4 MOVIE FIRSTS OF PAST YEARS REPEAT

Gable, Laughton, Colbert and Hepburn Listed in Awards for 1935.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Four stars of the film heavens—Clark Gable, Charles Laughton, Claudette Colbert and Katherine Hepburn—shine again with "best" performances.

They are among ten players nominated for the two acting awards of 1935 by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. Others are Franchot Tone, Victor McLaglen, Elizabeth Bergner, Bette Davis, Merle Oberon and Miriam Hopkins.

It is a record-breaking list, three actors and three actresses usually being selected for the final balloting. Winners will be announced at the annual academy banquet March 5.

"Mutiny on the Bounty" carried Gable, Laughton and Tone into the competition, and it sailed among the twelve productions from which the academy will choose the "best picture of 1935."

Gable had teamed with Claudette Colbert in "It Happened One Night" to monopolize awards for 1934. "Private Worlds" put Miss Colbert in nomination this time.

Laughton won in 1933 with his depiction of "The Private Life of Henry VIII." Miss Hepburn won recognition that year in "Morning Glory." Now her acting in "Alice Adams" is nominated along with the picture.

"The Informer," in the running for best production, had McLaglen for star and John Ford for director, both nominated in their respective classes.

Two other directors were selected, Frank Lloyd of "Mutiny on the Bounty" and Henry Hathaway of "Lives of a Bengal Lancer," and their pictures also were nominated.

Remaining films in the race for best productions are "Broadway Melody of 1936," "Captain Blood," "David Copperfield," "Les Miserables," "Midsummer Night's Dream," "Naughty Marietta," "Ruggles of Red Gap," and "Top Hat."

For the cartoon award, Walt Disney's "Three Orphan Kittens" and "Who Killed Cock Robin," and Harman-Ising's "The Calico Dragon," were nominated.

Listed for best songs were Irving Berlin's "Cheek to Cheek," Kern and McHugh's "Lovely to Look at," and Warren and Dubin's "Lullaby of Broadway."

ITALO-ETHIOPIAN PEACE PLAN LOOMS

By the Associated Press

A faint possibility of a new peace move was seen today in a renewal of discussions in the Italian press of the Franco-British plan for the settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.

Observers of the situation were interested in this trend, for the press of Italy largely reflects government opinion and they believed, therefore, that this smoke of discussion might indicate a fire of interest in peace on the part of the government.

For the last few months, the Franco-British plan, which envisioned the independence of the government of Ethiopia in exchange for territorial and trade concessions to Italy, has been in the discard.

As for actual fighting, there appeared to be little, other than a bombing of Magalo by Italian airplanes, as reported by the Ethiopian government. The Italian government said merely, "nothing new on either front."

The league of nations' committee of oil experts continued its study at Geneva of the possibilities of a successful oil embargo against Italy. Apparently the experts were agreed that oil substitutes had not been developed to a point where Italy could make use of them to neutralize the effect of an embargo.

CCC GIVEN PRAISE FOR FIRE FIGHTING

SALEM, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Fires in Oregon burned over a total of 74,256 acres of forest, brush and grass land under jurisdiction of the forestry department during 1935, J. W. Ferguson, state forester, reported.

The 1,507 fires resulted in total property damage of $201,630, including 43,285,000 board feet of merchantible timber, logging equipment, buildings and other property.

Lightning started 348 fires. Among man-caused blazes, smokers led the list with 371 and incendiary second with 287. Other causes included campers 125, brush burning 119, logging 64, slashing 39, railroads 27, and miscellaneous 129.

Lane and Coos counties encountered the greatest fire trouble during the past season. In Lane county several fires started within a few days, necessitating the calling in of over 1,500 men from CCC camps, Ferguson reported. A similar situation occurred a short time later in Coos county.

Ferguson commended the CCC crews for their satisfactory work in controlling fires under adverse conditions.

