

News of Douglas County

MYRTLE CREEK

MYRTLE CREEK, June 17.—Earl Sellers is driving a truck in the northern part of the state for the state highway department.

The new Louie creek road on South Myrtle creek is now being traveled under the direction of J. M. Deardorff, local road patrolman.

Mrs. M. Irvine has been a Myrtle Creek visitor since returning from the Eastern Star convention in Portland last week.

Mrs. George Godfrey and Miss June Brill were in Salem visitors last week, going up Friday and returning Saturday. Miss Brill was a caller at the state tuberculosis hospital where her brother, W. C. Fitzpatrick is a patient. Mr. Fitzpatrick is improving satisfactorily.

Mrs. Laura Whitsett is quite ill at her home at the Myrtle Creek hotel.

The few persons who have seen the play "Dear Dubbs," at the last week's rehearsals, have expressed themselves as believing that it will be one of the best local plays that has been presented here for some time. The members of the cast are swinging into line in good shape and should be fully ready by Friday night to put on a really fine performance.

Harold Edes of Yoncalla, the manager of the local motion picture theatre, announces that he will soon be giving an additional show on Monday night of each week, as well as the regular Saturday night performances.

School election passed off quietly here Monday with only 84 voters out. J. M. Ledgerwood was re-elected as director to serve three years. C. W. Hoot was elected for two years to fill the unexpired term of J. P. Brill, who has moved to Portland. Mrs. Margaret Dyer was re-elected as clerk.

GLIDE

GLIDE, June 17.—O. G. King, president of the Glide Townsend club, was elected school director for the three year term at the annual meeting of school district No. 12 Monday. H. D. Connine was elected to serve one year as school clerk.

Clifford Lilly, former resident of Glide, now residing at Corvallis, spent Monday here visiting with friends.

David Holland, who was a student at the 4-H club summer school at Corvallis, was forced by illness to return to her home here Monday.

Much damage has been caused to cherries in the Glide district by the recent heavy rains.

AZALEA

AZALEA, June 17.—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Johns spent Wednesday evening in Myrtle Creek on business.

Walter Tanner left Monday for Independence where he will visit with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hinkle for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Jennings of Modoc spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stark of Sacramento are here this week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Adams, of Redmond, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tripp, left Friday for Sacramento, where they will attend to business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wenderoth, transacted business in Roseburg Friday.

Marguerite Jenks left Tuesday for Eugene where she will receive medical care.

Miss Mercedes Hornburg, of Redmond, is spending a couple of weeks visiting Betty Tripp.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jantzer and Frank Jantzer, Sr., made a business trip to Roseburg Friday.

Miss May Dunwood and Esther Thorp of McKenzie Bridge, spent the week-end visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pickett.

Leland Johns attended to business in Roseburg Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jantzer of the Starveout Lumber company are driving a new Chevrolet sedan purchased from a Roseburg dealer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Johns, Jimmie Johns and June King visited in Roseburg Sunday. They also were at Dixonville visiting Mr. Johns' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Chadwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bushman and family and John Jantzer, Roseburg, are here Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jantzer and sons, Billie and Jackie, attended to business and visited relatives in Grants Pass, Central Point and Medford over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hughes, of North Bend, were Sunday guests of the latter's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Halbert Booth.

Mrs. Clifford Dunham and children of Wolf Creek, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Farnham over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Halbert Booth and John Blanchard transacted business in Myrtle Creek Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira De Bolt and children of Roseburg visited Sunday with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Halbert Booth.

MELROSE

MELROSE, June 18.—Vernon Vinson, who was quite seriously injured last Monday while shearing sheep, has improved sufficiently to return to his home where he was taken for medical care.

Mr. and Mrs. Felt of Roseburg have leased the John Doerner place in West Melrose, and have already taken possession. Mrs. Felt is a sister of Mrs. Charles Doerner of Roseburg. Mrs. Lutavia Doerner with her nephew, Horace Mitchell, who have been residing in the Doerner house, have moved into the small house on the place. The house has recently been refinished inside by Mr. Mitchell and Paul Demmer.

Miss Ethel Krohn and her cousin, Miss Marie Krohn, left Thursday for Portland where they will visit friends. They will be the guests of Mrs. John Buckley, who is in Portland.

