F. hall for a delightful social initiation will be held and a large attendance of members is urged. Iva Taylor will have charge of the entertainment for the evening and Thelma Johnson has charge of the refreshments.

Hollywood Beckons to Headliners of Radio

Hollywood's recent raids on headliners of the opera world are now being duplicated among radio stars who are flocking to the film colony in increasing numbers. Jane Froman, Dorothy Lamour, Annette Henshaw and Loretta Lee are celebrities of the air waves who have answered the summons of movie magnates. The increasing number of musical comedies which are being filmed has given attractive radio artists their big chance. Their future is further brightened by the prospect of the early advent of television. The radically different technique and requirements of the movies, in comparison to the radio studio, has spelled defeat, however, for some radio stars who have found the screen a poor outlet for their particular type of talent.

MRS. G. C. FINLAY ENTERTAINS CLUB AT LOVELY LUNCHEON

The St. Patrick motif and bouquets of violets formed a pretty decorative scheme for the one o'clock luncheon given by Mrs. G. C. Finlay at her attractive home on South Main street Tuesday, when she entertained her bridge club.

American Legion Auxiliary Activities

By MRS. WALTER S. FISHER

Our motto: We honor the dead by serving the living.

First in importance in Auxiliary activities for the week will be the St. Patrick's card party in the chapter room Tuesday night, March 17, at 8 o'clock. The party will be open to the public and the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the state convention to be held in Roseburg in August.

Mrs. J. M. Judd and Mrs. Thomas Parkinson will serve as joint chairmen of the affair and will be assisted by Mrs. Velle Broadway and Mrs. Lyle Masters, who will have charge of refreshments, while Mrs. Lester Wimberly will decorate the rooms. Mrs. L. E. Giles and Mrs. Walter Fisher have charge of publicity.

Contract, pinocle and five hundred will be in play. Players will pivot at the contract tables and progress at pinocle and five hundred. Prizes will be awarded each group and a door prize of a cake will be presented.

Members of the auxiliary and Legion will appreciate response to this party not only because of the small admittance charge but as an evidence of the interest the people of Roseburg will take in the coming convention in August. In addition to furthering a worthy cause, card players are assured of the collected fund of an evening.

Committee to Meet at Roy Young Home

On Thursday evening a group of auxiliary women met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young to discuss plans for the entertainment of guests who will make Roseburg their mecca in August. Among those present were Mrs. Jay Fletcher, who heads the committee responsible for a breakfast on the morning of August 15, for World war nurses.

Assisting Mrs. Fletcher will be Miss Anne McDermott, Miss Baker and Miss Clark of the local veterans' facility.

Mrs. Ward Cummings, who will serve as chairman of the secretary and treasurer's breakfast, presented her plans for entertainment.

It did Mrs. H. C. Church, who will have charge of the convention tea, open to all members of the auxiliary.

The impressive memorial service will be arranged for by Mrs. Geo. Caskey. This service, which is used annually at state conventions had its inception in the Roseburg chapter, having been written by Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly and Mrs. James Soules. Roseburg people who have attended these rites sponsored by the auxiliary on memorial day, will have some conception of its beauty as it will be presented on an enlarged scale during the convention.

Mrs. Ned Dixon heads the committee which will have charge of the past unit presidents' banquet, which will be attended by at least 250 auxiliary past presidents of the state.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Young served delicious refreshments to her guests.

Visit Veterans' Hospital.

On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Reigel, Adam Flurry and George Trapalis called at the veterans' facility hospital. These visits are always warmly welcomed by the recuperated fellows at the hospital, brightening up as they do the tedious of the long evenings and nights.

Mrs. Reigel reports that a large number of chair cushions were sent over from the Marshfield unit during the week. These cushions were certainly a happy thought as an uncushioned chair can get most awfully hard.

F. L. Crittenden in Hospital.

F. L. Crittenden, chairman of the Roseburg American Legion convention is confined to the veterans' hospital this week. There has been no dearth of friendly attention for our popular chairman to date. It is reported.

Don't forget that card party—Tuesday night, March 17.

Mannish Trend Dominant in New Spring Togs

Spring is in the offing and one of the surest harbingers is the annual display of fashions which the designers are bringing forth. The mannish trend is much in evidence in the new creations which sport lines of every swagger nature. Ann Sothorn scored a hit when she appeared in a stunning double-breasted coat of black and white wool plaid.

A black felt hat and white gloves are the smart accessories for the outfit. Jean Arthur is the possessor of two smart suits. One has a double-breasted herringbone jacket and suit of black men's wear and the other is a rough tweed, with large patch pockets and large leather buttons adding a masculine touch.

Smart tweed suit.
