

SOCIETY

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

Social Calendar

Sunday, June 21
Rod and Gun club annual salmon bake at Unqupa park.

Monday, June 22
Tribute club afternoon meeting at two o'clock at home of Mrs. I. E. Darby on North Jackson street.

Tuesday, June 23
Public invited to installation of Job's Daughters officers at Masonic temple in evening. Program in honor of tenth anniversary of Roseburg hotel.

Wednesday, June 24
Laurel lodge No. 13, A. F. & A. M. to meet at 7:30 o'clock at Masonic temple.

Thursday, June 25
Executive meeting of Pro-America chapter at Unqupa hotel at two o'clock in afternoon.

Friday, June 26
A. C. T. U. meeting at 2:30 o'clock in First Presbyterian church parlors. Mrs. W. C. Faucette in charge of business meeting. Mrs. V. J. Micehl, program chairman on "Fairs and Exhibits." Members and friends invited.

Saturday, June 27
General public invited to noon plate luncheon at St. Joseph's Catholic parish hall. Luncheon to be served from 11:30 to 1:30 in charge of Mrs. B. K. Willett and Mrs. W. Feat.

Mission play to be sponsored by Glide Baptist Ladies Aid and Missionary society to be pre-arranged in evening in church yard.

Sunday, June 28
Ladies of Country club golfing at 8:30 a. m. Potluck luncheon at noon. Contract bridge in afternoon.

Belleview club afternoon meeting at home of Mrs. Helen Hendrickson, 111 McClellan street.

United Spanish War Veterans auxiliary evening meeting at armory.

Baptist Missionary society to meet at 7:30 o'clock in church parlors. Mrs. George Caskey, program chairman on Africa "Off the Beaten Track." Members asked to bring contributions to include in the quota to Porto Rico. Refreshments in charge of Mrs. Elmer McKean and Mrs. August Schloemann.

Lady Elks to enjoy social evening at temple at eight o'clock with Mrs. E. R. Metzger as hostess. Prizes for contract bridge and pinochle.

Bethel No. 8, Job's Daughters will sponsor a dance at 9:15 o'clock at the Oriental gardens. Music will be furnished by the Fred Pipers orchestra.

MRS. A. O. SAWALISH HONORED AT DESSERT LUNCHEON TODAY
Mrs. A. O. Sawalish, of Chehalis, Wash., was honored at a delightful 1:30 o'clock dessert luncheon given by Mrs. Grant Osborn today, when Mrs. Osborn entertained the members of her sewing club at her home in Laurelwood.

Clarkia and Dorothy Perkins roses formed an attractive motif for the occasion. Covers were placed for Mrs. Sawalish, guest of honor, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. G. Krell, Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mrs. Clyde Carlsons, Mrs. Willis Myers, Mrs. Victor Clark, Mrs. Earl Wiley, Mrs. Harold Bellows and the hostess, Mrs. Osborn.

Sewing and visiting were enjoyed during the afternoon hours.

MRS. CHESTER MORGAN ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB ON TUESDAY
Mrs. Chester Morgan was a most gracious hostess Tuesday when she entertained her bridge club at a delightful one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon at her lovely Laurelwood home. Button chrysantheums were used for the occasion.

Covers were placed for Mrs. H. P. Turner, Mrs. Maurice J. Newland, Mrs. Frederick E. Hartung, Mrs. E. G. Kohlhaug, Mrs. R. D. Coon, Mrs. Nova G. Bates, Mrs. Paul Helweg and the hostess, Mrs. Morgan.

The prize for the afternoon's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Helweg.

SHOWER PARTY GIVEN FOR MRS. CONNELLY AT WEATHERFORD HOME
Mrs. John Weatherford very graciously entertained at a charming party and shower last evening at her home north of Roseburg to compliment Mrs. H. L. Connelly, who is leaving soon for Portland to reside.

Lovely shower gifts were presented to Mrs. Connelly from Mrs. M. R. Ivis, Mrs. A. B. Grubbe, Mrs. Ralph Stearns, Mrs. Lynn Beckley, Mrs. George Wilcox, Mrs. Stewart Cooper and Mrs. Weatherford.

