EASTERN STAR GOLDEN JUBILEE IS LARGEST AFFAIR OF SEASON

One of the most charming and the largest social affairs of the year was the jubilee held here Tuesday evening, when the Roseburg chapter of Eastern Star celebrated its golden anniversary.

A 6:30 o'clock banquet was served at long tables beautifully appointed in the lobby of the Umpqua hotel. Evergreen sprays, brilliantly gilded and tall tapers in gold candleholders, carried out the golden motif for the tables.

Mrs. Frederiek E. Hartung, worthy matron, presided over the banquet and social hour, which followed at the Masonic temple chapter rooms. Mrs. George K. Kolshagen and Miss Frances Howell, of Roseburg, and Mrs. J. B. Horner, of Corvallis, were special guests of honor at the celebration, as they were the only charter members of Roseburg chapter present.

Covers were placed for 350. Chapters from all parts of Oregon were represented at the affair. A large number of grand officers of the state of Oregon Eastern Star were present and included: Mrs. Inez J. Glaisyer, grand worthy matron, Coquille; Miss Nellie McKinley, grand secretary, Portland; Mrs. Margaret W. Low, grand treasurer, Troutdale; Mr. Hazel Ingram, grand conductor, The Dalles; Mrs. Mable Ulett, grand marshal, Coquille; Mrs. Mayme K. Davis, grand Ada, Lakeview; Mrs. Etta Shaw, grand Ruth, Canyonville; Mrs. Cecelia King, grand Easter, Portland; Mrs. Lucille Mayo, grand warden, Kirby; Mrs. Lelia Wimberly, Roseburg; Dr. June Martin, Klamath Falls, jurisdiction committee of the grand chapter, and Mrs. Dorothy Stipe, Portland, credential committee.
