POMONA GRANGE TO CONFER DEGREES

A special meeting of Douglas county Pomona grange will be held Tuesday, March 31, at the Riverside grange hall at 8 p. m., for the purpose of conferring the 5th degree. A large class of candidates is expected to be present. Grangers attending are asked to bring sandwiches, cake and cream for coffee, as refreshments will be enjoyed following the business session.

Members of the advisory board of home economics committees are also being called for a meeting, following the grange session Tuesday night, to discuss plans for a family living conference, to be held April 15 at the Knights of Pythias lodge hall in Roseburg. Mrs. Alice Goff, chairman of the advisory committee, reports that representatives will be present at the forthcoming conference from the college extension service.

Fred Goff, chairman of the county grange agricultural committee, announces a meeting of agricultural committee members on April 6 at 8 p. m., in the county agent's office for a conference on marketing of local products. Blanks, rules and general information concerning the annual pest hunt will be mailed this week to all granges. Mr. Goff reports.
