Today's Patterns

LOVELY! A FLATTERING WARM-WEATHER FROCK PATTERN 2582

by Anne Adams

Here it is! The dress that never stays home!—well, hardly ever, for it's a frock to win compliments and invitations right and left! Its most important invitation—easy making—goes to YOU who will want this crisp, young frock for spring and summer dress-up. It's grand for young things, who would look both trim and tantalizing. Grand for their mothers, too, for its lines also bespeak statelyness and poise. Daughter will like it in a printed silk or crepe, or her most becoming pastel shade. Mother's sure to favor a dark basic-color sheer or novelty synthetic for informal daytime occasions. For dress-up, cord lace, eyelet batiste or voile are perfect. Pattern 2582 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with each pattern.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Send for your copy of our ANNE ADAMS PATTERN BOOK! You'll like its foresighted advice on the latest patterns, fabrics, accessories, fashion trends. You'll like the way it helps you plan a whole smart wardrobe. You'll like its slenderizing styles, its delightful patterns for misses and children. A book that's brimming with good ideas. Send for it today. PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND A PATTERN TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. Address orders to News-Review, Pattern department, Roseburg, Ore.

WOMAN'S CLUB EXECUTIVE LUNCHEON IS HELD AT HOTEL ROSE TUESDAY

Mrs. C. S. Healine, president of the Roseburg Woman's club, presided over the executive luncheon held at twelve o'clock yesterday at the Hotel Rose.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Healine, Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Mrs. Lyle Marsters, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. Bertha Parrott, Mrs. E. T. Nelson, Mrs. Scott Williams, Mrs. Homer W. Grow and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Plans were made for a garden sale to be sponsored by the Woman's club April 13. The committee appointed for this sale included Mrs. W. E. Ott, chairman, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. Foster Butte, Mrs. Albert Micell and Mrs. L. Kohlhagen Sr.

Mrs. Lyle Marsters presented the report of the semi-annual birthday tea held last week at the Healine conservatory. A part of the money will be sent to the state endowment fund.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary Mrs. E. T. Nelson, and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Scott Williams.

REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS ESTABLISHED IN PORTLAND

State headquarters for the Oregon Republican club have been opened this week in Portland at 927 Felling building, Lowell C. Paget, president of the state organization, announces that Miss Jeanette Calkins will be in charge of the offices. A general invitation is issued to all republicans to inspect the new quarters.

The Oregon Republican club has been designated as the official organization through which young republicans of the state are to be marshaled into line for the coming campaign, according to word sent Mr. Paget by J. Kenneth Bradley, chairman of the Young Republican National federation which has headquarters in Washington. Bradley's action came by direction of the national committee.

"Now that we have established headquarters," said Mr. Paget, "we can take care of the many inquiries that have been coming in from different parts of Oregon as to the formation of chapters of the Oregon Republican club. The widespread enthusiasm shown is indicative of the spirit of determination which is motivating the republicans throughout the country."

Officers of the Oregon Republican club serving with Mr. Paget are: William McGilchrist, vice-president, first congressional district, Salem; Herbert Jonas, vice-president, second congressional district, Prineville; Bert S. Gooding, vice-president, third congressional district, Portland; Mrs. Hugh Fortner, secretary, Portland; Don Newberry, treasurer, Medford; Cecil Chrisman, sergeant-at-arms, Wallowa.

Advisory boards include: First congressional district: Hannah Martin, Salem; Attorney William W. Knight, Portland; Marvin Skilpworth, Marshfield; second congressional district: John F. Kilkenny, Pendleton; Ted Gillenwaters, Klamath Falls; George Stadelman, The Dalles; third congressional district: Mrs. Della Hedler, Newton C. Smith and Lamar Toozee, all of Portland.

REPUBLICAN MEETING IS HELD IN PORTLAND

A large number of officers and members of the various chapters of Pro-America republican clubs in Oregon met in Portland this week for a series of interesting meetings conducted at headquarters in that city. Mrs. H. C. Waddell, chairman of the Douglas unit of Pro-America, attended the sessions and heard some of the leading republicans in the country present topics of the greatest importance at this time.

Prominent republican men and women of Portland acted as hosts and listeners to the many visitors from all parts of the state. Banquets and teas interspersed the business sessions.

EASTER BRIDGE LUNCHEON WILL BE CHARMING AFFAIR OF NEXT WEDNESDAY

POET'S CORNER

THE CHALLENGE

MRS. A. O. ROSE
I'm really afraid
Some are led from duty
By the "Circus Parade."

The reason for this, you see,
People do not see clearly
The Man, Jesus of Galilee.

"And I, if I be lifted up
Will draw all men to me."
That's the way to keep interest up.

Then we need not be afraid
That folk will leave their duty
For the big "Circus Parade."