Miss May Taylor and Miss Beulah Tjomsland left last week for Chicago, where they will visit until school opens in fall. They went the southern route and stopped in California and Texas to visit Miss Taylor's relatives and their return trip will be over the northern route, making several stops to visit relatives of Miss Tjomsland.

Everett Cooper left for Elkton early Monday morning where he will be employed for the summer in road construction work. Mrs. Cooper will join him in a few days.

J. L. Buffington returned home a few days ago, after being a patient in the Mercy hospital at Roseburg three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Brothers of Portland are visiting at Melrose and attended the funeral of the former's brother, the late Fred Brothers.

Mrs. John Buckley, of Portland, visited last Monday with her cousin, Mrs. G. A. Kocken. She was returning home from a four-weeks trip to Washington and California.

Mr. and Mrs. Tabiff left Friday evening for their home in Sacramento after spending several days at Melrose. Mrs. Tabiff is a niece of the late Fred Brothers.

Gunner Hedberg and Carl Anderson returned home Friday from Klamath Falls, where they have been employed for several weeks.

Mrs. Jay Forber, of Oakland, is visiting at the home of her sister-in-law, Miss Martha Good.

Gunner Johnson is improving his home by the addition of two new bedrooms. He is doing the work himself.

Dennis Buffington left the fore part of the week for Elkton where he has accepted employment.

Miss Helen Rusebark recently finished her school at Shedd, Ore., and has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Rusebark, where she will spend the summer vacation.

Miss Gunhild Pearson, of Oakland, Calif., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Pearson. Miss Pearson is a trained nurse and formerly resided at Elgarore where she attended school.

Mrs. Adolph Johnson returned home Monday from several days spent at Coburg visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sherson. Her grandson, Charles Sherson, returned home with her to visit with his grand parents during the summer.

YONCALLA

YONCALLA, June 18.—Mrs. Chad Daugherty spent several days last week attending the Rose festival and visiting relatives in Portland.

Miss Marion Edes left Wednesday for a few days visit with her sister in Eugene.

Mrs. Sam Winkshaw visited relatives in Cottage Grove over the week end.

Mrs. Virgil Johnson of Tillamook is visiting at the Francis Cogswell home for a few days.

Mrs. John Homewood of Casper, Wyo., is visiting at the Minor Applegate home for a week en route to Panama.

Mrs. Nettie Hanan is visiting relatives in Roseburg this week.

Dave Kingery and son, Elbert, made a business trip to Portland Tuesday.

Miss Beadie Wahm of Marshfield is visiting her grandfather, Tom Westfall for a few days.

Clarence Cornett transacted business in Portland this week.

Bert Lufkin, who has been visiting relatives in Eugene, Wash., for the last two months, returned home Tuesday.

Harold Edes visited friends in Eugene Wednesday.

Miss May Lamb, Chester and Jessie Lamb of Portland visited at the Chad Daugherty home this week.

Dr. McKale reports the arrival of a 9th daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wells of Scotts Valley, born Wednesday, June 17th.

Mrs. Sam Winkshaw spent several days this week visiting friends in Albany.

Ralph Wakimshaw, of Bonneville, Wash., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wakimshaw this week.

Miss Dixie Lee Wakimshaw of Salem is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wakimshaw.

Miss Alta Louise Daugherty left Wednesday for a few days visit with friends in Albany.

Ralph Wakimshaw of Bonneville, Wash., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wakimshaw, this week.

Miss Dixie Lee Wakimshaw of Salem is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wakimshaw.

Miss Alta Louise Daugherty left Wednesday for a few days visit with friends in Portland.

GLENDALE

GLENDALE, June 20.—Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Culbertson have at their guests Mrs. Culbertson's sister, Mrs. J. C. Feeley and her daughter, Mrs. M. F. Thompson and small daughter, Elaine, all of Hollywood, Calif.

Mrs. J. R. Stevenson and son, of Corvallis, are making an extended visit at the Hugh Stevenson home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Garrett motored to Crater lake for the day Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Wardrip arrived Sunday to make an extended visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Raess of Peoria, Ill., arrived by motor Wednesday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Raess and family.