Games and visiting were enjoyed during the pleasant evening hours and later Mrs. Weatherford served lovely refreshments at a table covered by a lace cloth and centered with a bowl of pink sweetpeas and tall lighted pink tapers.

MRS. C. B. WADE IS HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB AT LUNCHEON
Mrs. C. B. Wade very graciously entertained her bridge club at a lovely one o'clock luncheon yesterday at her attractive home on South Kane street. Sweetpeas and incense were used to grace the serving table.

Covers were placed for Mrs. T. R. Barr and Miss Jane Wharton, guests, and Mrs. Chester Morgan, Mrs. L. E. McClellan, Mrs. A. J. Allen, Mrs. P. M. Lee, Mrs. Ivan Pickens and the hostess, Mrs. Wade.

Mrs. Morgan won the high score for the afternoon's contract bridge play.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS AND ENTERTAINS GUESTS
The Junior Woman's club held its closing meeting Monday evening in the clubhouse with the members of the Roseburg Woman's club as invited guests.

The program presented included: Russian dance by Wilma Feldkamp; Turkish dance, Ulah Agnes Winston, both numbers being accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Lander; two violin solos by Marian Elizabeth Church, accompanied by Mrs. H. C. Church; two piano solos by Wanda Armour; song and tap dance by Donna Dunham, accompanied by Mrs. Armour.

Installation of the new officers followed. Miss Virginia French installed Eleanor Boyd as president; Clarice Loetterie, retiring vice-president; installed Beverly Woods as vice-president; retiring secretary, Margaret Dunn, gave the yearly report and installed Crystal Rydell as secretary; Treasurer, Carmel Newland was re-installed and gave the yearly financial report; retiring secretary, Violet Walker has moved away and Virginia Rydell was installed as the new secretary; at arms by Eleanor Boyd; Dorothy Herman was installed as a director for two years and Virginia French was installed for a one-year term.

The new officers and retiring officers were presented with corsages.

Mrs. Walter Fisher, new adviser of the club, taking the place of Mrs. C. H. Heinline, was introduced and a lovely corsage was given to her from the club.

The installation service was closed by the entire group singing "America."

Refreshments were served later. Miss Crystal Rydell and Miss Evelyn Smith were in charge of the installation and program. The rooms were lovely with bouquets of flowers and the serving table was lighted by tapers.

Two parties have been planned for the summer months. The first to July 6 with Mrs. Melba Smith and Miss Betty Stark acting as joint chairmen.

Guests of the evening included Mrs. H. L. Lander, Mrs. Foster Butner, Mrs. L. Kohlhaug, Sr., Mrs. Fred Field, Mrs. W. Ashcraft, Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. Bertha Parrott, Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. H. C. Church and daughter, Marian Elizabeth, Mrs. E. A. Pettiey, Mrs. C. G. Perrier, Mrs. Kenneth Dunham and daughter, Donna, and Mrs. Wanda Armour, guests, and Evelyn Smith, Margaret Dunn, Clarice Loetterie, Eleanor Boyd, Carmel Newland, Phyllis Mikesworth, Barbara Thompson, Jane Fies, Beverly Woods, Leona Zener, Helene Jones, Helen Roser, Georgia Knolly, Helen Condon, Virginia Ruth, Dorothy Herman, Opal Beach and Elsie Reese, Roseburg members, and Lila Ferber, Eleanor Lemmer, Leota Jones, Marjorie Miller and Isabelle Harvey, from the Oakland Junior Woman's club.

EXECUTIVE MEETING OF PRO-AMERICA TO BE HELD NEXT WEDNESDAY
The executive committee of Douglas unit of Pro-America will meet at two o'clock next Wednesday afternoon, June 24, at the Masonic temple with Mrs. H. C. Waddell, chairman, in charge.

