Salt Creek Flooding.

THE ROAD up Salt creek is paved with blasted hopes and the water of that famous stream tomorrow will flow bitter and very salty with the tears of the defeated. Defeat, in anything, is said to contemplate but it is the rule of life that only one can be a winner.

Tomorrow the list of defeated candidates in today's primary election will far outnumber the list of winners. There will be three defeated candidates for nomination for state representative. Seven will fail to win either democratic or republican nomination for county commissioner. Four candidates for sheriff will tread the trail up Salt creek.

But for the benefit of all of us may the best men and women win! Elections, in addition to being deadly serious and important events, are mighty good fun—fun that is for all except the candidates. Even a few of the candidates seem to enjoy the business of campaigning. Americans love sport, and they like a good race or a good game and generally speaking they regard elections as sort of a game and good sportsmanship in elections is usually rewarded.

Today's contest is a preliminary. The two major parties nominate their candidates who will battle it out in the general election in November. Primary elections are fully as important as the general elections. Just in case some may read this before eight o'clock this evening and have not yet voted—DO YOUR DUTY AS A CITIZEN AND CAST YOUR PRIMARY ELECTION BALLOT TODAY.

Prison breaks, which are bad business, have been occurring for many centuries and will continue for many centuries more. Desperate men, with no hopes for the future, will take long chances.

IF YOU are young, and are wise, you will make a solemn resolution, and KEEP it, that you will never get yourself into a fix where the present is so terrible and the future so hopeless that you might as well stake your life on a desperate break.

Plain, ordinary honesty and fair dealing, plus a reasonable amount of common sense, will keep ANYONE out of such a fix.

Daily Devotions

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

A Prayer

O God, our Heavenly Father, we ask Thee that Thou wouldst give us sympathy and understanding and a spirit of helpfulness toward all those people who are finding life hard. The poor, the exploited, the suffering people, who deserve and could enjoy as much of the good things of life as we have. Help us to see the sins of our day, the wrong and injustice that mark so much of life, and give us zeal and courage for the righting of our social wrongs. Amen.

touch the filmy draperies with which the room is decorated, and in the ensuing pandemonium a hat check girl is trampled to death and two men and a woman are suffocated.

A torch dance, with open-flame torches, in a crowded room decorated with filmy draperies. What fools we mortals be!

IDLEYLD SALMON FISHING POPULAR

Idleyld park and the Rock creek section of the Umpqua river have sprung into prominence this year for salmon fishing. Winchester, usually one of the spots favored by chinook fishermen, has failed to yield more than a few fish this year, as the open dam permits unrestricted passage. The catches at the Forks, Cleveland and other favorite fishing spots in the vicinity of Roseburg, have been very light. At Idleyld and in that vicinity, however, fishermen are reporting excellent catches, several having hooked the limit of salmon at various times.

MYRTLE CREEK

MYRTLE CREEK, May 15.—The enterprising citizens of the Cedar grove and Jones school districts met at the latter school house last Friday night for a community pot-luck supper at 6 o'clock, then listened to talks given by J. V. Long, Wm. Hoeft, W. W. Willis and Mrs. Stella Quine, candidates to be voted on at the primary election Friday. A short but interesting program followed.

Mrs. Mary Miles Murphy of Portland spent Mother's day with her mother, Mrs. Kate Miles, and remained for a further visit through the week before returning to her home.

The operetta, "The Frolic of the Bells," given last Friday evening at the gymnasium by the primary children, directed by their teacher, Miss Gladys Ulan, and "The Wedding of the Painted Dolls," by Miss Waltman's 3rd and 4th graders was enjoyed by a large audience of parents and friends. The children's program was followed by songs by the boys' and girls' glee clubs and a "sing" by the crowd, directed by Principal Dan Polling.

Guy Brewer and his sister, Mrs. George McDonald, of Remote, passed through Myrtle Creek last Thursday en route to Yreka, California, in response to a message announcing the death of their brother, Frank Brewer, who was stricken by a heart attack Wednesday. Mr. Brewer was well known in Myrtle Creek, having lived here most of his young manhood. Mrs. May Brewer, who was visiting friends and relatives here, accompanied her children to Yreka.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hall and children, Joy and Jay, visited at the A. M. Dalley home on Bliger creek one day last week. Mr. Hall operates a tourist camp south of Canyonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Breedlove, who have been living in Bend where Mr. Breedlove has been employed in a bakery, have moved to Myrtle Creek, where he is working for M. McDougall in the bakery here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rice of Salem, are visiting with relatives and then going on to Redmond and then going on the Redmond for a visit with Mr. Rice's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. (Ted) Rice.

The play, "Deacon Dubbs," which is being prepared by the Loyal Berean class of the Christian Bible school, and which will be presented in the gymnasium of the local high school, at a not very distant date, is a hilarious 3-act comedy by Walter Ben Hare. Rehearsals have begun and the work is progressing nicely with an excellent cast. Mrs. C. C. Marsh is directing with the assistance of Mrs. Kenneth Winston. The play will be given as a benefit for the church building fund.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Roberts and Mrs. Roberts' daughter, Mrs. Ethel Hale, of North Bend, attended the funeral of Mrs. Roberts' niece, Mrs. Frank Leighton, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Maddux were visiting at their old home on Bliger creek Tuesday. Mr. Maddux is employed in a Crescent City barber shop and Mrs. Maddux is living in Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Brill and Mrs. C. A. Strong have returned from Portland, where Mrs. Brill went through the Coffey clinic and Mrs. Strong visited with her son, Geoffrey and family. Mr. and Mrs. Brill visited with their son, Wm. Fitzpatrick, at the state tuberculosis hospital in Salem, and found him getting along very well.

Miss Lucille Chapin, of Salem, and a former resident here, is renewing old friendships and is also visiting at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Snyder of Days Creek.
