ROSE SCHOOL P.T.A. BENEFIT WILL BE HELD TUESDAY EVENING

A most cordial invitation has been extended to the general public to enjoy a delightful benefit affair to be sponsored by the Rose school P.T.A. Tuesday night, April 21, at 8 o'clock at the auditorium of the junior high school. The proceeds of this affair will go to purchase a radio for the school. A candy sale will be held during the evening.

The program will open with the presentation of the Harvard Workshop classic one-act comedy, "The Florist Shop," which is under the direction of Miss Helen Casey. Miss Casey, Mrs. E. G. Young, Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Mrs. Raymond Ballard and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter play the characters in this one-act comedy. This play will be followed by a delightful program of music, vocal and dance numbers. The general public has been invited to attend. Mrs. L. M. Wimberly is acting as general chairman of the affair.

SURPRISE SHOWER GIVEN TO MRS. COENENBERG

SUTHERLIN, April 20.—Mrs. Anthony Coenenberg, whose marriage to A. Coenenberg, proprietor of the Sutherland bakery, took place on April 4, was the honored guest of a delightful "shower" party at her home on State street Monday afternoon. The affair, which had been quietly arranged by a number of ladies of the community was a most pleasing surprise to Mrs. Coenenberg when the ladies called shortly after two o'clock bearing many useful and attractive gifts which were deposited on a table in the dining room.

Following congratulations and a pleasant social hour, a delicious luncheon was served to the following ladies:

Mrs. J. W. Culver, Mrs. Alice Bundy, Mrs. E. O. Young, Mrs. L. L. Cameron, Mrs. Harold Y. Smith, Mrs. Theodore Anderson, Mrs. Lewis Allen, Mrs. Wilson Harrison, Mrs. Mark Jordan, Mrs. Anna Hakonen, Mrs. E. L. L. Mary Sellock, Mrs. Bertha Bell, Mrs. T. Gilbreth, Mrs. Belle Cook, Mrs. W. J. Hayner, Mrs. Claud Sellock, Mrs. Barge, Mrs. Claud Goff, Mrs. Nellie Parker, Mrs. Emma Currier, Miss Lois McNabb, Miss Phyllis Goff, Miss Berthe Smith and Miss June Young.

LADIES AID HAS PLEASANT MEETING

CANYONVILLE, April 18.—Mrs. Dennis Hanks, assisted by Mrs. Len Cato, entertained the M. E. Ladies Aid at her home north of Canyonville Thursday afternoon. The president, Mrs. S. M. Pardee, presided and led the devotionals. The afternoon was spent in working on the quilt. Plans are being made for a sock social which will be held in the Canyonville schoolhouse Friday evening, May 1. A program is being prepared and a good time is anticipated.

The next regular meeting will be held at the Canyon Auto camp. Mrs. G. E. Baugh will be hostess. It will be in the nature of a "mother and daughter" affair. Each older lady is to invite a younger one as her daughter for that day, and the younger members are to bring an older one as a mother. Each member is asked to have some tribute to motherhood, or, as the Aid is a group of mothers, to speak briefly on "What Has Motherhood Meant to You?"

Members are asked to bring either sandwiches or cake or cookies. Coffee will be served by the hostess.

Delicious refreshments were served to Mrs. W. S. Cornutt, Mrs. Jos. Casati, Mrs. Lillian Hostford, Mrs. Blackwood, Mrs. G. E. Baugh, Mrs. Roy, Mrs. J. B. Parker, Mrs. S. M. Pardee and the hostess, Mrs. Dennis Hanks and Mrs. Len Cato.

DALE KEASEY ENJOYS PARTY ON HIS SIXTH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. H. C. Keasey entertained at a very delightful party at her home last Wednesday to honor her son, Dale, on his sixth birthday anniversary.