Plans will be discussed for sending Douglas unit members to the semi-annual meeting of Oregon chapter of Pro-America to be held at the Masonic temple, 1119 S. W. Park street, in Portland, Friday, June 26. Any member of Pro-America who possibly can be in Portland next Friday for this meeting has been asked to attend the executive session of Douglas unit at the Unqupa hotel next Wednesday.

The semi-annual meeting to be held in Portland will begin at 8:30 a. m. in the commodious room of the Masonic temple. A number of very important business matters will be discussed and an extensive program will be mapped out for the remainder of the year. Speakers will give their impressions of the republican convention, Governor London, and the republican platform.

Lunch will be served in the Masonic building to be followed by a meeting of important committees, such as the education, county organization and membership committees, who will be together until the leadership of the state chairman of these respective committees. Following the conference there will be open house at the new state office at 1025 Pacific building and tea will be served in some garden of one of the Portland members. At seven o'clock that evening in the Masonic temple a large banquet for men and women will be served. Speakers of note have been secured to talk at the banquet.

PAST GUARDIAN NEIGHBORS HONORED AT PROGRAM AT I. O. O. F. HALL MONDAY
The Past Guardian Neighbors were entertained Monday evening by Lilac circle No. 49, Neighbors of Woodcraft, at the I. O. O. F. hall, Mrs. Agnes Hoar, Monmouth, Woodcraft organizer, was to have been a guest of the meeting, but on account of illness was not present.

Each past guardian neighbor gave a short talk on some amusing incident which occurred during their term of office.

Mrs. Mildred Krogel and Mrs. Maude Gulte were door prizes. After a short business session the guards presented a drill followed by the Past Guardian Neighbors, who were led to the center of the hall forming a square. A short talk was given by Guardian Neighbor Kathryn Sinner, who presented each with a lovely corsage of carnations and ferns. The corsages were distributed by Doris Ann Fletcher, assisted by Cloydene Darby. Gifts were presented to the guests of Mrs. Sinner.

Little Peggy Williams was presented in a decorated cart to the guardian neighbor's station by Cloydene Darby, where she was introduced as Guardian Neighbor of 1930.

A delightful program followed presented by Wanda Armour, which consisted of a solo and tap dance by Donna Dunham; reading by Mrs. Lydia Wilson; piano selections by Wanda Armour. The march was played by Mrs. Evelyn Fredrickson.

The refreshment tables were beautifully appointed with bowls of sweetpeas and lighted tapers. The committee in charge included Mrs. Evelyn Fletcher and Mrs. Evelyn Fredrickson, drill chairwomen; Mrs. Hazel Althaus, program chairman; Mrs. Marjorie Miller, Mrs. Lydia Hooper, Mrs. Sylvia Weaver, Mrs. Katie Sinner and Mrs. Ethel Beaver, refreshment committee.

New Beach Togs Combine Style With Freedom

If June doesn't bring a heat wave these swanky new togs for sport and beach wear will just about do the trick. Helen Wood has chosen a sun and beach suit which is ideal for lounging on the beach or cabana. The latest style touch from Hollywood beach resorts is worn by June Lang. It is a fishnet skirt worn over her swim suit which is of turquoise blue. If one fancies sun-time beauty for active sports such as tennis and badminton, the short-sleeved worn by Claire Trevor is quite the thing. It is made of sharkskin with a casual collar and a fitted belt.

GARDEN VALLEY WOMEN'S CLUB HAS ELECTION OF OFFICERS ON THURSDAY
The final regular meeting of the Garden Valley Women's club for the club year was held at the club room Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Donna Ferguson as a very charming hostess.

Gorgeous bouquets of roses and sweetpeas were greatly admired by the guests.

A clean-up day was planned for July 8, when the husbands of the club members will be invited to assist in necessary work on the club grounds. A no-hostess banquet dinner will be enjoyed at noon.

A club picnic will also be an event of the summer. The present officers were re-elected to serve during the coming year: Mrs. R. A. Calhoun, president; Mrs. Peter Sinclair, vice-president; Mrs. T. M. Winniford, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. R. S. Hutton, press correspondent. Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Jr., was the additional member elected to serve on the executive committee.

