JENKINS DANCE RECITAL IS COLORFUL AFFAIR AT THEATER MONDAY NIGHT

One of the most beautiful and versatile dance recitals of the year was enjoyed by a large audience Monday evening at Hunt's Indian theater, when the students of Mrs. Paul Jenkins, dancing instructor at the Heiline conservatory, were presented in a most artistic and colorful entertainment. The costumes were very spectacular and unusual. The dances were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Barbara Clark Winkler. Miss Ruth McMaisters, dramatic instructor at the conservatory, was mistress of ceremonies.

Four adorable babies, Janice Whipple, Arlene Watson, Donna Toy Clough and Elaine Suzanne Hartung, opened the revue with a charming little dance. Fanny Lu Wimberly presented a lovely toe dance, which was followed by a humorous Dutch number by Betty Hoxie and Agnes Ruth Johnson; two group dances, "Gypsy" and "Bolero," by advanced students. Meredith Jenkins, Wilma Feldkamp, Madlyn Stearns, Fanny Lu Wimberly, Helen Catching and Ulah Winston, were presented in a manner closely bordering on the professional; the two smaller soloists of the revue, Georgine Shanklin and Blossom Gazley, showed great promise as future dancers and delighted the audience with their numbers, "Maarika" and "Ballet Eccequique." "The Glow Worm," by the beginners, Patricia Sheely, Georgine Shanklin, Barbara Young, Joan and Jeanne Clough, Nancy McClintock, Shirley Carter, Betty Foley, Elpanor Marsters, Eleanor Mielich and Betty Wilson, was a very pretty and refreshing number. "Reverie," a beautiful toe number, was presented by Meredith Jenkins, Madlyn Stearns and Ulah Winston; one of the most unusual and outstanding dances of the recital was the Skater's Waltz by Wilma Feldkamp, presented in a beautiful manner and striking costume; the latter half of the program was a ballet, "The Lost Penny," by Chaff, and proved exceedingly interesting. The costumes for the ballet were perfect. Meredith Jenkins took the part of the fairy princess; Ulah Winston, the child; Betty Hoxie; the children, Patricia McClintock, Joan Hume, Jane Ellsworth, Blossom Gazley, Georgine Shanklin, Eleanor Marsters; Fanny Lu, Helen Catching, Wilma Feldkamp, Madlyn Stearns, Fanny Lu Wimberly; the elves, Agnes Ruth Johnson, Betty Owen, Anita Young, Barbara Young, Adah Marie Dahl; the leader of the elves, DeLoise Lucy; fairies, Faith Young, Louise and Eugenia Virden, Carolyn Allen, Jean Epstein, Mary Ellen Darby, Eva Baker and Eleanor Entler.

Mrs. Jenkins was highly complimented for her presentation of the largest and most entertaining dance recital given in this city.

White Favored Shade for Summer

White steps away ahead as the smart shade worn this summer. And there's something particularly seasonal and ultra smart about white suits and coats. A suit of white sharkskin is modeled above by Lucille Ball, recently named as one of the best-dressed Hollywood starlets. The mannish jacket has a tailored collar and the tucked linen blouse is graced by a turtle-neck line. For cruising, yachting or riding the white coat comes into its own, one of the smartest of the new designs—a herringbone fleece fabric cut in reefer style with huge pockets being shown above.

U. S. V. HOSPITAL

By OTTILJA K. ASHTON
Flags were arranged on all the tables in the main dining room Memorial day and appropriate napkins were the gift of the state department of the V. F. W. auxiliary. This organization also furnished large gum drops holding small flags and napkins for the trays and small dining room in the hospital.

Our "crack" contract bridge players have challenged the "million wagers" of the American Legion auxiliary for some time. Mrs. Roy Young, local hospital chairman, made the final arrangements and the contest began at two o'clock Friday afternoon. The championship game was played by Mrs. E. F. Tandy, Mrs. Walter Fisher, R. H. Wilson and Edward Mathis. The men were forced to give up the honors to ladies but they were presented with a delicious home made cake, made by Mrs. Fisher as consolation.

Mrs. J. C. Stephenson and Mrs. Ted Post played a progressive game with the following veterans: Lee Way, Nordal Myran, A. C. Wellman and Wm. Rice. First prize was awarded to A. W. Stradling and consolation to N. C. George.

Mrs. Roy Young, local hospital chairman of the American Legion auxiliary has been right on the job "pinch hitting" for Mrs. Irving Riegel, state chairman, who has been visiting friends in Spokane, Washington.

We have received another large standing lamp which has the new indirect lighting effects from the American Legion auxiliary of Cottage Grove, Oregon for our new recreational building.

ROSEBURG WOMAN'S CLUB INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS AND ANNUAL PICNIC HELD

The Roseburg Woman's club held its annual installation of officers and picnic Tuesday at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ott on the North Umpqua.

Mrs. Homer Grow acted as installing officer. Mrs. C. S. Heinline was fourth as president for her fourth term, others to be installed including: Mrs. Walter Fisher, vice president; Mrs. Scott Williams, second vice president; Mrs. G. W. Syfan, recording secretary; Mrs. Earl Ullrich, treasurer, and Mrs. W. M. Campbell, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Foster Butler and Mrs. C. H. Bailey were installed as clubhouse board members.

On behalf of the Roseburg Woman's club a beautiful gift was presented to Mrs. Heinline by Mrs. Bell for her wonderful work as president of the club for the past three years. Mrs. Grow, on behalf of the Choral club, presented a lovely gift to Mrs. Heinline for her work as director of the club for the past three years.

The picnic luncheon was served on the banks of the river to Mrs. C. S. Heinline, Mrs. J. B. Foley, Mrs. J. A. Hart, Mrs. H. Zachariasen, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. C. E. Marks, Mrs. Lyle Marsters, Mrs. E. L. Gile, Mrs. G. W. Syfan, Mrs. Bertha Parratt, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mrs. E. L. Knapp, Mrs. T. G. Watson, Mrs. Homer Grow, Mrs. Fred Fields, Mrs. O. H. Watzig, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. R. E. Whipple, Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. Will H. Gerritsen, Mrs. C. Lombard, Mrs. G. W. Syfan, Mrs. M. L. Ganey, Mrs. Estelle Garrison, Mrs. D. H. Lenox, Mrs. Scott Williams, Mrs. Lillian Tabke of Astoria, Mrs. E. G. Kohlhauser, Mrs. Earl Ullrich, Mrs. Victor Clark, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. L. M. BOOK LEAGUE MEMBERS RECEIVE CERTIFICATES AT FULLERTON SCHOOL

Fifty-one pupils of the Fullerton school have received certificates as members of the Oregon Children's Book league for the current year. In order to receive this certificate an acceptable book must be read every month for eight consecutive months, and a report made to the state library certifying same.

The project was started in this last school year and a number of certificates issued, but many lists were rejected because of the type of book read or for some other reason. But this year, of fifty-three lists sent in, only two were not allowed, and the above number accepted. Next year it is hoped to have a one hundred per cent enrollment and a one hundred per cent acceptance of books read.

The following pupils received certificates:
