GOV. MARTIN FIRMS ON RELIEF FUND LIMIT

Editorials on the Day's News

As these words are written (late Thursday evening) the Republican national convention in Cleveland is reconvening for a night session at which it seems certain that a platform will first be adopted and then Governor Landon, of Kansas, will be nominated, practically by acclamation.

In this instance, the platform is more important than the man, for platforms set forth principles, and we are sadly in need, at this point in history, of return to the sound principles that have made this the greatest nation on earth—a nation so great and happy that entrance into it has been the goal of millions of foreigners and the dream of uncounted other millions.

The platform calls for a "sound currency to be preserved at all hazards." It is typical of the strange times into which we have entered that this is the exact wording of the Democratic platform of 1932—the platform that

SCHOOL BAND WINS ROSE FETE PRAISE

The Roseburg school band returned at 3:30 a. m. today after appearing Friday morning in the floral parade of the Portland Rose festival, where the band took second place among marching groups, and was the first place band for the state of Oregon.

The Roseburg band outranked all other school bands of the state in judging, but was defeated in the marching award by the American Falls, Idaho, band, which drew much praise for its flashing uniforms, marching ability, and particularly the excellence of the baton-twirling drum major.

The adult leaders who accompanied the band members stated that the Roseburg band drew much favorable praise for the fine conduct and courtesy of the 194 boys and girls composing the group, as well as for the excellent appearance and ability in concert and on parade.

New State Chairmen Being Sought By Oregon Political Party Heads

By CLAYTON V. BERNHARD (Associated Press Staff Writer) SALEM, June 13.—(AP)—With one of the national political conventions of the way, Oregon party leaders were turning their attention to the matter of state party chairmen selections to be made at conventions to be called shortly.

BONUS BONDS WILL ARRIVE ON JUNE 16TH

Roseburg Post Office Will Start Delivery on 18th; Patience Enjoined by Postmaster.

Veterans bonus bonds are to be received at the Roseburg postoffice Tuesday, June 16th, Postmaster L. L. Wimberly has advised. The bonds will be prepared Wednesday for delivery here Thursday, June 18.

Bonds were sent out to all first class postoffices Friday, while the bonds for second, third and fourth class offices will be mailed out of San Francisco on the 15th and 16th.

Postmaster Wimberly has completed arrangements for handling the large volume of bonds to be delivered here.

Wednesday will be spent in putting the bonds in order for delivery by carriers and the delivery will start Thursday morning. Arrangements have been made for special service to the veterans facility, where several hundred packages will be delivered.

Delivery Restricted All bonds will come by registered mail and must be signed for personally by the veteran to whom they are addressed. If the veteran is not at home at the time of delivery, a notice will be left instructing him to call at the postoffice, where he must be identified by two witnesses if he is not personally known by the postmaster or clerks in charge.

Veterans who are not in immediate need of their bonds may assist the postoffice force materially if they postpone calling for the packages for a day or two after receiving the notice, Mr. Wimberly states, as a great rush is expected for the first few days.

BONUS BONDS ALREADY AT PORTLAND POSTOFFICE PORTLAND, June 13.—(AP)—Dr. E. T. Hedlund, postmaster, said the first shipment of bonus bonds for Portland's World war

Republican Triumph Envisaged by Oregon Delegation; Campaign Will Be Launched Soon at LaGrande

By BEN CONNER CLEVELAND, June 13.—(AP)—Homeward bound, Oregon's ten delegates to the republican convention looked forward today to opening their campaign at a rally to be held in the near future at the home of Jack Peare of LaGrande, veteran member of the party.

In a telegram received by Walter Tooze of Portland, chairman of the delegation, just before his departure for home, Peare invited the delegates to the state rally.

"The rally will be the starting point of a vigorous campaign which will put the Landon-Knox ticket over in Oregon at the November election," Tooze said.

"We have a ticket and a platform that will swamp the enemy," Tooze said. The date for the rally is to be set later.

Townsend Dissatisfied The Oregonians, before their departure from Cleveland, expressed themselves generally as entirely in accord with the party platform, with the exception of C. W. Clark of Beaverton, advocate of the old age pension program of Dr. F. E. Townsend.

At a caucus Wednesday the delegation voted seven to three against a resolution calling for endorsement of the Townsend plan, the resolution was presented by Clark.

