DISPENSERS PUSH CONVENTION PLANS

Wallace Rapp, general chairman of the local organization on arrangements for the convention of state food and beverage dispensers here June 21, 22 and 23, was last night elected as trustee to represent the dispensers of this district in the state organization. The election was a part of the business meeting held by Douglas county dispensers at the Dutch Mill last night, where convention plans were thoroughly reviewed. Arrangements have been made, it was reported, for a banquet for convention delegates at the Plantation Inn on the evening of Monday, June 22, at 6:30 o'clock. The banquet will be followed by a cabaret show featuring entertainers from Portland and San Francisco.

BIG OREGON WOOL SALE SET FOR JUNE

PORTLAND, May 20.—(AP)—Approximately 500,000 pounds of wool will be offered at the first wool auction of the season in eastern Oregon June 4, traders predicted today. The E. J. Burke & Co. of Portland purchased the Smythe clip of around 200,000 pounds at Pendleton, the largest clip produced in Oregon, and the Ben Taylor clip of around 100,000 pounds at Condon.

While figures on the Smythe clip were not made public, traders figured it was around 20 cents a pound with shrinkage of perhaps 74 per cent, compared with the general offerings of around 23 to 25 cents for other eastern Oregon wools with normal shrinkage of around 67 per cent. Movement of wool was on the increase.

Tipped Off G-Men

Efforts of G-men to capture Thomas Robinson, Jr., sought for more than a year in connection with the abduction of Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll of Louisville, Ky., ended in success when a soda fountain clerk, Lynn Allen, above, of Pasadena, Cal., recognized the fugitive from justice despite his feminine attire.

BOURBON RED TURKS SHIPPED TO HAWAII

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Cockeram, turkey growers near Oakland, this week shipped five Bourbon Red breeding hens and a prize winning tom to A. M. Brown of the Kauhau ranch, Kau, Hawaii, Hawaiian National park.

According to a letter from Mr. Brown to Mr. and Mrs. Cockeram, there are no Bourbon Red turkeys in Hawaii, although they have the White Hollands and Bronze. The Reds are to be shown at the Hawaiian turkey show.

Mr. Brown became interested in the Bourbon Reds through a list of prize winners at the Northwest Turkey show as published in an eastern magazine. There he secured the address of the Cockerams who have won many prizes, and contracted for the purchase of the birds.

FIRST ARCTIC TERN CHAPTER INSTALLED

The first chapter for the Medford district of the Order of Arctic Terns was installed Friday night at Camp Bradford by Dr. A. Cookman, ninth corps area lecturer and founder of the organization. The "Terns" are being organized as a fraternal order to promote the first hand study of nature. Many visitors were present for the installation ceremony.

Regular meeting of the V. F. W. Auxiliary Thursday, May 21st, 8:00 o'clock at the armory. All members are urged to be present to plan for the entertainment of the national president.—Adv.
