Oddities Gleaned From Day's News

Anyone Seen William?

GREENVILLE, Pa., April 29.—(AP)—Cecil Perkerson mourned to-day as lost his fox-hunting lilly dog, the only creature of its kind, he claimed, and one which he fears cannot be replaced. The goat, which followed the hound regularly, hasn't returned from a run of 10 days ago. Perkerson said he believed the goat either had tangled its horns in a fence and died there, or was entangled by a thief to be roasted "in somebody's barbecue pit."

Lucky It Wasn't Shark

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 29.—(AP)—When Lonnie Goodwin noticed a commotion in the shallow waters of the Columbia canal, he waded in and looked his fingers in the gills of a large fish. Two passersby saw his struggle and beat the fish on the head with rocks. Together they dragged it out. It proved to be a 259-pound sturgeon, measuring eight feet.

Here's Which

SOUTH PITTSBURGH, Tenn., April 29.—(AP)—The law firm of Kelly and Kelly here appears united in matters of business only. Allen Kelly, a republican, was named a presidential elector at a recent party convention. Alan Kelly, his partner, is a candidate for a similar post in the democratic party. The two are not related.

Excusable

MILWAUKEE, April 29.—(AP)—Arrested on charges of speeding, passing on the left side of a street car and running through a stop sign, John M. Holtz, Pt. Beach, Mont., was fined $50 and costs by Judge George E. Bagen. "But judge," protested Holtz, "I'm on my honeymoon and I've only got $10."

Judge Bagen suspended the fine and remanded custody of the defendant to his bride. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse, of Glide, spent several hours in town yesterday on business.

OREGON EVENTS FLASHED FROM WIRE SERVICE

PORTLAND, April 28.—(AP)—The death of Mrs. Estella Crawford after a traffic accident March 27 resulted in the placing of involuntary manslaughter charges against Francis W. Bureau, who was alleged to have fled from the scene of the accident.

SALEM, April 28.—(AP)—The

Marion county relief committee has approved approximately 500 old age assistance claims, to be paid by the federal, state and county government through the relief committee beginning May 1. Committee members said the average of the payments would be about $20 a month to each pension recipient, nearly twice the average during the two years the county paid pensions out of its own funds.

PORTLAND, April 28.—(AP)—

David Robinson of Portland, an authority on rose culture, will be chairman of this year's Portland rose festival. Clarence H. Porter, president of the Portland rose society, announced the appointment. All rose societies and garden clubs on the coast were invited to enter exhibits in the show which will be June 11 to 13.

PORTLAND, April 29.—(AP)—

Fly Culbertson, bridge expert, commented to interviewers here, "Two men have ruined poker with this deuces wild stuff. That should be a standard game." He also predicted "a tremendous revival in poker in the next few years" and said he was working on a "system."

Culbertson said he would call a non-bridge player "a happy marty" and remarked that he was "a designer, an engineer" and "plays bridge less than any of the other 13,000,000 people who play the game in this country." He's too busy teaching to play, he said.

exceptional children and went on record favoring a federal grant for transit suits if funds are needed before a state plan is put into operation.

MARSHFIELD, April 29.—G. W. Leslie, new Marshfield postmaster, regrets he is unable to fill a 16-year old order for nine pounds of bacon. So he will return $2 to J. D. Dyer, Lebanon.

MARSHFIELD, April 29.—Cook county griffers faced the possibility of being unable to use their sporty pipe-hole course today — unless they swim for it. The county court ruled a 200-foot bridge over an inlet — the only route to the course — was unsafe for traffic and said it would be closed next week. Several protest moves were under way.

Mrs. M. A. Schaeffer, of Canyonville, was a business visitor in town yesterday.