ACADEMY REUNION PROGRAM LISTED The annual reunion of the Emporia Academy association at Willamette will be held Saturday, and is expected to draw a record attendance due to the dedication of a monument erected in memory to Father Wilbur, founder of the pioneer school.

The association is composed of alumni from the academy, founded in 1857, and of the Wilbur high school, successor to the pioneer Methodist institution.

The program Sunday will start with a business meeting at 10 a. m., with a basket lunch at noon. Coffee and cream will be furnished by the association.

COMEDIAN FIELDS FIGHTS PNEUMONIA RIVERSIDE, Calif., June 13.—(AP)—The shadow of illness deepened today over W. C. Fields, veteran mirth-maker of the stage and screen.

He was a hospital patient suffering from a serious attack of pneumonia. Yesterday his condition became worse.

A native Philadelphian, the comedian ran away from home at the age of 11 years to become an actor. He got his first job in an Atlantic City beer garden at $5 a week.

NEW DEAL TO BE ATTACKED WITH VIGOR

Landon and Knox to Wage Aggressive Battle for G. O. P.; Hazards to Harmony Appear.

By EDWARD J. DUFFY (Associated Press Staff Writer) CLEVELAND, June 13.—(AP)—Under new and younger leadership the republicans began the ground work today for a two-fisted, no-quarter campaign to displace the new deal.

While Governor Alf M. Landon and Col. Frank Knox prepared to discuss tactics Tuesday in Topeka, the field staff of the party carried back to the rank and file in all states the militant message of its convention.

Some hazards to harmony began to arise with dissatisfaction among certain western independents as they reflected over the platform. Senator William E. Borah, who had pretty much his way in the policy declarations only to have Landon later proclaim some personal planks including monetary views opposed by the Idahoan, withheld any pledge of support.

Senator Nye (R., N. D.), left Cleveland saying the platform had more chance to draw "reactionary support in the east than to regain" western progressives.

In Washington, Senator Norris (R., Neb.), said "reactionaries are in control" and predicted the reelection of President Roosevelt. He had already been given up by many republican leaders after his support of Roosevelt in 1932.

HANLON, OREGON'S UTILITY AIDE, QUILTS SALEM, June 13.—(AP)—John Hanlon, secretary to the public utilities commissioner for the past five years, tendered his resignation to Frank C. McCulloch, it was learned from authentic sources at the state capitol today.

Hanlon, now on his vacation, could not be reached for comment and Commissioner McCulloch refused to either confirm or deny the report.

CHARGE AGAINST DE MAUREZ DROPPED Charges brought against A. R. DeMaurez, accused of obtaining money by false pretense, were dismissed in the justice court yesterday afternoon, following a preliminary examination. The court held that the evidence presented against the defendant was not sufficient to warrant his being held for grand jury examination.

FROM THE HEADLINES By Deacon Richmond "Sunday is Flag Day" The nation had a host of flags, in the old colonial days, with snakes and trees and mottoes in many of their designs.

When Independence was declared, the Jack was out of place and thirteen stars were soon arranged, the crosses to erase. On June fourteenth, in seventy-seven, this flag became official; the history of the Stars and Stripes has shown their choice judicial.

The flag has grown in splendor, as the field, with stars, has filled out, when we see it waving, every patriot heart is thrilled; for this is freedom's birthplace, though discussion often jars; it's a land that's filled with beauty, as its flag is filled with stars.

CHARGES HIT MAYOR McNAIR, PITTSBURGH

City's Executive Arrested on Misfeasance Warrant, Following Clashes With Courts.

PITTSBURGH, June 13.—(AP)—Mayor William N. McNair pleaded innocent today of a charge of misfeasance in office after deputy sheriffs arrested him. Judge Ralph E. Smith ordered him held for the grand jury and set his bail at $5,000.

The executive went along willingly with deputy sheriffs sent by District Attorney Andrew T. Park. The officers found him waiting at his desk in city hall.

Judge Ralph E. Smith instructed the warrant be issued after officers told him McNair had ordered city magistrates not to preside in felony cases. The police said the mayor put out this order after a grand jury started an investigation of police conditions.

"It seems evident he is deliberately violating the law, is directing its violation with a consequent breakdown in the police department and a menace to public safety," McNair revels in confusion. I won't be confused. It's time for a showdown. The mayor is at the end of his rope.

Sheriff Frank I. Gollmar announced that he is preparing to take over the police department because a dispute between McNair and Safety Director Thomas Dunn has created "a serious public situation."