Gifts were presented to Dale from Daisy May Hoffmeister, Shirley and Dolores Porter, Jimmy Dale Grimm, Jackie Barrett, Donna Patrone, Mickey Thompson, Carlyle Darby, Joyce Peterson, Russell Peterson, Bobby Barrett, Vernon Woodruff, Betty Hendricks, Charles Burnett, Gordon Howard, Jimmy and Billy Robertson, Haey Fretwell and Bobby and Hugh Willis.

Games were played, and later Mrs. Keasey served delicious party refreshments at a table decorated in a pretty pink and white color scheme.

MRS. ARTHUR SMITH ENTERTAINS STUDY CLUB

SUTHERLIN, April 20.—Mrs. Arthur Smith entertained the Just-More Study club at the home of her mother, Mrs. Richardson, last Wednesday afternoon, following a lovely dessert luncheon. Miss Lillian Lindhe gave a very interesting review of a novel dealing with this part of Oregon. The following members and guests were present: Mrs. L. L. Cameron, Mrs. W. S. Duor and daughter, Mrs. Gerald Kahler of Eugene, Mrs. Marvin Fisher, Mrs. Harold Smith, Mrs. Frank Young, Mrs. Stearns Cushing, Mrs. Richardson, Miss Lillian Lindhe and Mrs. Arthur Smith.

PLAY DAY WINNERS ARE ANNOUNCED

The annual Douglas county play-day winners for Saturday, April 18, include Carol Baker, Barbara Turner, Marjorie Wagner, Wilma Ellison, Virginia Foris, Evelyn Weaver, Ada Jane Chalmers and Shirley Mae Brunn. A large number of students from various schools around the county were present for this delightful annual affair.

MOTHERS TO BE ENTERTAINED AT UNIVERSITY IN MAY

Mothers of University of Oregon students in and near Roseburg will soon receive warm, personal invitations from sons and daughters to be present on the Eugene campus, May 8, 9 and 10, for what is expected to be the most outstanding Mother's day celebration in the history of the university, according to word reaching here.

Plans for the various events of the week-end, which will also be the traditional junior week-end on the campus, are already nearing completion. It is announced. The first affairs will be held on Friday, May 8, when the Associated Women Students and the Y. W. C. A. will sponsor a tea in the afternoon in Gerlinger hall. A reception, sponsored by the Eugene Mothers' club and the faculty women's club, will be held from 8 to 11 p. m. in Gerlinger hall. Mothers may also attend the Junior Prom, where a special section of seats will be reserved.

The annual mass meeting for all mothers will be held Saturday afternoon, and following this, mothers may visit the famous Murray Warner collection of Oriental art in the art museum. The annual Mothers' day banquet will be held at 5:30, when the Stranb Memorial hall a number of new features have been worked out for this. Following the banquet, mothers will attend the colorful and unique canoe ride on the mill race.

Sunday students will honor their mothers with special dinners at all living organizations, and special services will be held in all Eugene churches.

DECORATIONS FOR JOB'S DAUGHTERS CONVENTION TO BE VERY LOVELY

Mrs. Boyd Bales, chairman for decorating the Ellis temple for the opening of Job's Daughters' state convention to occur here Thursday, April 23, has announced that her committee is already busily engaged in planning and making arrangements for decorating for the opening affair.

It is especially desired by the committee for a large show of flowers on this opening day of the convention and Mrs. Bales has asked that anyone in or around Roseburg who has surplus flowers, which they would like to give to Job's Daughters for decorating purposes, to please leave the flowers at the Ellis temple any time Wednesday. Flowers in purple and white are especially desired as these two colors are the colors of the Job's Daughters and will prevail in the decorating scheme.

EASTER PARTY HELD BY SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

CAMAS VALLEY, April 20.—Mrs. T. G. Lawson invited the members of her Sunday school class to her home Saturday, April 11, from ten until two to color eggs and have an egg hunt. A delicious picnic lunch was served at noon. Games were enjoyed during the afternoon hours.

Those present were Donald Coon, Virginia Shertz, Catharine Standley, Polly Roberts, Neal McFall and Marcus Brown, class members. Visitors were Virginia Coon, Donald Lawson and Joannine Lawson.
