STRONG-BRAND RECITAL IS VERY DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR OF THURSDAY

The South Methodist church was beautifully decorated with ferns and baskets of flowers Thursday evening for the recital presenting a group of piano pupils of Miss Gladys Strong and voice pupils of Mrs. Charles Brand. There was a large and thoroughly appreciative audience to greet the students in this, perhaps the most difficult part of the training of the young musician—the ability to perform before the public. It is an ordeal for the beginners but there is no way to overcome the natural nervousness but to appear before friendly audiences as part of the training. Honor the importance of pupils' recitals.

Those who appeared on the program both sang and played with real musical insight. The piano technique was fine, and the students undertook nothing that was beyond them. Their stage presence was good and most important of all, those who had appeared in recital before showed marked improvement.

Convention visitors often remark that Roseburg is the most musical of all the cities of Oregon outside of Portland, with our Municipal band, our Junior band, the various orchestras, the Women's Glee club, the Roseburg Men's Glee club. If that statement is true the explanation lies in the fine, conscientious work of the large number of competent music teachers who for a great many years have been devoting their lives to teaching Roseburg's young people. It is a record to be proud of.

Those who took part in this recital were: Carolyn Cordon, Marilyn Harpham, Betty Owen, Florence Hamilton, Marjory Ott, Ethel Cullis, Kathryn DeLapp, Eleanor Zeller, Mrs. Wesley Brandhorst, Walter Gay McKean, Virginia Young, Faith Young, Lois Irving, Annabelle Berg, Ruth Hoover, Mrs. Max Bauer, Helen Magers, Jean Whitney, Helen Cooney, Carolyn Allen, Helen Chamberlain and Doris Shoemaker.

Mrs. H. C. Waddell, chairman, presided at the meeting. The luncheon tables were attractively decorated with bouquets of roses. Mrs. Broadway, Mrs. A. E. Kent and Mrs. E. B. Stewart acted as luncheon chairmen, while Mrs. J. H. Booth, Mrs. I. B. Riddle and Mrs. C. Brown acted as the program committee.

A short business meeting followed the luncheon, at which time the date of the next meeting was announced for Friday, July 10, to be held at Carl's Tavern.

Plans were made for a project to be sponsored by the unit at the Horse and Buggy picnic to be held at the McNary farm late in June or early in July, at which time representatives from all parts of Oregon will be present and participate in the all-day affair. The committee appointed by Mrs. Waddell to arrange a project for this affair included Mrs. Lyle Marsters and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter, chairmen, Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. I. B. Card Party at Facility

On Friday afternoon auxiliary members joined with men at the facility in a grant bout at contract bridge. These fellows have been playing all winter and produced a quality of bridge that made it difficult going for their feminine opponents. A match game was played with R. H. Wilson and Edward Mathis opposing Mrs. E. F. Tandy and Mrs. Walter Fisher. While Lady Luck more or less favored the women, Mossra, Wilson and Mathis walked off with the chocolate cake offered as prize. Two other match games were played with Lee Gray, Nardal Myron, Allen W.