Mrs. Earl McMullin returned Sunday from a trip to Corvallis, Eugene and Portland. While in Portland, she attended grand chapter of the Order of Eastern Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Belcher returned Thursday from a trip to San Francisco where they were called by the serious illness of Mrs. Belcher's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Huntington and Mrs. W. F. Tatet were Grants Pass callers Thursday, bringing back Francis Nelson, who has been confined to the hospital for the past three weeks.

GLENDALE

GLENDALE, Ore., June 17.—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Schlegel had as their house guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. C. Hanville and daughter, Shirley Jean, and Miss Lucile Funtose, of Bakersfield, Cal. Mrs. Hanville and Mrs. Schlegel are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Henninger and daughter, Madeline, visited at the A. G. Henninger home last week, returning to their home in Winchester Saturday. Miss Madeline Henninger will visit here for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dohy and son, Billie, returned home Monday from a two-weeks vacation trip.

Mrs. Sigrid St. Claire left Thursday for Klamath Falls where she has employment for the summer.

Mrs. H. D. Blair and children, Patty Lou and Carolyn Sue, arrived Monday from Pomona, Calif., to visit with her parents and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Raess, of Portland, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Stevenson's brother, Albert Jones and family in Medford over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Belcher left Monday for San Francisco to visit Mr. Belcher's sister, who is reported very ill.

Mrs. Walter Meisner and Beth spent Sunday in Franks Pass, bringing back Mr. Meisner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Meisner for a visit.

Word has been received here of the serious illness of William Spiker of North Hollywood. Mr. Spiker is a former old-time resident of Glendale and has many friends here.

C. E. Hildge left Monday on a business trip to Portland. E. H. Rothwell, registered pharmacist of Sutherlin is taking Mr. Hildge's place in the drug store.

Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Nerbas were Medford callers Monday.

A. G. Henninger is on a business trip to Portland and eastern Oregon. He was accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Henninger, of Oakland, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Eldredge were called to Benton, Ill., on account of the serious illness of Mr. Eldredge's mother.

Miss Mary Dell Geddes, of Roseburg, visited with Mrs. Francis Nelson last week. Sunday afternoon, Miss Geddes and Mrs. Nelson and Arthur Nerbas drove to Grants Pass to visit Mr. Nelson, who is in the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carlson and children of Klamath Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Williams of Cottage Grove, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Seiber last week-end. Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Sether and Mr. and Mrs. Carlson left for Portland to attend the grand lodge of the Masons. Mr. Carlson was delegate from the Glendale lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Howard returned home Saturday from an extended trip east, including New York City and Washington, D. C. They also attended the general assembly of the Presbyterian church held in Syracuse, N. Y.

Miss Mary Alice Brunner left Sunday for Portland where she will attend summer school.

Alan Carley, of Medford, has returned to his position in the office of the Luchman Lumber company, after an absence of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Chaney spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Chaney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Woodroffe returned Friday from Portland where they have been attending to business the past week. They left Sunday for several days visit in Crescent City with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Woodroffe.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dobyns visited in Grants Pass Sunday.

Bruce Woodroffe, Glen Kafer, Gene Pickett and Miss Edna Humphrey were Grants Pass callers Sunday.

Wayne Tate, of Newberg, arrived Monday to spend the summer with his uncle, B. C. Huntington.

Mr. and Mrs. LaVon Winchell and two sons arrived Sunday from Seattle, Wash., to visit their mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Winchell. Mr. and Mrs. Winchell will return to their home Thursday and the two boys will spend the summer here.

Dan Fish, of Coquille, visited here over the week-end.

Word was received here of the death of Mrs. Loretta Fraser at her home in Lodi, Calif. Mrs. Fraser was reared here and has many friends who will mourn her passing. She is the sister of Albert Snyder also formerly of Glendale, but now of Lodi, Calif.

Miss Alice Nebel, local postmistress, attended the convention of the National League of District Postmasters, Oregon branch, at Grants Pass, June 11 and 12. The day's session was held in the city park, with dinner served by the Pythian Sisters, followed by a motor trip to the Oregon Caves. Thursday the meeting was called to order in the armory. Wednesday evening a banquet was given in honor of all visitors, at the Redwoods hotel.

The annual turnover in the retail trade of this country is said to have shrunk from $509,000,000 in 1929 to $139,000,000 in the last year.

