Senorita Rosita Delva

"Briefly Mexican" — that describes this latest thing in beach wear from the southern country. Pretty Senorita Delva, who hails from Mexico City, is pictured as she wore the creation at the California Pacific International exposition at San Diego, Cal.

Legionnaires Visit Auxiliary

About this time a gallant group of legionnaires, captained by the program chairman, Carl Black, bravely stormed our gathering, quizzing us on the history of the club with avirulence and conversational, Carl, the inimitable master of ceremonies, presented the following program, each member being lustily encored: Readings, by Maxine Smith, recent winner of declamation honors at R. H. S.; character-istic tunes by the famous German band composed of "Snap" Gilmore, Clyde Carothers, Mike Glicker, Jim Campbell and Hestler Baker; blues songs by Mrs. Gwen Rose Zeno; personal ditties by Cecil Black. (Cecy got along without a piano for a couple of his numbers—but, pshaw, why a piano? We have a lurch that if Cecy were stranded on an island of ignorates and turned up by the natives with the chief himself, before a nightfall, Harold Rodman got a big hand with his ballads, and Eleanor Langenberg, who closed the program with a tap dance, was roundly applauded. Mrs. Lynn Beckley accompanied Mr. Rodman and Miss Langenberg.

Enjoyable Party at the Facility

The regular bi-monthly party at the facility was held Tuesday, Mrs. Irving Reigel, Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. Ollie Ashton, Mrs. R. G. Baker, Mrs. A. B. Cary, and of course, the two stand-overs, Mrs. Post and Mrs. Stephenson, assisted at the various games. About 40 of the men played Beano and there were several tables of bridge, 500 and pinocle. Everyone had such a good time that it was only a matter of good fortune that several of the housewives got home in time to set an adequate dinner before their various spouses. The veterans certainly lent forward to these parties, their social status being otherwise limited to the facility.

Albany Visitors Expected

A delegation from the Albany Legion and auxiliary is expected to arrive in Roseburg tomorrow to make a visit to the veterans administration facility, according to word received here from the president of the Albany auxiliary, Mrs. Glenn Holmes, who will accompany the group to Roseburg.

Child Welfare

The American Legion auxiliary child welfare department is feeling especially happy this week for its work as it was hailed once as "Hello American Legion," by a small four-year-old lad, which proved to the department that the work they were doing was being made an outstanding feature of the Legion. This department, headed by Mrs. George Caskey and Mrs. George McEles, has been accomplishing wonderful results and during January helped nine families and forty-two children with food and clothing. The child welfare center is open every Saturday at the Medical Arts building.
