SLENDERIZING AFTERNOON FROCK REVEALS CHIC AND CONCEALS WEIGHT

PATTERN 4902

by Anne Adams

Definitely slenderizing—this frock for warm weather days which proves that looking slim is largely a matter of fashion arithmetic. Inches will be subtracted from your hip measurements by the addition of wide, cool, shoulder capes. And the panel, yoke and sleeves (all in one piece) sum up the charm of the flattering bodice. Skirt honors are divided between straight, trim lines and the wide pleat at the hem which allows for an easy stride. The attractiveness of this model will be multiplied if you make it in a flowered voile or chiffon, or soft cotton lace. In a few hours, with a few yards of fabric, you have a new Spring "number."

Pattern 4902 is available in sizes 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36 and 38. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards 29 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) to this Anne Adams pattern.

POET'S CORNER

SILENCE

G. M. Leeper.
There's a silence
No words may know
Where even whispers
Dare not go.

It may be found
Within the trees,
Moved not, or swayed
By gentle breeze,
Just the silence—
And the trees.

You find it again
In midnight hours,
Filled not with din
Of earthly powers,
Just the silence—
And the hours.

Then again it comes
Within the home,
Where other forms
There used to roam,
Just the silence—
And the home.

Then it touches you
Within the heart,
When all but memory
Must soon depart,
Just the silence—
And the heart.

You feel it again
Where all is snow,
When Arctic winds
Have ceased to blow,
Just the silence—
And the snow.

You will find it
In lovely flowers,
Where summer winds
Have ceased for hours,
Just the silence—
And the flowers.

Its presence is felt
Beneath the moon,
When parting hours
Come much too soon,
Just the silence—
And the moon.

It comes close to you
On the desert sand,
Like shadowy forms
That come and stand,
Just the silence—
And the sand.