CAMAS VALLEY

CAMAS VALLEY, June 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and Ora Jones visited in Roseburg last Saturday with the boys' mother, Mrs. Sarah J. Jones, at her home on North Rose street, and with their aunt, Mrs. Henry Jones, of Portland.

Howard Brown and Jim Martindale went to Marshfield and other points Friday to look for work.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Brown and the former's mother, Mrs. Nellie Brown of McKinley, Coos county, visited at the A. H. Church home Saturday. The young people went on to Roseburg Saturday afternoon and Mrs. Nellie Brown visited with the Church's until Sunday evening when they all returned to their homes at McKinley.

Margaret Brown has finished her year's work at Willamette university, Salem, and will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Brown.

Virgil Wolcott and son Glenn are building a two story hen house 24x30 feet. Each floor will accommodate five hundred hens. There is a loft above the top floor in which they will store straw for use in the hen house during the year.

They are also building several devices to save labor and have looked up what they feel sure will be the most satisfactory nests for producing clean eggs. E. E. Morgan of Roseburg is staying at the Wolcott place in his trailer house and assisting with the work. Mrs. Wolcott has been very sick for the last two months with a severe attack of rheumatism. Her sister, Musie Thrush, is doing the house work and taking care of the eggs.

Dee Coon and Frank Church have purchased the cattle belonging to the Edmonds estate.

Ernest Wheeler is building a 16 foot addition on the east end of his home.

Miss Rachel Forsythe, who is working at Coos Junction, attended to business matters and visited friends in the valley Thursday.

Jesse Cotton and Lowell Standley spent the week at the former's home at Gravel Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Denn returned Saturday from the grange convention at Lebanon.

Mrs. Jack Parrott visited one day last week at the home of Mrs. John Sinclair at Garden Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Eliza Clayton and small son of Dillard visited, Sunday with Mr. Clayton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Church.

Miss Estelle Brown left Sunday for Portland where she will spend the next six weeks attending summer school.

Robert Morgan of Roseburg is visiting his father, E. E. Morgan. J. R. Standley and Paul Jones spent last Saturday in Myrtle Point attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland James and small daughter of North Bend spent the week at the home of Mrs. James' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Combs.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Centers of North Bend visited Sunday at the homes of Mrs. Centers' father, Robert Martindale, and her brother, Story Martindale, and with other relatives and friends.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wiley was the scene of quite a family reunion and house party Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bahke and small son and Stanley Will came from Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stobie and two sons from McKenzie Bridge, Miss Willa Anderson of North Bend, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeKoss and daughter Dorothy from Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. Dee Coon and two children of Camas also spent the day at the Wiley home. Mrs. Bahke, Mrs. Stobie and Mrs. Coon are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley. The Bahkes and Stanley Will stayed over until Monday morning before returning home.

Paul Jones went back to the Johnson logging camp to work Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Norman, who are living in the Otto Johnson cabin on Camas mountain, attended to business matters in the valley Monday afternoon.

Don Coon, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Coon, was quite badly shaken up and bruised Sunday afternoon by a hard fall from a horse when the saddle cinch broke, throwing him to the ground. He was quite sick Sunday evening and was still unable to be up Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Paulson left Monday for Azalea where they will make their home on their ranch. Mr. Paulson has very ably filled the position of janitor at the schoolhouse for the past seven years and also taken an active interest, together with his wife, in all community activities. Mrs. Paulson has been Ladies Aid president for the past four years and was recently re-elected for the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulson and Raymond Paulson of Canyonville came Monday to help move their household goods.

The annual school meeting to elect one director and one clerk for the coming year was held at the schoolhouse Monday, June 15, from 2 until 3 p. m. Nominations for director were Mrs. Margaret Crouch, C. W. Perry, H. C. Kelley and Lloyd Roberts, present chairman of the board. Lloyd Roberts was re-elected. Nominations for clerk were Mrs. Raffe Reynolds, Mrs. Wheeler and Everett McFall. Mrs. Wheeler was elected.

Owen Russell has the school bus job for the coming year and Fred Putnam has been hired for janitor to succeed P. M. Paulson.

CANYONVILLE

CANYONVILLE, June 19.—Mrs. Delbert Brooker and small daughter, Betty Lou, of southern California, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Brooker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McGlane, of the Bridge Cafe.