The club unanimously voted a gift of appreciation to Mrs. T. M. Winniford for her faithful and excellent work as secretary-treasurer of the club.

At the conclusion of a very pleasant social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments. Those enjoying the day included Mrs. R. A. Calhoun, Mrs. J. Epper, Mrs. R. S. Hutton, Mrs. W. D. Love, Mrs. Earl McCoy, Mrs. John Danvers, Mrs. H. E. Graham, Mrs. A. Niday, Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Jr., Mrs. Peter Sinclair, Mrs. C. L. Spruy and daughter, Jane, Mrs. M. Schneider, Mrs. James Hunter, Mrs. T. M. Winniford and the hostess, Mrs. Donna Ferguson.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held the first Thursday in October.

CHEHALIS VISITOR IS COMPLIMENTED AT LOVELY PARTY ON THURSDAY
Mrs. Bert Courtney entertained at a very lovely one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon at her home on South Main street, Friday, June 19, to compliment Mrs. A. O. Sawalish of Chehalis, Wash., formerly of this city. Bouquets of purple larkspur and yellow sprays of flowers were used about the room.

Covers were placed at a prettily appointed table for Mrs. Sawalish, guest of honor, Mrs. George Sinclair, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. Robert Gile, Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. M. E. Ritter, Mrs. Glenn Owen, Mrs. B. C. Elliott and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the pleasant afternoon hours and Mrs. Sawalish receiving the guest prize, and Mrs. Porter the prize for high scores.

Mr. and Mrs. Sawalish and two daughters, Sue and Betty Belle, are spending a week in this city visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Singleton on Cook street. Mrs. Sawalish was formerly with the J. C. Penney company in this city.

MRS. LEONARD RILEY ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB ON WEDNESDAY
Mrs. Leonard Riley was a most gracious hostess Wednesday when she entertained her bridge club at a delightful one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon at her attractive home in Laurelwood.

Sweetpeas and larkspur formed lovely bouquets about the room. Mrs. Willard Johnson assisted Mrs. Riley in serving. Covers were placed for Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. T. H. Nees and Mrs. Willard Johnson, guests, and Mrs. P. M. Lee, Mrs. Homer Grow, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. Paul Warren, Mrs. H. H. Taylor, Mrs. J. A. Ellison, Mrs. Frederick J. Porter and the hostess, Mrs. Riley.

Contract bridge was the diversion of the pleasant afternoon hours with Mrs. Johnson winning the guest prize and Mrs. Taylor the club prize for high scores.

MR. AND MRS. OWEN ENTERTAIN FRIENDS AT DELIGHTFUL PARTY
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Owen entertained a number of friends at a very delightful Monopoly party Saturday evening at their home on Rice street. Mrs. William Black was guest of honor as the occasion marked her birthday anniversary.

Prizes for the evening were won by Mrs. and Mrs. C. W. Sinner. Lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Owen and an attractive gift and prettily decorated birthday cake were presented to Mrs. Black.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Owen for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. William Black, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sinner, Mr. and Mrs. Phyllis Althaus and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Huddell.

MRS. D. W. RADABAUGH ENTERTAINS SEWING CLUB TUESDAY EVENING
Mrs. D. W. Radabaugh was a most gracious hostess Tuesday evening when she entertained her sewing club at her home on South Jackson street. Attractive bouquets of spring flowers were used about the room.

A lovely salad supper was served to Mrs. A. O. Sawalish of Chehalis, Wash., Mrs. George Singleton, Mrs. Wallace Robertson and Mrs. Ted Russell, guests, and Mrs. J. A. Robertson, Mrs. Grant Osborn, Mrs. L. A. Miles, Mrs. David Hess, Mrs. Guy McIntony and the hostess, Mrs. Radabaugh.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR FORMER CANYONVILLE GIRL ON SATURDAY
Mrs. Alice E. Rhoades of Oakland, Calif., entertained last Saturday to compliment Mrs. Roberta Dubell of Canyonville, whose engagement to Gail Lindsay, Jr., of Medford, was announced last month. The wedding date has been set for Saturday, June 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen I. Fowler, of Berkeley, Calif. They will make their home in Roseburg.

