GUESTS AT GODFREY HOME OVER WEEK-END

MYRTLE CREEK, June 5.—Mrs. O. E. Patterson and son, Byron, and daughter, Virginia, are weekend guests at the George Godfrey home, following a visit in Portland where Miss Patterson has completed four years' work in the medical department of the U. of O. and her graduation Monday at Eugene. They are en route to their home in Fort Duchene, Utah, where Dr. O. E. Patterson is employed in the government hospital. Miss Patterson will go to Boston the last of the month to begin her work as an interne in a hospital at that place. The Pattersons have many friends here, Miss Virginia having attended high school here.

DAINTY FROCK WITH GAY CAPE-COLLAR SIMPLY MADE AND SMARTLY COOL
PATTERN 2758

by Anne Adams

How are you fixed for cool, afternoon frocks this Summer? Don't answer too quickly! Think of those sweltering hot days to come, when one or two such frocks as Pattern 2758 would be a chic safeguard. This one is the simplest thing in the world to make—no collar, no sleeves, just a big, easily-cut capelet, with a ripple and flare to the whole pretty business which will charm the best of us, and flatter the rest of us! Would an all-over flowered voile please you, or a delectable cotton chiffon which would make you glamorous and enchanting on moonlit evenings? Isn't that all-in-one girdle and panel a clever trick?

Pattern 2758 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 takes 3⅞ yards 39 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number.

COUNTY CONVENTION OF CHRISTIAN CHURCHES HELD

MYRTLE CREEK, June 5.—The Douglas county convention of Christian church enjoyed a very enthusiastic and helpful session Monday at the local church. The sermons were given by three ministers, from the Coos county churches, L. E. Sunkler, pastor at Marshfield, preaching in the forenoon; Earl F. Downing, of Coquille, in the afternoon, and Earl L. Seward, North Bend, following the youth session in the evening.

Evangelist Teddy Leavitt, of Carlton, Oregon, who is holding a revival meeting in the Roseburg church, was a guest and was kept busy greeting many old friends. The singer for his meeting, Miss Rena Goff, was a visitor also.

Delegates from the county churches numbered as follows: Roseburg, 8; Drain and Glide, each 7; Riddle, 10; Oakland, 6; Yoncalla, 2. Many other visitors brought the attendance up to 88, exclusive of the evening session.

The theme which was concerning Christian living, provoked much earnest discussion. The next convention will be at Yoncalla, August 3, with the Fullness of the Gospel as convention theme.