Southwest Maps Program to Clean Up Badlands

Legislatures of seven western states now have under consideration a program designed to close the badlands of the southwest to the desperadoes who at various times during their criminal careers have taken refuge there. At a recent conference of state and civic authorities at Tulsa, Okla., it was proposed that state lines be leveled to allow authorities of one state to pursue a criminal into another state and return with him without process of extradition. It is believed that this compact would materially speed up justice and prevent criminals from making contacts with fixers and henchmen who delay the course of the law. It would also materially aid G-men in their law enforcement activities under J. Edgar Hoover. Alvin Karpis, Public Enemy No. 1, has been reported hiding out in the Cookson hills where the numerous caves and terrains offer ideal concealment.

Pastor May Win Governorship

New Jersey, the state which took Woodrow Wilson from the Princeton campus to send him to the White House via the governorship, may take its next governor from the pulpit. Rev. Lester H. Clee shot to prominence two years ago when he was elected to the state assembly and made speaker of the house his first term. This January he returned to the legislature as a member of the senate. His championship of economy has won him state-wide popularity and may bring him the Republican nomination for governor as the opponent of Senator Harry Moore who is slated for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. Gov. Harold Hoffman has been the target of numerous attacks by Clee during his crusade for lower taxes.

OREGON EVENTS FLASHED FROM WIRE SERVICE

McMINNVILLE, Ore., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Two youths placed a rock and lies on the Southern Pacific tracks near Willamina "to see what would happen," Sheriff G. W. Manning of Yamhill reported.

He said Donald Drill, 18, Willamina, and Frederick Pinney, 20, Sheridan, confessed the act. Bail was set at $1,000 each. An engine struck the rock Tuesday but was halted before reaching the ties. No one was injured.

HILLSBORO, Ore., Feb. 7.—(AP)—The grand jury will hear charges placed against eight persons arrested in a raid on the Spinning Wheel dance hall near Tigard last month, County Judge Dan Templeton decided.

He released two others but District Attorney Russell Morgan ordered them re-arrested on other charges. Complaints range from operating gambling devices to unlawful sale of wine.

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Plans for a city occupational tax designed to reduce the levy on property are being worked out, City Attorney J. W. McIntyre announced. He said the tax would provide additional revenue from public utilities now using streets and thoroughfares.

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Feb. 7.—(AP)—The proposal of R. J. Hillstrom, dance hall operator and member of the city council, to operate a walkathon here drew a protest statement from the Marshfield school board.

SALEM, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Construction operations on Salem's new high school building came to an abrupt halt yesterday, while city officials, school board members and the contracting firm debated which should pay the building fee.

The city building inspector refused to let construction proceed until the $1,100 fee had been paid. The Hoffman Construction company is contractor for the new school.

SUPPORT URGED FOR CLUB PLAY HERE

"Officer 666" is the name of the play to be sponsored by the University club February 18-19 at the Liberty theatre building for the purpose of raising funds to purchase the Roseburg band members new uniforms. The opening of this play also marks the beginning of a little theatre movement in Roseburg, a movement which has been very successful in Portland and Eugene for the past few years.

The production staff of "Officer 666" includes: Miss Helen Casey, director; Scott Williams, chairman; William Neff, stage manager; Geraldine Hickson and Amanda Anderson, assistant stage managers; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Lowden, properties; Leroy Hiatt, lights; Lois Irving and Maurice Hallmark, advertising; Frances Hardy and Mrs. Harlow Allen, programs; Thelma Smith, costumes; Mrs. Scott Williams, Floyd Groves, music; Paul Geddes and Beth Partridge, housing; Enid Veatch and Wilma Busenbark, tickets; Bernice Wainscott and Eleanor Boyd, ushers, and Harry Sandquist, heating.

The general public has been asked to support this little theatre movement begun by the University club.

HAYDEN PROMOTED IN WATER SERVICE

KLAMATH FALLS, Feb. 7.—(AP)—B. E. Hayden, superintendent of the Klamath reclamation project, today announced his promotion following his return from Washington.

Hayden will supervise reclamation work in district five which includes the Yuma and Gila projects in Arizona, Salt river project in Utah, the Rio Grande project in Texas and New Mexico and the Carlsbad project in New Mexico.

He will continue to maintain headquarters here.
