Today's Pattern

by Anne Adams
BEGINNERS WILL BE PROUD TO MAKE THIS FROCK THEIR FIRST PATTERN
PATTERN 2662

From a neckline to hem—there isn't a thing about this dainty house frock that the veriest beginner couldn't make. And indeed it's with just such simple designs as this that many women have learned to sew, and sew well. With but four major pieces—front, back, and a pair of capelet sleeves—the frock is completed in no time, for included with the pattern is an illustrated sewing instructor that makes cutting, sewing and finishing easier than ever before. And what feminine heart could resist the appeal this dainty frock will have across the breakfast table. If you're slim, any dot or print is nice; if not-so-slim keep to monotonous or narrow stripes.

Pattern 2662 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 3 yards 35 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Be sure to order OUR SPRING PATTERN BOOK for smart new clothes that'll fit you and your needs to a "T"! Gay, practical frocks to cheer you at work. MRS. GARRISON HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB TUESDAY
OAKLAND, Feb. 7.—Mrs. T. B. Garrison was a very charming hostess Tuesday afternoon when she entertained the members of her bridge club and several other friends at a delicious and attractive one thirty o'clock snail luncheon Tuesday afternoon at her home. Four tables of bridge were played with the score cards, also placecards suggestive of Valentines. The guest prize was won by Mrs. H. O. Worthen, the club prize by Mrs. Ike Flannery and table prizes were drawn by Mrs. C. H. Medley, Mrs. H. E. Mahoney and Mrs. Emily Young. At one table very attractive in its decorations, suggestive of Valentines, covers were placed for Mrs. Ike Flannery.

BENEFIT DESSERT BRIDGE LUNCHEON WILL BE GIVEN NEXT MONDAY

As a project to benefit the milk fund of the Rose school, the P.T.A. of that school will sponsor a very charming public 1:30 o'clock dessert-luncheon and bridge party at the S. J. Shoemaker home, 417 East Lane street on Monday.

Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker and Mrs. Fred Hamilton are joint chairmen. The dessert-luncheon will be served at 1:30 o'clock and the contract bridge play will follow immediately. The players will rotate at the tables and prizes will be awarded for high scores. Reservation of tables for this delightful benefit affair may be made by calling Mrs. E. L. Crittenden at No. 1; Mrs. Shoemaker at 607-L, or Mrs. Hamilton at 295-J.

A large number of children at the Rose school are in need of having milk every day and by raising proceeds for this fund, the P.T.A. is able to furnish this needed milk to the underweight children each day at the school.

RECREATIONAL LEADERS ORGANIZE AT EVERGREEN GRANGE TUESDAY NIGHT

The county recreational leaders training school was organized at a very interesting meeting Tuesday night at the Evergreen grange hall. Officers elected included Mrs. Alice Goff, president; Mrs. C. E. Marks, vice-president, and Mrs. Casebeer, secretary-treasurer.

Riversdale, Edenbower and Garden valley had charge of the school for this meeting and training was given in song leading, marching and folk dances.

The next meeting will be held the evening of March 3 at 7:30 o'clock at the army with Melrose and Roseburg organizations in charge of the program.

POET'S CORNER

WHAT I HAVE THAT GIVE I THEE—Act 3:6

Oh, how often we hear the cry,
"Give me money with which to buy
Food to eat
And shoes for my feet."

Of course we offer to share our bread,
For we would not have it said,
"I was hungry and you fed me not."
(A good conscience helps a lot.)

If we have neither silver nor gold
We can say with Peter of old,
"What I have, that give I thee."
Then point to Jesus of Galilee.

For Jesus is the Bread of Life
He alone can end this greed and strife
When ended all this turmoil
Man can peacefully till and toil.

Then man can earn his living
By the sweat of his brow
And he'll be much happier
Than he is now.

After all is said and done
This war on want can be won
Only through Jesus Christ
"God's only begotten Son."
—By Lulu B. Rose.

ADOLPH'S OBSERVATIONS

In Hindustan a searching party found a cave in which there were 22 headless mummies. This is one of the most startling things discovered for a long time.

Mummies always are flatfooted, (that's from walking back from Camel rides) but how this bunch lost their heads will probably remain a secret. Some day they will be displayed in one museum and the bodies in another. It's a little more effective to have it that way. I saw a Hindu out here in the country not long ago who was creeping up behind a mule to throw on a harness. Since then I have come to the conclusion that these guys maybe had their heads kicked off.

Fisher's BISCUIT MIX
"That's the kind my mother likes"
The ten different Fisher flours and cereals are smartly packed in wax for your protection. Ask for it by name—"FISHER'S BISCUIT MIX."

Golden Brown Variety Cakes
YIELD: 1 1/2 DOZEN CUP CAKES
2 1/2 cups Fisher's Blend Flour 3 eggs
4 1/2 teaspoons baking powder 1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon soda 1 1/2 cups sugar
1/2 cup shortening 1 cup milk
Sift and measure the Blend Flour. Resift three times with baking powder, soda, and salt. Cream shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs one at a time, creaming thoroughly after each addition. Add the milk alternately with the flour mixture, stirring until smooth after each addition of the flour. Divide the above mixture into two parts:
Add to one part:
1 tablespoon milk
2 squares chocolate
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
Add to second part:
2 tablespoons grated orange rind
1 tablespoon orange juice
Bake in greased cup cake pans, making all-chocolate cakes and all-orange cakes. Also make combination orange and chocolate cup cakes. Bake at 375 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes. Ice the orange cakes with chocolate icing and the chocolate cakes with orange icing. Ice the combination cakes with orange icing and sprinkle chipped chocolate on top.
REQUIRES LESS THAN TWO CENTS WORTH OF FISHER'S BLEND
FLOUR is the foundation of all baking. It carries a great responsibility. This alone is sufficient reason why you cannot afford to jeopardize your baking by using inferior flour. Follow this recipe closely, use Fisher's Blend Flour, and you can be assured of one successful baking after another.
FISHER'S BLEND is now selling at a new low price. Ask for it by name—FISHER'S BLEND FLOUR.
