Today's Pattern

YOKE OF SOFTLY STYLED FROCK TRIMS UP IN TWO BECOMING WAISTS PATTERN 2657

by Anne Adams

Here's a softly styled all-occasion frock that mother or daughter will find equally becoming. Daughter, who needs a semi-tailored dress for school, is sure to enjoy the thumbnail sketch of pattern 2657, which trims its yoke with buttons, and tops it with a jaunty Peter Pan collar. Both will more than likely favor the version with smart, upstanding collar and neat bow tie, to say nothing of the slenderizing skirt seams. Both will find the soft fullness of the sleeves most flattering, and the dress, as a whole, easy to make. Choose a bright alpaca crepe for the more tailored version, and triple sheer, for dressier occasions. Pattern 2657 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 takes 2 1/2 yards 39-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plain name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE. Be sure to order OUR SPRING PATTERN BOOK for smart new clothes that'll fit you and your needs to a "T". Gay, practical frocks to cheer you at work. Lovely party frocks and sports clothes to flatter you at play. Collars, blouses, skirts for multiplying costumes. Chic slenderizing styles. Patterns for tots, fabric and accessory news. PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND A PATTERN TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. Address orders to News-Review Pattern Dept., Roseburg, Ore.

EVANGELIST WILL HOLD MEETINGS IN ROSEBURG CHURCH

Reverend William B. Cranford (above) is to conduct a series of evangelistic services, beginning February 2, at the Methodist Episcopal church, South, at the corner of Main and Lane streets, Roseburg.

Born and reared in Virginia, and at different periods of his life a sailor in the U. S. navy, a salesman, a soldier of fortune, and a law student, Rev. Mr. Cranford brings with him a wealth of experience that has greatly enriched his ministry. He was preparing for the bar examination and the practice of law when the call came to enter the ministry. His response was immediate and final. He has been in that work ever since.

Evangelist Cranford is a graduate of the University of Denver and of the Ashbury Theological seminary, from which institutions he received his A. B. and D. D. degrees, respectively. He is a member of the M. E. church, South.

Dr. A. F. Sether, of Eugene, was in town attending to business Thursday. H. L. Kruse and Floyd Porter, of Oakland, were business visitors in town yesterday.

Pearl Rose Robinson, of Sutherlin, shopped and visited friends and visited here yesterday. Mrs. Gertrude Hebard and Miss Helen Hebard, of Umpqua, were here shopping yesterday.

G. W. Boyer, of Dillard, spent several hours in town yesterday attending to business. E. G. Worley, of Anchor, spent a short time in this city Thursday on business.

POET'S CORNER

REMINISCENCE

By G. M. LEEMER
With drops of blood
Our heart shall beat,
Recording "life" there
As a clock complete.

With words of love
Run memory true,
Recording there
My love for you.

With pure sweet air
A breath we take,
Giving us new life
Each morn we wake.

With measured tread
Each step we take,
Drawing closer each day
Where life shall break.

With earnest words

With earnest words
A prayer we make,
Asking God above
Our souls to take.

The morsels of food
Each day we shall eat,
Keep life and strength
And body complete.

Tiny drops of dew
On petals of a rose
Make beauty on which
Our eyes repose.

A lingering smile
On the face of a friend,
A tired broken heart
Is sure to mend.

A hand and a diamond
A finger shall hold,
Binding two hearts forever
Like treasures of gold.

An old chest of music
With treasures beyond,
Our souls are kept alive
By the words of a song.

Friendship is a tie
Our troubles to mend,
Thank God from the heart
For the love of a friend.

Friendship and kinship
Cause hardships to fall,
Bringing our treasure ship
With sails white and tall.

HOME TALENT PLAY PLANNED BY LIONS

The Lions club of Roseburg is making preparations to stage a home talent play "The Good Old '96" at the senior high school auditorium Monday, February 21. It was announced by club officers today. The farce comedy will be presented by an entirely local cast, and proceeds will be used as a benefit for the municipal band uniform fund. Specialty numbers will be included with the play.

VETERANS HASTEN TO ASK FOR BONDS

Service Organizations Here Kept Busy Assisting in Applications Work.

Approximately 50 veterans of Roseburg and vicinity made out applications for bonus bond payments at the headquarters established yesterday at the Grand hotel. The rush continued today with an increased number of applications anticipated for today's work.

The several service organizations of the city have joined their efforts in providing free service for veterans in filling out their application blanks and are maintaining an office in the lobby of the Grand hotel, where veterans may secure assistance in filling out the blanks provided for use in making application for the "baby bonds."

Veterans preparing to make application should have their adjusted service certificates or the pink slip which they hold if they have already borrowed on the certificate.

They must also be able to give their army, navy or marine corps serial number, date of enlistment, date of discharge and rank and organization at date of discharge.

