OREGON EVENTS FLASHED FROM WIRE SERVICE

SALEM, April 30.—(AP)—Intangibles transferred as a gift from a non-resident of the state to an Oregon citizen are not subject to the Oregon gift tax, Attorney General L. H. Van Winkle informed State Treasurer Rufus C. Bohman today.

The issue involved the gift of property valued between $20,000 and $25,000 received by Rena Weik from her daughter, Seattle. Weik, Army, a resident of Washington. The gift represented one-fourth interest in the estate of her deceased father, Isaac Weik, who was a resident of Umatilla county.

REPUBLICANS LEAD IN OREGON 7 TO 5

SALEM, April 30.—(AP)—Oregon will have 16,272 more voters eligible to pass upon primary candidates this year than in 1934 for the highest registration totals recorded. But there will be less republicans to answer the roll than two years ago while a gain of more than 20 per cent was listed for the democratic party. The total figure for all parties was 178,186.

Registrations listed by the state department today, however, showed republicans in the lead in the state by a ratio of approximately 7 to 5. All registrations for the progressive, prohibition, socialist and other parties showed a marked decrease.

Republicans numbered 271,149, or a decrease of 14,352 in that party. Democrats listed were 198,322, an increase of 31,818 over the primaries two years ago. All other parties listed 7,715. Two years ago the total registration was 161,272.

Four counties were numbered in the democratic roll, Baker, Harney, Klamath and Union.

All counties showed decreased registrations for republicans except Baker, Clackamas, Curry, Deschutes, Josephine, Klamath, Lincoln, Linn, Marion, Morrow, Sherman, Wasco, Washington, Wheeler and Yamhill.

Democratic losses were recorded only in Gilliam and Jefferson.

THEFT CHARGE HITS MISSING AVIATOR SEARS NAMED NEW SEATTLE CHIEF

SPokane, April 30.—(AP)—Sheriff's officers, instead of fliers, searched today for C. W. McCollum, 25, missing amateur aviator.

Deputy Prosecutor L. M. Carroll swore out a justice court warrant for the young flier late yesterday, charging him with grand larceny in a $2,000 embezzlement. McCollum, whose business was caravanning automobiles from the factories to coast dealers, was charged specifically with failing to return a $450 bond posted by Carroll Adams, one of his drivers.

The deputy prosecutor said drivers complained to him that McCollum held their bonds totaling $3,000. Carroll also said more than $400 in checks signed by McCollum had been returned by banks.

McCollum flew away from Felts field here at 3:30 a. m. Monday, saying he was going to Portland and would return by noon. Wellington Dow, young Seattle flier, was with him.

Edgar E. Rasmussen, Seattle, said McCollum still owed him $5,000 on the five-passenger Waco airplane.

SEATTLE, April 30.—(AP)—The city council today confirmed William H. Sears, ex-county chief of police, as Seattle's police chief for the next five years, over the bitter opposition of Mayor-elect John F. Dore. The vote was 5-to-3 when Councilwoman E. F. Powell switched her vote to break an earlier 4-1 tie.

Sears was a compromise selection for the first appointment under a charter amendment sponsored by the new order of Clackamas to take the police department out of biennial majority election politics.

Sears, 56 and white-haired, is best known as the man who captured Jay Allen, New York desperado, in 1917; who solved the Everett Frank Lindsay wife murder here, and in many bank robberies and murder cases, having been instrumental in the Erland's Point mass murders and the recent slaying of two Seattle policemen.
