Today's Pattern

POLKA DOTS ARE FASHION'S FAVORITE AND THIS FROCK WILL BE YOURS! PATTERN 2701

by Anne Adams

There's plenty of DASH to this young frock, for a neater, more summery style just doesn't exist! Just looking at it will make you want to sit right down and order the pattern now, for it's a style you can't afford to miss, and one you can easily afford to make up, and own. There's a very small yardage requirement, and no trick at all to cut those brief sleeves in one with the prettily rousing yoke. See how casually sun-ray darts put just that bit of necessary fullness into the bodice while a too-ample waistline is defined cleverly. Don't forget to provide for that smart button trim when you're choosing novelty cottons, silk and voile.

Pattern 2701 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42. Size 16 takes 3 1/8 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with each pattern.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

POET'S CORNER

"CAPRICIOUS NIGHT"

By RICHARD B. PHILLIPS
There sails a silver moon above the bay
While stars look down and kiss the milky spray
That whickeys toss into a summer's night,
So fashioning a spread of sparkling light.

The moon sails calmly for the open sea
Leaving the festive scene to you and me.
And as it moves it silhouettes dark hills
Into a chain of splendor and of thrills.

But now an off-shore breeze begins to blow
And ominous sea-borne thunder-clouds to show.
Soon all has turned to dismal, dark-est night
Hereof of moon and stars' effulgent light.