A shower of lovely things was given to the bride-elect. The rooms were beautifully decorated with bouquets of pink snapdragons and the table was decorated with bouquets of pink flowers and tall lighted tapers. A miniature bride graced the center of the chest of linens.

CAMPFIRE GROUP HOLDS MEETING ON WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON
The Ah-Nah-Nik Campfire group met Wednesday afternoon at the home of the guardian, Miss Dorothy Bala Jackson, on South Main street.

Those present included Dorothy Crummett, Patricia Quinn, Carolyn Gordon, Carolyn Allen, Phyllis Nelson, Faith and Virginia Young, Florence Hamilton, Patricia Cochran and the guardian, Miss Jackson.

LADY ELKS WILL MEET AT TEMPLE NEXT THURSDAY EVENING
All Lady Elks are cordially invited to meet at eight o'clock next Thursday evening, June 24, at the temple for a pleasant social. Mrs. E. R. Metzger will be hostess for the evening. Prizes will be awarded for high scores in a contract bridge and pinochle.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS TO SPONSOR DANCE NEXT FRIDAY, JUNE 26
Roseburg Bethel No. 8, Job's Daughters, has announced a dance for next Friday, June 26, at 9:15 o'clock to be held at the Oriental gardens. The Fred Pipers orchestra will furnish the music for the affair.

U. S. W. V. AUXILIARY WILL MEET NEXT THURSDAY EVENING
George Starmer auxiliary to the United Spanish War Veterans will meet next Thursday evening, June 24, at the armory. All members are urged to be present.

MISSION PLAY TO BE PRESENTED AT GLIDE NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT
The Baptist Ladies Aid and Missionary society of Glide will present a mission play in the church yard at eight o'clock next Wednesday evening, June 24, to which the general public has been most cordially invited.

The program includes: Musical numbers; Invocation—Rev. W. Wainwright, "Followers of the Star," a pageant of India's Christians; Prologue, Margery Price, the angel of the church of India; Characters, Sterling Underhill, a Sadhu of long ago, Warren Schloemann and Howard Wood, disciples of the Sadhu; Episode 2, "The Star in the Village Night," a scene from a modern mission school; The victor, Frances Strohecker; Girls of the class, Stella Woods, Helen Conline, Dorothy Aspin, Louise Harrington, Irene Harrington, Genevieve Moore and Beverly Wood, Native teachers; Mrs. Albert DeBernard, Mrs. James Denham. The old village woman, Rose Anne Cox.

No admission charge will be made, but following the play tea and cake will be sold to defray the expense of providing costumes for the entertainment.

MR. AND MRS. MARSH HONORED AT PARTY AT J. B. TOLES HOME
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Toles entertained at a lovely party at their home on East Douglas street Friday evening to honor Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Marsh, who have moved from Roseburg to Marshfield to reside.

Bouquets of red and white spring flowers, smoke bush and ivy were attractively used as a decorative motif for the occasion. Bridge was the diversion of the pleasant evening hours.

Lovely refreshments were served later in the evening to Mr. and Mrs. Marsh, guests of honor, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Finkbeiner, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, Colonel and Mrs. E. F. Tandy, Mrs. Arthur Clarke, Mrs. F. Casey, Walter Fisher, Franklin Vot and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Toles.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY WILL MEET THURSDAY AFTERNOON
The Baptist Missionary society will hold its regular monthly business meeting next Thursday afternoon, June 25, at 2:30 o'clock in the church parlors. Mrs. George Caskey will have charge of the program on Africa, "Off the Beaten Track."

Members are asked to bring contributions in white thread, embroidery thread, crochet needles and thread, remnants of all colors, muslin, cretonne, ribbon, lace, linen cloth and netting to include in the quota to Porto Rico.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Elmer McKean and Mrs. August Schloemann.

HELEN AND BERTHA SANDAU HONORED AT FAREWELL PARTY SATURDAY EVENING
Miss Helen and Miss Bertha Sandau were guests of honor at a delightful farewell chicken dinner Saturday evening given by Mrs. Dan Hayes and her daughter, Miss Ruth McFarland.

