DRAIN GIRLS ATTEND ECONOMICS MEET

DRAIN, Ore., March 19.—Four representatives of the Drain High School Home Economics club, accompanied by their adviser, Miss Endicott, spent Saturday in Albany attending the district meeting of the state clubs. The Drain girls brought back interesting accounts of the program and also the award presented for winning third prize in the pep song contest. The girls who made the trip were Anne Heubner, president of the club, Vera Payne, Lois Robertsen and Wilma Raymond.

The local club, formed in the fall, recently received accredited membership in the Oregon Home Economics association and national affiliation with the American association as well. The club has proven an enjoyable activity for girls interested in home economics and allied activities. Projects completed by the girls include furnishing hot lunches, decorating the teachers' room, welfare work in the community and sponsoring group study on girls' problems.
