Today's Pattern

FROCK WITH NAUTICAL AIR TAKES IN ALL WARM-WEATHER ACTIVITIES
PATTERN 2705

by Anne Adams

Hasn't it a nautical swing—this crisp, young frock whose good lines speak loudly for good times ahead? You'll be carried away with compliments, we wager, for it's a style that's equally becoming to Mother or Daughter. Both will find a wealth of freedom tucked away in well-placed inverted pleats, and flattery in a cool, becoming neckline with smartly notched revers. (The latter may be wide—or only medium large as shown on small view.) Want it for business? A monotone crepe or sheer in a new, dark shade or necktie silk would be quite perfect. If for sports, choose shantung, shirting, crash or one of the new novelty cottons.

Pattern 2705 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 4 1-8 yards 36 inch farbric. Illustrated instructions included with each pattern.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Send for your copy of our ANNE ADAMS PATTERN BOOK! You'll like its foresighted advice on the latest patterns, fabrics, accessories, fashion trends. You'll like the way it helps you plan a whole smart wardrobe. You'll like its slenderizing styles, its delightful patterns for misses and children. A book that's brimming with good ideas. Send for it today. PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND A PATTERN TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

CHARMING SOCIAL AFFAIR WILL BE OPEN TO PUBLIC ON THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The women of Roseburg and Douglas county have been most cordially invited to enjoy one of the largest and most charming benefit parties of the entire year Thursday, April 2, at two o'clock sharp at the Heinline conservatory, when the Roseburg Woman's club sponsors its semi-annual birthday party and tea.

Mrs. E. G. Young and Miss Helen Casey are joint chairmen of the party and are being asalsted by the members of the club having birthdays occurring from December through June, who will act as hostesses.

The Heinline conservatory offers ample space for this charming entertainment, which will include a beautiful spring pageant to be presented in four episodes. This pageant was written by Mrs. E. G. Young, who is one of the most prominent members of the club, and who during the past several months has been responsible for a number of charming original entertainments enjoyed by the club members and their guests.

The second part of the entertainment will be a one-act comedy play, "The Florist Shop," by Winifred Hawridge. This play is a Harvard Workshop play and during its various presentations at Harvard it has been highly recommended as a very delightful and enjoyable entertainment. The play is under the very capable direction of Miss Helen Casey, who has been an indispensable member of the Woman's club for several years. Her work in promoting and directing entertainments for this club has resulted in the Woman's club birthday teas being outstanding social affairs of every year. Two large birthday teas are given annually by the club with Miss Casey in charge of the plays. Society matrons of Roseburg and community are anticipating this Thursday's entertainment with much interest.

The setting of "The Florist Shop," is that of a flower shop. The flowers for the play are being used by the cast through the courtesy of Austin and Son of The Fern and from the Umpqua Flower shop.

Mrs. W. M. Campbell will act as mistress of ceremonies for the spring pageant, which has a cast of over thirty.

The regular birthday admission price will be charged. A most cordial invitation has been extended to the general public to enjoy this delightful afternoon's entertainment. Tea will be served at the close of the plays.