Later in the evening light refreshments were served. Those enjoying the occasion honoring Miss Helen and Miss Bertha Sandau included Miss Helen Willis of Marshfield, Dan Hayes, Harold Willis of Tillamook and Mrs. Hayes and Miss McFarland.

BELLVIEW CLUB WILL MEET NEXT THURSDAY AFTERNOON
The members of the Belleview club will meet next Thursday afternoon, June 25, at the home of Mrs. Helen Hendrickson at 111 McClellan street. All members are most cordially invited to be present.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED AT CHARMING SHOWER PARTY THURSDAY NIGHT
Mrs. Dena Page and her daughter, Miss Betty Anne Faulkner, entertained at a charming miscellaneous shower party Thursday night at their home to compliment Miss Lydia Wilson, who was married Sunday to Dale Owen.

Bouquets of roses were attractively used about the room. Games were played and the many lovely shower gifts were presented to Miss Wilson from Mrs. Guy Hickman, Mrs. Alfred Zener, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. C. W. Owen, Mrs. Edmund Dolan, Mrs. L. Mikesworth, Mrs. Gordon Ware, Mrs. Darley Ware, Mrs. Gordon Applewhite, Mrs. L. W. Metzger, Mrs. Harry Lohr, Mrs. David Hess, Mrs. Dave Harris, Miss Margaret Oederick, Miss Bernice Duncan, Miss Lucy Pinkerton, Miss Evelyn Smith, Miss Beverly Woods, Miss Barbara Jordan, Miss Laura Burroughs, Miss Violet Bloomquist, Miss Ruby Cloake and Miss Betty Ann Faulkner.

Later in the evening Mrs. Harris and Miss Faulkner served delicious refreshments.

MRS. DENA PAGE AND THOMAS SHULER ARE MARRIED THURSDAY
Mrs. Dena Page and Thomas Shuler, both well known Roseburg residents, were married at a lovely quiet service Thursday evening, June 18, at seven o'clock at the First Christian church in this city. Rev. J. Frank Cunningham, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Young and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. John.

The bride wore a very lovely dress of pink silk crepe and a white hat. Her bouquet was of roses and larkspur. Mr. Shuler wore a dark blue suit.

Mr. and Mrs. Shuler left Friday afternoon for Marshfield, where they will take a boat trip to several points of interest along the coast. Upon their return to Roseburg they will be at home to their many friends at 629 East Douglas street.

Mrs. Shuler is very well known here, having been a resident of Roseburg for the past sixteen years. Mr. Shuler, having resided here for the past ten years. He was formerly in the building contracting business. For the past few years he has been actively engaged in Townsend work.

W. C. T. U. WILL MEET NEXT WEDNESDAY IN PRESBYTERIAN PARLORS
The Roseburg W. C. T. U. will meet at 2:30 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon, June 24, in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church with Mrs. W. C. Faucette in charge of the business session in the absence of the president, Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin, who has been called to Brockway, Pennsylvania, by the death of her mother.

Mrs. V. J. Micehl will be program chairman on "Fairs and Exhibits." All members and friends are invited to be present.

DAY SKEEK, June 20
The Day Sreek P. T. A. held its final meeting for the school year on Wednesday night, at which time the annual election of officers for the coming year was held. The following officers were elected: President, Guy McGee; vice president, David Adams; secretary-treasurer, Clara Rhoads. Plans were made for the annual school picnic which is to be in the nature of a homecoming for all former Days Creek school students and friends, and is under the direction of the sophomore class whose president is Mildred Mather. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the picnic. Discussion of the need for the addition of two new rooms on the schoolhouse, which was presented by talk given by Jim Malloy, chairman of the grade board, and Guy McGee, chairman of the union high school board. The district number 15, will add a new director and clerk on June 15 and the union high will hold its election for it and a new director on June 22. At the close of the business meeting the following program was presented by Perry DeVoe, chairman of the program committee: Vocal solo, "Tosses are Blooming Again," Miss Sababard. Alice in Wonderland, dramatization given by the 4th and 5th grade pupils. Eat a Peach, Gerald Racher. Piano duet, "Camel Train," Miss Clark and Miss Sababard. A Day at School, Ruay Oettinger. Song, "Sunbonnet Sally and Overboard Jim," Jean Dunham and Elton Moore. Helpfulness, Thelma Davis. Vocal duet, "Old Faithful," Miss Sababard and Milton Mather. Hop Norranran, dance by girls in primary room. Presentation of high school medals by Prin. C. H. Hill; Scholarship to Victor DeWitt; athletics to

