PRIZE BIKE PARADE DATED IN ROSEBURG

Bikes with colorful streamers! Bikes resembling wild animals! Bikes ridden by men, women and children.

Bikes, bikes, bikes! All over the nation this week more than 50,000 bicyclists will exert their originality in costume, decoration and design and will be pedaling along the streets of more than 500 cities and towns in the biggest bicycle parade ever held.

Such activity must be explained and explained it was, by Kenneth Bannister, Montgomery Ward store manager here, who stated that the company was staging a nationwide bike sale in all its retail stores which would be climaxed by a parade and contest for the best and most originally decorated bikes.

The Roseburg parade will be held at 2:30 on Saturday, June 27, starting in front of the Ward store and winding its way through the streets of the city.

"We want all boys and girls to join the fun," said Mr. Bannister today. "However, there will be no age limit attached to the entrance requirements. Last year in McAlester, Oklahoma, a woman 110 years of age won first place and a 5-year-old boy was second. We want to hear that record this year."

Prizes Offered
Bannister explained that the only requirement was to register for the parade at the Ward store sometime before the 27th. Any make or type of bike may be ridden in the parade and prizes will be awarded solely on the basis of originality. Judges will be named shortly to select the winners. Prizes of five, three and two dollars in sporting goods merchandise will be awarded by Wards for the three best decorated bikes.

In addition to these prizes, the Umpqua Dairy Products company will present an ice cream social to each entrant. Don Radabaugh, manager of the Indian and Rose theatres, will give a free ticket to each entrant and the Roseburg News-Review will give each entrant a ticket which will entitle the bearer to a free jumbo milkshake at Carl's Tavern.

On the basis of last year's parades, an evangelistic service conducted by group of Gideons, Gideon male quartet will sing. Wednesday 7:30 a. m. prayer, praise, testimony and Bible study. Friday 10:00 a. m. vacation Bible school, church and Sunday school picnic at Lindbloom's grove.

South Methodist Church, Rev. A. J. Starnier will speak Sunday evening at the Methodist church South in place of the pastor, Rev. B. C. Gletton, who is away over the weekend.

ade, which was held in a number of towns and cities, anything can be expected in the way of costume and decoration. Santa Claus and May Queens, Chinamen and quaint colonial ladies, huge birds of unusual shape and color and even "ocean going" vessels were represented.

WAFFLE DESSERT OFFERS BIG TREAT

Next time you make waffles, here's a recipe that's different yet easy and it brings down the "oh's" and "ah's" and "How's" from every guest! It uses no flour... and the secret of the delicious waffles it produces lies in the Honey Maid graham crackers. Better clip this recipe and paste it to your cupboard door:

Honey Maid Chocolate Waffles
30 Sugar Honey Maid graham crackers
1 teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons baking powder
3 tablespoons cocoa
3 egg yolks
1-3 cup sugar
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1-2 cup butter
3 egg whites
Crumble crackers fine and add dry ingredients. Mix beaten egg yolks with milk, vanilla and melted butter and add to dry ingredients. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites and bake in hot waffle iron. 12 single servings.

And now use them for a luscious dessert called:
Chocolate-Butter Ice Cream Sandwich
Place a scoop of ice cream between two sections of Honey Maid chocolate waffles and cover with butterscotch sauce:

Butterscotch Sauce
4 tablespoons butter
11 cups brown sugar
2-3 cup white corn syrup
2 cup evaporated milk
Melt butter in saucepan; add sugar and corn syrup and boil until it forms a very soft ball when tried in cold water. Add the evaporated milk and serve warm on ice cream sandwich.
