Anniversary of Lindbergh's Flight Over Atlantic Recalls Change it Wrought in French Sentiment Toward United States

PARIS, May 21.—(AP)—Nine years ago today, France experienced a complete change in her feeling for the United States.

The change was caused by one man, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh. He reached here May 21, 1927, after the first solo flight across the Atlantic. But there were no official celebrations of the feat today.

Back of the story of Lindbergh's triumphal reception, back of the most delicious night Paris has known since the Armistice, lies one of the most romantic, if little known, stories of Franco-American relations.

In April, 1927, France was in the midst of one of her periodic anti-American waves. The pride of her people had been hurt by the debt settlement which had been swat-tered with difficulty.

The franc had gone to smash and had been rescued by Poincare only through stern and often harsh measures. French aviation records had dropped, one after another, into American hands. To call Lindbergh and Coll had been lost in a hazardous flight to America.

So bitter were some people that in the streets of Paris there even was talk that Nungesser and Coll had been killed in America to hide their exploit.

The week before Lindbergh crossed the Atlantic, an American flag displayed on the building of the newspaper Matin had been hauled down to avoid friction with the crowds gathered in the street.

Then, somehow as Lindbergh, oblivious of the terrific thunder of acclaim that was to greet him, steadily approached Paris, there came a change in popular feeling.

Crowds began gathering in the twilight at Le Bourget, buzzing with speculation on the character of this unknown American who suddenly had caught the world's imagination.

News of his passage over Ireland, the swift flight from Cherbourg where today thousands of American tourists can read a commemorative plaque, brought new thousands to the field, eager to catch a glimpse of him.

By 10 o'clock, at night every inch of space was filled and many thousands crowded as closely as they could the six-foot iron fence around the airport.

Just after 10 p. m. came the drone of a motor. Searchlights picked up the plane, bathed it with silver light, and followed it to the ground. It was Lindbergh.

The crowd surged forward, swept down the fence, and poured across the field.

Even before it had seen him, Paris forgot its anti-American feeling, and took Lindbergh to its heart. The rest followed like a fairy-tale. Lindbergh's modesty completed the picture. From that day to this, France never has wavered in its love for the young American.

MAIL CARRIERS ARE FAVORED IN RULING

SALEM, May 21.—(AP)—Rural mail carriers, using their own cars in employ of the federal government, cannot be charged extra special state license fees, Attorney General L. H. Van Winkle informed the state department here today.

Earl Snell, secretary of state, requested the opinion as to whether the federal employees could be charged the additional $5 fee for light delivery trucks, under the 1924 statute.

Van Winkle held that because they are federal employees any fee in excess of the original $5 automobile license must be refunded to rural mail carriers.

Mrs. B. P. DeVore, of Oakland, was here shopping and visiting friends yesterday.

GIANTS TAKE LEAD IN NATIONAL LOOP

St. Louis Cards Dislodged in 10-7 Game; Detroit Downs Yankees.

By HUGH S. FULLETON, JR. (Associated Press Sports Writer)
The New York Giants, a team which has seen its starting pitchers finish only nine games of 29; whose manager and leading hitter, Bill Terry, is on the bench because of injuries; which has had nearly all its key men hurt at one time or another and which was down to one able catcher for a time in first place in the National league.

It speaks volumes for the ability and spirit of the Giants that they have even remained in the race in the face of all those handicaps. To make it even more surprising, eight of those nine complete games have been hurled by two men, Hubbell and Schumacher, and Schumacher has finished only three times in eight efforts.

Coming back after a disastrous western tour, during which they lost six out of eight games, the Giants have rallied to win seven in a row on their home lot from those same western rivals and club from fourth place to the top.

They took the lead by a direct frontal attack on St. Louis yesterday, trimming the Cardinals 10-7 and routing their old teammate, Parmelee.

The Brooklyn Dodgers also staged an advance in the standing perhaps just to show off some of the material they may have in the slobbery Cubs. With Mongo on the hill pitching six-hit ball, Brooklyn belted the 1935 champions 11-2 and moved out of the cellar.

The Phillies replaced them after absorbing a 9-2 beating from Pittsburgh's Pirates as Young smacked a pair of home runs.

Leading Trio Beaten
New York, Boston and Cleveland, running 1-2-3 in the American league, all came out on the short end of yesterday's encounters. The world champion Detroit Tigers, whose pitching has taken a decided turn for the better, outlasted the Yankees to win a ten-inning round duel between Rowe and Ruffalo, 4 to 3. Owen's homer was the winning blow for Rowe, who fanned ten as each pitcher gave six blows.