The mayor had ordered Dunn to take a furlough but Dunn refused to go. Contradictory orders then went out to the detective force from the two leaders.

PILOT IN FIERY PLANE CRASH DIES

DALLAS, Tex., June 13.—(AP)—Eugene Schacher of Houston, co-pilot of the plane which crashed with Jesse Jones, RFC chairman, and four others yesterday, died of his injuries today.

The passengers who lived through a flaming dive from a mile in the sky, were praised by the pilots for being "cool as cucumbers."

Jones and his party, in turn, gave Pilots Ed Hefley and Schacher full credit for "saving them from a fiery death. The other passengers were former Gov. W. P. and Mrs. Hobby and Joe Toomey, Jones' secretary.

After a "belly" landing that tore out the ship's motor in a plowed field—Jones called it a "beautiful" landing—the chairman of the reconstruction finance corporation dragged Hefley from the blazing cabin.

Lamb and Wool Exhibit Entries Set High Mark

The annual Douglas county fat lamb and wool show here today attracted a large number of interested persons, who were greatly pleased by the excellent exhibits.

The show was held on Washington street, between Main and Kane streets, temporary pens having been set up to display the large number of animals exhibited.

Thirty-four exhibitors placed animals in the show, being the largest number of entries since the annual shows were begun.

Judging was in charge of A. W. Oliver of the animal husbandry department of Oregon State college.

Due to the large number of lambs on display, the judging took a great deal of time and will not be completed until late today. The fine quality of the animals on display was highly praised by Mr. Oliver.

DAV TO RESTRICT FUTURE DEMANDS MEDFORD, Ore., June 13.—(AP)—A report of the legislative committee of the Disabled American Veterans convention here, recommending that new legislation to be sought by disabled veterans from the next session of the Oregon legislature "be conservative in nature," was adopted by the convention this morning.

It was explained on the floor of the convention that the purpose of the organization was "to retain the benefits now enjoyed, rather than to propose new measures, that might lessen the benefits."

The legislative committee in its report recommended no new legislation.

A resolution favoring the lowering of tax exemptions for disabled veterans, and a resolution favoring the removal of silverware from the historic battleship Oregon were rejected.

McMinnville was named as the 1937 convention city late yesterday, after Bend had withdrawn its bid.

TOWNSEND SPEAKER DATED IN ROSEBURG Dr. Frederick Vining Fisher, national director of the Townsend pension movement's visual education program, is to be a speaker in Roseburg June 21, the state Townsend headquarters at Portland announced today.

Dr. Fisher will head a "flying squadron" of Townsend speakers to visit Medford, Roseburg, Eugene, Albany, Salem and Portland.

NO TAX MONEY WILL BE GIVEN, STATE IS TOLD

"Hell, Let Them Work," Is Reference to Jobless; Liquor Fund Alone Must Suffice.

PENDLETON, June 13.—(AP)—Governor Martin, in vigorous language, told the state today he would stand pat on a limitation of relief funds for the unemployed.

"Are we going to feed them for the rest of their lives? Hell, let them work!"

With that remark the governor, at a public dinner here last night in connection with his inspection tour of eastern Oregon highways, delivered his answer to a plea of some state officials for additional relief funds.

What the immediate future of the relief program would be remained a question.

Governor Martin last night declined to sign certificates of indebtedness for $100,000, presented by the state relief commission and rushed here from Salem, but said he asked Arthur K. McMahon, chairman of the state relief committee, to make available enough money to cover drafts already mailed.

The governor earlier this week declined to sign warrants for $220,000 for direct relief, insisting the program be placed on a cash basis. Yesterday, State Treasurer Rufus Holman issued a "stop payment" order after an overdraft of $13,454 was reported.

Taxpayers Shielded At the dinner Governor Martin said "the unemployed can have the $1,800,000 annual profit that the liquor commission nets from people who want to drink, but I'm not going to give them the taxpayers' money."

In commenting on the overdraft, the governor told the Associated Press "the state will take care of its checks, of course."

State Treasurer Holman at Salem yesterday said he was powerless to act.

"State Relief Administrator Gandy says these people (on direct relief) are incompetent. Let's make them competent."

The depression "is over in Oregon," Governor Martin said. "Let's not be too conservative. Let's develop the state. I'm going to lead the movement. We grow
