U. S. V. HOSPITAL

By OTTILIA K. ASHTON

Hospital day was made quite the event this year with the opening for inspection of our new Recreational building. Beautiful huge bouquets of garden flowers were arranged throughout the hospital. Recreational building and barracks, making a picture long to be remembered. Designated personnel met and escorted the visitors through the various departments, explaining the operation of each department as they went along.

The visitors passing through the recreational building enjoyed the musical numbers rendered by Leary Orth, who is a member veteran. Leary sang many solos, playing his own accompaniment. Many of the groups lingered long enough to join in the singing, making it a very pleasant afternoon.

We have the following ladies of Roseburg to thank for the many beautiful garden flowers they sent us for decoration: Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Mrs. Lulu B. Rose, and Mrs. Velle Broadway. Also the American Legion auxiliary of Grants Pass.

The ladies of the local V. F. W. auxiliary sponsored their semi-monthly card party Tuesday afternoon in the east solarium of the barracks. A large box of delicious apples was distributed as a special treat.

Twelve bright colored and attractive pillow covers have been received from the V. F. W. auxiliary of Grants Pass, Oregon.

The state department of the American Legion auxiliary distributed Mother's day cards to all the veterans desiring them, that their mothers may not be forgotten on that particular day. They also arranged for bright colored napkins for all the tables and trays accompanied by a specially printed greeting card. Bright colored baskets, filled with candy, were placed on the trays and the tables of the smaller dining rooms in the hospital.

We expect to bring our American Legion auxiliary poppy industry to a close this week or the first part of next week. Ninety men have made fifty nine thousand poppies, shipping them to sixty-two different units. The men have appreciated and enjoyed this work and we feel that they are sorry to have it end.