The St. Louis Browns, continuing their newly discovered hitting streak, routed the Red Sox 12-8 despite Sox's sixth homer of the season and Washington edged out the Indians, 7 to 6, leaving Cleveland only a half game ahead of Detroit.

Cain, who seems to have taken on new life since the Browns traded him to the Whites Sox, pitched to his first shutout victory of the season when he blanketed the Athletics with seven hits to win 4-0. In the day's other game the Cincinnati Reds overcame a five-run deficit in the last two innings, scoring seven runs in the eighth to trounce the Boston Bees 10 to 8.

WHALES PREFER DEATH TO RESCUE

FORT MYERS, Fla., May 21.—(AP)—Death drew near for some 20 stranded black whales today because they preferred destruction with their leaders to rescue by humans.

The whales, led by four large bulls, ran aground on a beach at nearby Captiva Island yesterday.

Several parties of fishermen saw the peril of the mammals so they secured ropes and managed to drag several of the smaller ones back into deep water.

The rescued animals promptly lunged back on the beach. The rescue workers were unable to move the three and four-ton leaders so they finally were forced to leave all to die.

It was expected the hapless whales would live many hours since they are air breathers.

JUSTICE BAILEY TO OPEN CAPITAL PLANS

SALEM, May 21.—(AP)—Justice J. O. Bailey of the state supreme court will substitute for the chief justice in opening the designs for Oregon's new capitol here Saturday.

Chief Justice J. U. Campbell was sent to a hospital here 12½ weeks for a sinus operation, and while he was reported recovering, he said he would be unable to be present at the opening as provided in the rules for the national architectural contest.

All designs must be in the hands of the clerk of the supreme court by tomorrow night. Up to that night 45 designs had been received from various parts of the nation.

Mrs. Van Voorhis, of Lookingglass, spent yesterday in this city shopping and visiting.

'FRAT' AIDS WIDOW OF EUGENE FIELD

HEAFFORD JUNCTION, Wis., May 21.—(AP)—Fraternity brothers of the late Eugene Field went to the rescue of the famous poet's widow, offering the funds necessary to save her north woods home from sale under a mortgage foreclosure.

Informed of the 80-year old widow's plight through newspaper accounts of her attempts to obtain a loan to prevent confirmation of the sale of her 155-acre estate on beautiful Crystal lake, the New York chapter of Phi Delta Theta wired her offering to advance the money.

ST. LOUIS, May 21.—The 80-year old widow of a gay poet, whose "Little Boy Blue" has delighted American children for four decades, today called on friends and admirers of her late husband to help her save her Wisconsin farm from foreclosure.

Mrs. Eugene Field, whom most of the world, including close students of her husband's work, supposed to be dead, sent an appeal from a sick-bed at Heafford Junction, Wis., for a loan of $3,000 to prevent confirmation of a mortgage sale which would take her 160-acre farm from her.

Through her son, Eugene II, she made known her plight in a letter to Jesse P. Henry, of St. Louis, foremost collector of "Fieldiana" and leader in a campaign to restore Field's boyhood home here as a shrine.

"It might be possible to find someone in St. Louis who would advance $3,000, which would give mother time to retinue her property here," the younger Eugene Field wrote.

He said he had invested all her money, about $50,000, and that her dilemma was a result of being unable to obtain a loan.

MURRAY PROPERTY AT CAMAS IS SOLD

CAMAS VALLEY, May 21.—An important real estate transaction was completed the latter part of last week when the B. R. Richter Co. became owners of the Shell service station and Bungalow Inn, lunch room, formerly owned and operated by L. T. Murray and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip McPhie.

The lunch room had not been in operation for several months, now Mrs. McPhie, proprietress, now at San Francisco, came up last week to assist in completing the transfer of property and to dispose of their household goods.

R. L. Richter, manager for the purchasing company, plans on improving the Bungalow Inn which will be used by Miss Lois Ann Richter as a beauty parlor. Miss Richter is a licensed operator, having received her training in a beauty college in Portland. She plans on installing the necessary equipment and getting ready for work as soon as possible.

The service station will also be improved and plans are so far available to continue with Shell products.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain
Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are the "water closets" of the body, and it is their duty to get rid of the waste matter, your 15 million of kidney tubes may need flushing.

Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills—renownedly by millions for their effectiveness. They give happy relief and will help flush out the 15 million of kidney tubes.

HOLDER HIT THREE TIMES BY PITCHER

Last Physical Blow Gives San Francisco Victory Over Beavers, 12-11.

(By the Associated Press)
Holder's remarkable physical attraction for pitched balls won a game for the San Francisco Seals and figured prominently in the changed positions of four Pacific coast league clubs today.