U. S. V. HOSPITAL
By OTTILIA K. ASHTON
Flag day was well remembered and the dining rooms appropriately decorated for the occasion. A small American flag was presented to each veteran, this being the gift of the American Legion auxiliary of Albany, Ore., also appropriate paper napkins.

Nordal, Myron and Allan Stranding were feeling rather cheery the other day and issued a challenge to the two ladies of the American Legion auxiliary who won the championship last week. Mrs. E. F. Tandy and Mrs. Walter Fisher. These girls seemed to have their spirits working better than their buddies of the week before as they proved to be the victors.

Our monopoly game arrived and were given a try out in one of the solariums in the hospital. I had the pleasure of acting as "house man" and with Mrs. Riegel, state hospital chairman of the American Legion auxiliary assisting, the men were initiated into play with capital letters.

Our men are looking forward with keen anticipation to the big vaudeville show which is presented Sunday evening, June 21, by the Oregon Food and Beverage Dispensers, in our new recreational building at 7:15 p. m. There will be about thirty professional artists including a seven piece orchestra which will be a real treat to our many veterans.

P. T. A. ACTIVITIES
DAY SKEEK, June 20 — The Day Sreek P. T. A. held its final meeting for the school year on Wednesday night, at which time the annual election of officers for the coming year was held. The following officers were elected: President, Guy McGee; vice president, David Adams; secretary-treasurer, Clara Rhoads. Plans were made for the annual school picnic which is to be in the nature of a homecoming for all former Days Creek school students and friends, and is under the direction of the sophomore class whose president is Mildred Mather. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the picnic. Discussion of the need for the addition of two new rooms on the schoolhouse, which was presented by talk given by Jim Malloy, chairman of the grade board, and Guy McGee, chairman of the union high school board. The district number 15, will add a new director and clerk on June 15 and the union high will hold its election for it and a new director on June 22. At the close of the business meeting the following program was presented by Perry DeVoe, chairman of the program committee: Vocal solo, "Tosses are Blooming Again," Miss Sababard. Alice in Wonderland, dramatization given by the 4th and 5th grade pupils. Eat a Peach, Gerald Racher. Piano duet, "Camel Train," Miss Clark and Miss Sababard. A Day at School, Ruay Oettinger. Song, "Sunbonnet Sally and Overboard Jim," Jean Dunham and Elton Moore. Helpfulness, Thelma Davis. Vocal duet, "Old Faithful," Miss Sababard and Milton Mather. Hop Norranran, dance by girls in primary room. Presentation of high school medals by Prin. C. H. Hill; Scholarship to Victor DeWitt; athletics to

MISS LYDIA WILSON AND DALE OWEN ARE MARRIED AT PRETTY CEREMONY

Miss Lydia Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson, and Dale Owen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Owen, were married at a very lovely ceremony Sunday morning, June 14, in the First Presbyterian church. Rev. W. C. Faucette, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony in the presence of only relatives and a few close friends.

The church was beautifully decorated with large baskets of Madonna lilies. Preceding the ceremony Miss Margaret Oederick sang, "I Love You Truly," accompanied on the pipe organ by Mrs. Victoria Clark, who also played the wedding march and soft music throughout the ceremony.

The bride, charming in a suit of blue and white with white accessories, wore a corsage of gardenias. Her attendant, Miss Betty Anne Faulkner, was lovely in a frock of pink and wore a corsage of Cecil Brunner roses. John McKean acted as best man to the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Owen were the only relatives present for the ceremony.

