U. S. V. HOSPITAL

By Othilla K. Ashton

The ladies of the V. F. W. auxiliary faithfully entertained the veterans Tuesday afternoon at cards. The attendance grew and grows and we will all be glad when the recreational building is ready for occupancy as we have certainly outgrown the east solarium. The ladies brought a special treat of individual cellophane bags of hard candy. We couldn't decide if the crumpling was an aid or hindrance and the little old-fashioned hearts with all the "sayings" on them, with colorful napkins, were the gift of the state American Legion auxiliary.

Last Sunday when the American Legion and auxiliary members visited the hospital from Albany, Oregon, they brought with them a treat of one thousand home-made cookies. When Mrs. Irving Riegel met the delegation and was advised of the cookies, they decided to save them until the evening of Feb. 14, which was Valentine day. Mrs. Riegel, who is state hospital chairman, purchased ice cream and combined with the delicious Albany cookies was served to all the patients in the hospital. In fact such a repast would make any of the male species, young or old, bring forth their best smile. Mrs. Riegel was assisted by Mr. Riegel, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young and Mr. and Mrs. George McBeck.

Clever Valentine favors were made and sent to this hospital for the trays by the American Legion Auxiliary Juniors of Billings, Mont.
