JOSEPH A. CRIETZ TAKEN BY DEATH

Joseph A. Crietz, 79, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Christenson, of Chadwick street, following a long period of illness.

He was born May 8, 1856, at Forreton, Ill., and came to Roseburg from Kansas last February.

Surviving are his daughter, Ruth Christenson, of Roseburg and two sons, Eugene and Russ Crietz, both of Chicago. The latter arrived in Roseburg yesterday evening, a few hours before his father's death, and left this morning with Mr. and Mrs. Christenson by automobile for Beloit, Kansas, to which place the body will be shipped this afternoon by the Roseburg Undertaking company.

FRANK WELLS WINS TOP SCHOOL HONOR

The Veterans of Foreign Wars award for highest scholastic standing for the school year in Roseburg senior high school was awarded today to Frank Wells. Wells' standing also won him the bronze pin of the school honor society.

Cough-Cop-Cure

PEORIA, Ill., May 28.—(AP)—Applying the old home remedy of a sudden scare to cure the hiccupping of his girl companion, Lewis Tucker drove his automobile in a series of sharp zig-zags from curb to curb. She went on hiccupping.

Then a motorcycle patrolman appeared, crowded Tucker's car to a stop, hauled him out and handed him a ticket for reckless driving. The hiccupping stopped. They thanked the policeman.