An effort will be made, it was announced today, to complete local applications within a period of one week, and it is planned to operate the headquarters not more than one week. Consequently veterans desiring this assistance are urged to visit the office at the earliest possible date.

LOEB KILLING LAID TO PRISON PLOT

JOLIET, Ill., Jan. 31.—(AP)—State's Attorney Will R. McCabe asserted today he had obtained information, while quizzing Stateville penitentiary prisoners, supporting his theory that Richard Loeb's slaying there Tuesday was "deliberate murder."

The Will county prosecutor, who is making his own investigation of the 30-year-old "thrill slayer's" death, would not say what his new information was, but asserted its source was Edward Stepowski.

Stepowski, convicted Chicago holdup man, was the co-accused in the slaying of Loeb, partner of Nathan Leopold, Jr., partner of the slaying in the murder of Bobby Franks in 1924.

McCabe made the statement after he had been closeted with Stepowski for nearly three hours, in a prison office.

Earlier the prosecutor asserted he was convinced Loeb's death was carefully planned, presumably by fellow convicts, with the bloody task of carrying it out delegated to McCabe and the confessed killer.

McCabe added he would continue his efforts to question Leopold who thus far has refused to discuss the Loeb killing.

Day refused to talk when McCabe tried to question him.

"He covered his face when I asked him to tell us the real story," said McCabe.

Aside from claiming his murder theory was refuted, McCabe would tell little of what Stepowski supplied.

"I know definitely that Loeb never shaved himself, and consequently would not be likely to have a razor," as Day claims," McCabe said.

Loeb was slashed to death with a razor.

O. A. OF I. T. HAS LUNCHEON MEETING
The executive council of the Oregon Association of Intermediate Teachers met Saturday, January 25, at the Spa in Salem for a luncheon and business meeting.

Following the luncheon, the members answered to the roll call by counties and gave a report of the accomplishments of their local chapters.

Of special interest is the series of radio programs which the association is sponsoring every Tuesday morning from 11:00-11:15 o'clock over KOAC in Corvallis. These programs are being broadcast through the Portland public school system. They are intended to interest and stimulate both the pupil and the teacher in the subject fields presented, and, according to reports, they are proving to be most worthwhile.

Miss Neva Dallas of the training school at Monmouth and chairman of the radio program committee, announced the following list of programs that have been and are to be presented:

- Jan. 7—Poetry, Miss Neva Dallas.
- Jan. 14—Music, Miss Dora Hendy.
- Jan. 21—Science, Miss Blanche Duguid.
- Jan. 28—Art, Mrs. Strang of Corvallis.
- Feb. 4—History, Mrs. Blanche McCabe.
- Feb. 11—Nature Study, Miss Ethel Mae Taylor.
- Feb. 18—Music, Ben Hartley.
- Feb. 25—Health, Mrs. Josephine Hayes.
- March 3—Geography, Miss Catherine Arbutnot.
- March 10—Reading, Miss Ann McConnell.
- March 17—Literature.

The next meeting of the state association will be held during the intermediate luncheon at the educational conference, Saturday, April 25, at Monmouth. The theme of the luncheon is to be "Taking Time to Live," in which the cultural and civic values of life will be brought out. Mrs. Fulkerson, Marion county supervisor, will be the principal speaker.

Miss Dora Sheffsky, who is to return to Monmouth soon from studying in the east, was again elected to edit the annual bulletin of the association. She is to be assisted by Miss Esther Chapman of Portland.

Members of eight of the nine county chapters organized in the state were present at the Salem meeting. Those in attendance were Miss Edna Starrett, state president, from Lane county; Miss Neva Dallas, state secretary-treasurer, from Polk county; Miss Ethel M. Miller, president of the Benton county chapter; Miss H. Eleanor Heitz, president of the Clackamas county chapter; Miss Marie Tucker, president of the Lane county chapter; Miss Ann McConnell, vice-president of the Linn county chapter; Miss Mary Magers, state chairman of the publicity committee, from Linn county; Miss Georgia Albee, president of the Marion county chapter; Miss Bessie R. McElveny, president of the Multnomah county chapter; Miss Esther Chapman, program chairman of the Multnomah county chapter; Mrs. Susie B. Egan, from Multnomah county; Miss Clara Trotter, from Polk county; Miss Altha Chandler, president of the Yamhill county chapter, and Miss Ruth Higgins, vice-president of the Yamhill county chapter.

I. O. O. F. AND REBEKAHS MEET

MYRTLE CREEK, Jan. 31.—One of the outstanding social events of recent months was the joint meeting of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges on Saturday night. The Odd Fellows having invited the Rebekahs to a social and entertainment. The special program committee consisted of the following: John Rundell, Homer Abbott and John Wimer of the Odd Fellows, assisted by Mrs. Capitola Abbott, Mrs. Geneva Bates, and Mrs. Ethel McDougall of the Rebekahs.
