto: We honor the dead by serving the living.
 Cumulative proof of the interest women are taking in governmental affairs was evidenced at the regular Wednesday afternoon meeting of Umpqua unit, when, following an analysis of the four measures to be voted upon at the special election this month by Senator Walter Fisher, a lively panel discussion of the bills was taken up. Pertinent questions were propounded by some members, intelligent observations made by others, and altogether it was one of the most stimulating and satisfactory meetings held by the unit during the winter. According to our president, Mrs. Thomas Parkinson, this is but a forerunner of similar future occasions when guest speakers will be called in to present matters of public interest, following which there will be an open forum when members will be urged to tell what they think about the topics being considered. It might be of interest to know that the sales tax received the most attention at the Wednesday meeting.
Constitution Will Be Studied
 At the next Wednesday afternoon meeting an intensive study of the constitution of the United States will be started. The historical background leading up to the drafting of this sacred document, the statesmen who contributed their genius in its composition—all of these will be studied and reported upon by members assigned to this work. Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, Mrs. Belle Broadway, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. A. O. Rose and Mrs. Maud Steffanson will be among the speakers at the next meeting.
Eugene Legionnaires Visit Facility Sunday
 About 20 visitors from the Eugene post and unit, laden with some seven boxes of large rosy checked apples, came to Roseburg last Sunday and visited the barracks and hospital of the local veterans' facility. Among the guests were Mrs. Glen Lewis, president of the Eugene unit, and Mrs. Ruth Johnson, unit secretary. Roseburg auxiliary and Legion members who greeted the visitors and conducted them through the facility were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. Irving Reigal, Bert G. Bates, and, of course, that incomparable legionnaire, George Trapalis. Eugene boasts an excellent Little Theater group and it is the plan of the Eugene chapter to bring these players to Roseburg when the facility recreation building is completed. Visitors are always warmly received at the facility by Mrs. Ottilia Ashton, new recreational director, and our ever cordial Colonel E. F. Tandy, head of the facility.
 About 60 men participated in the "beano" party given by members of the auxiliary at the barracks on Tuesday afternoon. As prizes for skill in this game, cigarettes and candy bars were given. There were also several tables of bridge conducted by Mrs. Justine Stephenson and Mrs. Ted Post. Mrs. Irving Reigal, Mrs. Roy Young and Mrs. Ashton had charge of the "beano" game, which was a huge success. The lobbies of the third, fourth and fifth floors of the hospital have taken on new life this week with the installation of six reading lamps, which were sent down by the department Monday.
Commission Meets Monday
 The auxiliary convention commission held a brief meeting last Monday at the child welfare room in the Medical Arts building. The groundwork for the convention is being laid and subcommittees for the various activities are being selected.
 The commission, composed of Mrs. Roy Young, chairman, Mrs. Ned Dixon, Mrs. Rudolph Ritzman, Mrs. E. B. Stewart, Mrs. Thomas Parkinson, Mrs. George McFee and Mrs. Earl Ulrich, will meet again next Monday afternoon at the child welfare room at 2 p. m.

EASTERN STAR WILL CELEBRATE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY TUESDAY

One of the largest and most charming affairs of the year will be the golden anniversary of the Roseburg chapter of Eastern Star to be celebrated here next Tuesday, January 28. About one hundred and fifty guests from out-of-town are expected to be here to celebrate with the Roseburg chapter members.
 Arrangements have been made for the out-of-town guests to meet at the Elks temple rooms during the afternoon. Registration will be held there from one o'clock on. Dressing rooms have been arranged for the convenience of the guests.
 At 6:30 o'clock a banquet will be served at the Umpqua hotel. Registration of all members and guests planning to attend the banquet has been requested to be made to Mrs. Frances Lintott at Farrow's Furniture store not later than tonight.
 Following the banquet at the Umpqua the guests and members will go to the Masonic temple for a social hour and program.

NORTHSIDE SUNSHINE CLUB MEETS AT INGELS HOME ON THURSDAY

The regular meeting of the Northside Sunshine club was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. W. Ingels. A short business meeting was held with Mrs. Roscoe Marsters, president, in charge. Visiting and games were enjoyed during the social hour with prizes going to Mrs. Bullou and Mrs. Harness.
 At the tea hour Mrs. Ingels served delicious refreshments to Mrs. Howard Casbeer, Mrs. Homer Kronke and Mrs. Jennie Leach, guests, and Mrs. Mable Harness, Mrs. E. P. Ballou, Mrs. William Fisher, Mrs. Roscoe Marsters, Mrs. Henry Worthington, Mrs. Glenn Cox, Mrs. Helen Carstens and Mrs. N. R. Fisher, members.
 The next meeting will be held February 13 at the home of Mrs. E. P. Ballou at Kelley's Korner.

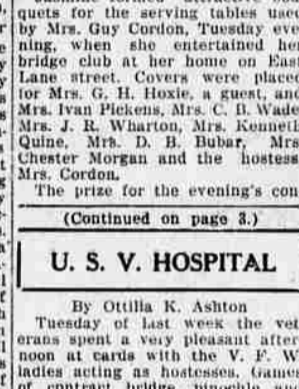

MRS. GUY CORDON IS HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB ON TUESDAY EVENING

Jasmine formed attractive bouquets for the serving tables used by Mrs. Guy Cordon, Tuesday evening, when she entertained her bridge club at her home on East Lane street. Covers were placed for Mrs. G. H. Hoxie, a guest, and Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mrs. C. B. Wade, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, Mrs. Kenneth Quine, Mrs. D. B. Bubar, Mrs. Chester Morgan and the hostess, Mrs. Cordon.
 The prize for the evening's contract bridge was won by Mrs. Cordon.

U. S. V. HOSPITAL

By Ottilia K. Ashton
 Tuesday of last week the veterans spent a very pleasant afternoon at cards with the V. F. W. ladies acting as hostesses. Games of contract bridge, pinocle and five-hundred were in progress, with cigarettes being awarded as prizes.
 The patients have been enjoying the programs presented especially for them by the Roseburg broadcasting station, KRNR. They also appreciate having their request numbers granted.
 Tuesday of this week a very enjoyable afternoon at home was sponsored by the state and local American Legion auxiliary. There were groups playing pinocle and contract bridge, with a large group playing "beano." Cigarettes and candy bars were given as prizes. It was difficult to tell which group was having the best time judging from the laughter and noise in general.
 Members of the American Legion of Eugene and their auxiliary visited the veterans Sunday afternoon, distributing as a special treat seven boxes of apples.
 Judging from the many promises of programs and entertainment we have had from groups and individuals when our new recreational building is completed we will never have a dull moment. The Eugene Legionnaires hope to interest members of "The Little Theater" group of Eugene to bring some of their plays to our hospital for the entertainment of the veterans.

Maine Harvest Queen

Ann Holmes

A harvest moon and this harvest queen, Miss Ann Holmes of Augusta, who was crowned Maine Harvest Queen of 1935 by Gov. Louis J. Brann, should be all that any young man could desire.

Oh, for the Life of a Chorine!

Such disadvantages as having to endure long hours of rehearsals and weigh in daily to avoid getting overweight are overcome for these chorines who migrated from the chill winds of Broadway to Miami, Fla., to play in the floor show of a night club there during the resort season.