Jimmy and Earl Manley, Marden Shaw and Harold Green left Monday with the national guard company for Camp Clatsop, where they will spend the next two weeks in training.

Miss Lois DeVore has accepted employment at Mother's Inn.

Mrs. Estina Wamsley, is visiting in Santa Jose with her father.

The Kloser family, of Toledo, Ore., is holding revival meetings at the Methodist church here. The meetings have been in progress for the past two weeks and will continue this week. Special musical numbers are enjoyed each evening.

Kenneth Hopkins has returned to his home here from Wolf Creek camp where he has been attending forest service fire school.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hopkins and son, Donnie and Will Stock returned Monday after spending a few days vacationing at Marshfield and Winchester Bay, where they attended the Townsend picnic. More than 700 folks were present. T. D. Weatherford, the town barber, spent the week-end in Roseburg.

Rosetta Hash is spending her summer vacation with her aunt, Mrs. Roy Tatten of Cottage Grove. Mrs. Pearl Ulan has purchased a new Pontiac sedan of the Roseburg Motor company.

Mrs. Florence Smith, of Milo, attended grand chapter, Order of Eastern Star, which was held in Portland. She was accompanied by Mrs. V. W. Shaw, grand Ruth of the grand chapter.

Work is going on at full blast on the community hall. Twelve men are at work. The work will be complete about July 1.

Saturday at noon the city fire siren will be heard as a test. The alarm will not indicate fire.

Much interest was taken in the school election Monday. Victor Shaw was re-elected director and Ira Poole was elected clerk.

WILBUR

WILBUR, June 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Ford Northrup and children of Eugene were among those who attended the Umpqua academy homecoming Sunday. Mr. Northrup was formerly principal of the Wilbur school.

Miss Louise Hogan, Miss Olive Hogan and "Pat" Hogan of Springfield are guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Hart.

Mrs. Myrtle Kiger and Miss Grace McCauley of Seattle were guests Tuesday of Mrs. John Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKay and George Dimmick, of Springfield, visited over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. D. P. McKay.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harris of Tiller visited with friends in Wilbur Sunday. Mrs. Harris was formerly Miss Alice Godsey of this place.

Among the Eugene visitors at the homecoming Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McKay, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Godsey and Miss Vivian Godsey.

MELROSE

MELROSE, June 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Melrose left Sunday for their home in Portland after spending the past week visiting their sister-in-law, Mrs. Cora Brothers, and attending the funeral of the former's brother, Fred Brothers.

Patricia Holmquist, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Holmquist, accompanied her uncle, George Anderson to Powers Monday where she will visit a week with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Sunberg.

Mrs. E. L. Cooper moved to Elkton last Sunday, where she will spend the summer with her husband, who is employed there in road construction work.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Anderson and their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Johnson and her small daughter, Rita, left Monday morning for Marshfield and will continue on up the coast highway to Astoria and up the Columbia river to The Dalles and to Bonneville dam. They plan to be away a week or ten days.

George Anderson left Monday with the Roseburg national guard for Camp Clatsop, where he will spend several days.

Mrs. W. H. Brewington, who has spent the winter with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Oakley, left last Saturday for Butte, Mont., where she was called by the serious injury of a relative.

Mrs. Brewington plans to return to Melrose in October.

Mrs. Dot Bichof, of Seattle, arrived at Melrose Saturday for an indefinite visit with Mrs. Cora Brothers. Mrs. Bichof has visited at Melrose on a number of occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Meredith spent Tuesday afternoon at Dillard visiting relatives.

OLD TIME DANCE

Every Monday night, Maccabee hall, Mother White's Orchestra. Admission 25c, ladies and spectators, 10c.—Adv.

DIAMOND LAKE

DIAMOND LAKE, June 20.—Vernon Smith and party of four climbers scaled Mt. Thielsen June 6. They report the last 1000 feet to the peak covered with ice.

R. Mercer, Charles Thurston and George Churchill of Umpqua forestry headquarters spent several days in camp this week.

Kelly Feyerisen, forestry foreman, has been assigned to Diamond lake camp.

Robert E. Clee, of Roseburg, WPA teacher, who has been with company 979 for the past year is to be married June 26. The bride to be is Miss Pearl Sweet of Pasadena, Calif.

SUTHERLIN

SUT