When Holder was hit for the third time yesterday by a pitched ball it forced in the deciding run of the Seals 12-11 affair with Portland.

That game with Oakland's 3-1 win over the Missions and Seattle's 1-0 victory over Los Angeles moved Seattle back into second place, tied the Missions and the Seals for third and dropped Portland into fifth position.

Holder was hit successively yesterday by Larikin, Carson and Carter. Posedel and Radonits, the other two Beaver hurlers, let him do the hitting—triple and a single. Caster hit Holder immediately after loading the bases by walking Letty O'Toole in the last of the ninth with the score tied 11-11.

Bedore drove in six Beaver runs, four of them with a homer, Marry, brilliant young Seals outfielder who got four out of five, also homed.

Seattle's win was the work of beautiful three-hit pitching by Lou Koupal, who is as good as hurlers come on the coast, and a brace of home runs by Muller.

Eddie Leashman, recently sold by the Oaks to the Reds, scored the only run against the five-hit pitching of his former teammate, Tobin. Leashman walked—the only pass Tobin issued while striking out eleven—stole second and scored on Lamanski's double.

Backed by the solid hitting of Worthington and Adams, Chambers hurled Sacramento to a 2-1 victory over San Diego. With a double and two singles in three times up, Worthington pounded in one run and scored himself on Adams' triple.

LUDOLPH, KOUPAL STILL TOP HURLERS

LOS ANGELES, May 21.—(AP)—Bill Ludolph of the Oakland club and Lou Koupal of Seattle's Indians continued to lead Pacific Coast league pitchers in averages including games through last Tuesday.

Figures released today showed the two right-handers tied with eight games won and one lost so far this season, each with averages of .889.

Trailing behind, with seven won and two lost, was Jack La Rocca, another Oakland right-hander, with an average of .778.

LONGWORTH OFF TO GOLF TOURNEY

PORTLAND, May 21.—(AP)—Ted Longworth, Portland professional, will leave tonight to represent the Pacific northwest in the national open golf championship at the Baltusrol golf club, Springfield, N. J., starting June 4.

By virtue of his 71-67-147 victory in the district qualifying round, he will be the Pacific northwest's sole entrant.

In recent practice rounds Longworth showed top form. He will compete in the True Temper open tournament at Detroit May 27 to 29 before continuing to New Jersey.

PHILLIES AND CUBS TRADE PLAYERS

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—(AP)—Philadelphia National league club announced today it traded Curt Davis, a right-handed pitcher, and Ethel Allen, an outfielder, to the Chicago Cubs for Chuck Klein and Fabian Koussik.

The announcement said no cash was involved. Reports were current, however, that the Phillies also received $75,000.

Lower Your Feeding Cost

Are you satisfied with the results you are receiving from your present feed? Would you like to lower your feeding cost, and at the same time increase your cream test? Of course you would, and here is a low cost dairy feed which will accomplish both results for you!

We recommend it as a combination to be fed with your roots, silage, hay crops or full pasture. MIX ONE SACK COCONUT MEAL AND ONE SACK MILL RUN PLUS DAIRY MINERALS. Feed 5 lbs. to 8 lbs. per cow each feeding.

For better results with your present ration, try adding about 3 lbs. of pure NUTCAKE BRAND Coconut Meal per cow per feeding.

If you have surplus oats, barley or wheat, take some of your home grown grains to your feed dealer and trade for Coconut Meal. Have your feed dealer grind and mix as follows: THREE PARTS YOUR HOME GROWN GRAIN AND ONE PART COCONUT MEAL, PLUS MINERALS. Watch the cream line rise when you feed NUTCAKE BRAND Coconut Meal. This mix is good for dairy cows, growing hogs, turkeys and cattle. Hog Farmers, this will save money for you.

All of the above feed mixes may be fed with your surplus skimmed milk with excellent results. Why not take advantage of these savings? Coconut Meal is low in price. See your feed dealer. Write to 2736 N. W. Front Ave., Portland, Ore. for copy of FREE booklet, "The Feeding of Coconut Meal For Profit." The booklet tells why.

EARTHQUAKES DEAL DEATH IN CHINA

SHANGHAI, China, May 21.—(AP)—Earthquakes killed hundreds in central China, caused extensive damage and terrorized the superstitious natives, reports reaching Shanghai today said.

Drums were beaten today, sacrifices offered and other magical devices resorted to by the terrified Chinese in their eagerness to appease the monsters they believe cause the shocks.

The Chinese believe these earthquakes are caused by huge whales in the interior of the earth arching or raising their backs against the upper firmament or by angry dragons waging war their tails.
