

DEMOCRATIC FOES OF F. R. ORGANIZE

New Deal Bitterly Flayed at "Grass Roots" Meet of Talmadge, Et Al.

MACON, Ga., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Insurgent southern democrats rallied by the cry of "states' rights," organized at a "grass roots" mass meeting today for a drive against the nomination of President Roosevelt for a second term.

Resolutions condemning the administration's record were presented and the Roosevelt policies were assailed in speeches by Governor Eugene Talmadge of Georgia, himself a tentative candidate for the presidency, and John Henry Kirby of Houston, Tex., wealthy head of the southern committee to uphold the constitution.

Governor Talmadge asserted "there is nothing to becloud the issues of sovereignty" of local self-government.

"If the present program is continued for four more years, the lines between the states will be only a shadow on paper, and the government of the separate states will be subservient in the will of a central power in Washington."

Talmadge and Kirby called "Jeffersonian democrats" of 17 cotton belt and border states to the session in this central Georgia city of 60,000.

"The thing President Roosevelt is providing for us," Kirby told the assembly, "is some fashion of slavish, contemptible, all-oppressing bureaucracy. The security it may give will be no better than that found behind the walls of the Atlanta penitentiary."

"No real democrat can or will endorse Mr. Roosevelt."

1932 Platform Endorsed

The platform committee, headed by Hugh Howell, chairman of the Talmadge-controlled Georgia democratic executive committee, presented resolutions reaffirming faith in the party's national platform of 1932 and expressing regret that it "has been repudiated and treated as only a scrap of paper."

"Since March, 1931," the committee said, "there has been practically a suspension of constitutional government in our country and a radical departure from the time-honored teaching of the democratic party."

The committee said "we do not regard the occupant of the white house as a democrat."

"He has broken the pledge of our party and violated the platform of 1932."

The committee condemned "the usurpation of lawmaking power by the president" and they described the power of the supreme court as "the greatest safeguard to the rights of the citizens."

President Roosevelt was not mentioned by name.

"Every patriotic American" was invited by the committee to "join our ranks and aid in wresting the government from the control of socialism."

Demands Voiced

The resolutions approved planks in the 1932 platform calling for "drastic reduction of governmental expenditures," balancing of the federal budget, a sound currency, a competitive tariff for revenue, reciprocal tariff agreement with other nations, and restoration of international trade.

Continuing, the platform urged that the "government get out of business at the earliest possible time and cease to cope with private industry." It urged also a constitutional limitation of taxes congress may levy and appropriate.

The main floor of the auditorium was about filled when Chairman Howell rapped for order. There were only a few persons in the gallery. The auditorium seats about 4,000 persons.
