POET'S CORNER

OLD NEBO

By RICHARD B. PHILLIPS

Climb high on Nebo, beacon crowned.

And see how Roseburg awakes around

Into green valleys north and south.

To the east and towards the Umpqua's mouth.

Then watch the river on its course

To seaward from its mountain source.

And marvel at the blues and greens

Of far and nearby mountain scenes.

And when your quest for thrills is o'er

You'll leave but off' return for more.

For Nebo's price is but the climb

While recompense is most sublime.