A wedding breakfast was served at ten o'clock at Carl's Tavern, a table centered with a beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake. Silver lighted candles completed the table appointments, while large bowls of pastel pink sweetpeas were used about the room.

Following the breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Owen left immediately for Portland on their wedding trip. Upon their return to Roseburg, they will be at home to their many friends after July 1 at 926 Riverside Drive, Laurelwood.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Owen are popular members of the younger set of this city. Both are graduates of Roseburg senior high. For the past two years Mrs. Owen has been employed at the Oregon bakery. Mr. Owen is associated with his father in business.

MASONIC MEETING TO BE HELD AT TEMPLE NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT
Laurel lodge No. 13, A. F. & A. M., will hold an important meeting at 7:30 o'clock next Wednesday evening, June 24, at the temple. This will be the last meeting of the lodge until fall. All members are urged to be present.

U. S. V. HOSPITAL
By OTTILIA K. ASHTON
Flag day was well remembered and the dining rooms appropriately decorated for the occasion. A small American flag was presented to each veteran, this being the gift of the American Legion auxiliary of Albany, Ore., also appropriate paper napkins.

Nordal, Myron and Allan Stranding were feeling rather cheery the other day and issued a challenge to the two ladies of the American Legion auxiliary who won the championship last week. Mrs. E. F. Tandy and Mrs. Walter Fisher. These girls seemed to have their spirits working better than their buddies of the week before as they proved to be the victors.

Our monopoly game arrived and were given a try out in one of the solariums in the hospital. I had the pleasure of acting as "house man" and with Mrs. Riegel, state hospital chairman of the American Legion auxiliary assisting, the men were initiated into play with capital letters.

Our men are looking forward with keen anticipation to the big vaudeville show which is presented Sunday evening, June 21, by the Oregon Food and Beverage Dispensers, in our new recreational building at 7:15 p. m. There will be about thirty professional artists including a seven piece orchestra which will be a real treat to our many veterans.

P. T. A. ACTIVITIES
DAY SKEEK, June 20 — The Day Sreek P. T. A. held its final meeting for the school year on Wednesday night, at which time the annual election of officers for the coming year was held. The following officers were elected: President, Guy McGee; vice president, David Adams; secretary-treasurer, Clara Rhoads. Plans were made for the annual school picnic which is to be in the nature of a homecoming for all former Days Creek school students and friends, and is under the direction of the sophomore class whose president is Mildred Mather. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the picnic. Discussion of the need for the addition of two new rooms on the schoolhouse, which was presented by talk given by Jim Malloy, chairman of the grade board, and Guy McGee, chairman of the union high school board. The district number 15, will add a new director and clerk on June 15 and the union high will hold its election for it and a new director on June 22. At the close of the business meeting the following program was presented by Perry DeVoe, chairman of the program committee: Vocal solo, "Tosses are Blooming Again," Miss Sababard. Alice in Wonderland, dramatization given by the 4th and 5th grade pupils. Eat a Peach, Gerald Racher. Piano duet, "Camel Train," Miss Clark and Miss Sababard. A Day at School, Ruay Oettinger. Song, "Sunbonnet Sally and Overboard Jim," Jean Dunham and Elton Moore. Helpfulness, Thelma Davis. Vocal duet, "Old Faithful," Miss Sababard and Milton Mather. Hop Norranran, dance by girls in primary room. Presentation of high school medals by Prin. C. H. Hill; Scholarship to Victor DeWitt; athletics to

She Has Personality
Peggy Ann Landon

Another Landon made the headlines when Miss Peggy Ann Landon, daughter of Gov. Alf Landon of Kansas, prominent Republican presidential possibility, was selected for the campus personality section of the University of Kansas yearbook.

Redheads Preferred!

Peggy Carper

Students at University of Oregon demonstrated their preference for redheads over blondes and brunets when they selected attractive Miss Peggy Carper as campus queen to reign over the traditional schedule of college May activities.