Today's Pattern

LOOK SLIM AT HOME IN FROCK THAT EQUALIZES PROPORTIONS

PATTERN 2549

by Anne Adams

Looks like "time out" for a cup of tea, and whether at home or at a neighbor's, you may always be assured of presenting a most charming appearance in this dainty, warm-weather frock. Distinctive among its many features is the novel sleeve-yoke-panel-one which has been designed for easy dressmaking. Even a beginner will find it fun to put this pattern together. The woman of not-too-slender proportions will appreciate its slenderizing lines, which increase height and decrease breadth. Both the sturdy and sheer tub collars are practical, while bright buttons will add immeasurably to its gaiety and charm.

Pattern 2549 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 takes 3-5 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Send for your copy of our ANNE ADAMS PATTERN BOOK! You'll like its foresighted advice on the latest patterns, fabrics, accessories, fashion trends. Great Al. G. Barnes Circus, Bigger and Better, Due in Roseburg Next Month

Transported aboard special trains with numerous employees, in addition to advance men, an official of the circus have today furnished some statistics. One hundred head of draft horses are carried; and innumerable head of ring stock. There are performers representing 15 foreign countries. Riders headed by the Christian Troupe of seven Italian equestrians will be seen along with Al G. Barnes' 40 dancing horses and 10 dancing girls. The Walters troupe of acrobats, who perform high up in the dome of the "big top" will thrill and amaze in acrobatic work. Acrobats and clowns will also be a part of the super program.

For more than a quarter of a century the Al G. Barnes circus has excelled with its trained wild animals. More than a score of international wild animal trainers will be seen. Foremost among them will be seen Bert Nelson, who has returned to America after fresh foreign triumphs. For this season he is presenting a group of 26 lions and tigers in a display of courage, daring and patience.

Tillie, the fan dancing elephant, has gone high hat this season with her ostrich plumed crown and will have the women ogling her jealous. Mary Cornell, one of the pretty girls with the circus, has a prominent place on Tillie's howdah, where she may also shine among the plumes.

The "Fiesta of the Rio Grande," a gorgeous processional fiesta with the charm and romance of old Spain, a glorious fairyland spectacle of pantomime enchantment, will open the circus performance as a prelude. Superb beyond belief, indescribable, a triumph among colossal productions. It is today sweeping all before it with its all powerful appeal and the very vastness of its character. It is the crowning spectacle in the long, eventful career of Al G. Barnes. One thousand men and women, horses and animals participate in the stupendous spectacle. Great companies of trained singers, orchestras of vast size, grand golden-toned organs, cymbals and trumpets will be heard. Seventy thousand dollars was expended on wardrobe for this gorgeous production.

Mary Cornell and Tillie, Fan Dancing Elephant

The circus! Lions, tigers, clowns, acrobats, peanuts, popcorn, and horses, horses, horses.

The Al G. Barnes show, one of the world's largest circuses, will exhibit in Roseburg on Thursday, May 7, at Bellows' field.

Performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m. The doors will open at 1 and 7 p. m. to permit an inspection of the zoological collection or to enjoy a concert of popular and operatic music by Prof. Weeekner's military band.

Praises Oregon's Safety Headway

A reduction of 17 per cent in Oregon's traffic fatalities last year has attracted attention of safety leaders throughout the nation, says Roy E. Britton (right), director of the National Highway Users conference and chairman of the American Automobile association's traffic safety committee. In this photograph Mr. Britton is shown congratulating E. B. McDaniel, president of the Oregon State motor association, on Oregon's safety work carried on under the leadership of the motor club. The highway official visited Oregon while on tour from headquarters in Washington, D. C.

POET'S CORNER

APRIL SHOWERS

By RICHARD B. PHILLIPS
That April brings us showers
Beyond a doubt is true,
Showers of fragrant flowers
Of every shade and hue.

Red oriental poppies
Beside the common flag,
While tulips rare in rockeries
With marigolds play tag.

And many another flower
Uplifts its cheerful face
To smile in an April shower
Of color, charm and grace.
