BRIDGE PARTY ENJOYED AT ROBERTSON HOME

SUTHERLIN, June 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Robertson entertained very delightfully Thursday evening with two tables of bridge. The home was charmingly decorated with blue and white flowers. Members of the club present were Mr. and Mrs. Vern Holgate, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Brittain Slack and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Robertson. Mr. and Mrs. Holgate received high score. Dainty refreshments were served at midnight.

WESTMINSTER CIRCLE LADIES HOLD MEETING

SUTHERLIN, June 24.—The ladies of the Westminster circle met Thursday at the church rooms with a rather small attendance. Mrs. Elton Bever and Mrs. N. K. Eby gave the topics of the national and foreign missions. At six o'clock a picnic potluck supper was held with about twenty-five members and guests present.

Today's Pattern

MAKE THIS COOL, BRIGHT FROCK FOR IMMEDIATE WEAR

by Anne Adams

PATTERN 2706 For all the happy days of the warm weather season—choose this "captivating afternoon frock." As bithe and chic as Summer itself, this engaging model may be made so inexpensively as to be in tune with the smallest budget. Cool caplets are enhanced by the novel, pointed yoke, while the bodice receives more than its share of smartness from the well placed darts. You'll wear it everywhere, confident that you look your best. It's easily made, too, and grand in cotton, voile, or shantung. The graceful, front skirt panel treats the waistline softly, then cleverly merges into flattering ruche ends. Pattern 2706 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 29 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with each pattern.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE. Send for our ANNE ADAMS PATTERN BOOK! Choose from its many cool, smart models just what will flatter your type for work and play, vacations, parties. Special slenderizing designs for stout. Lovely frocks for brides and bridesmaids. Sturdy designs for children. The latest fabric news. BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. PATTERN FIFTEEN CENTS. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS FOR BOTH, WHEN ORDERED TOGETHER. Address orders to News-Review Pattern Dept., Roseburg, Ore.

Will Arrive Here in Few Days—Mrs. Gale Hurlst and two children, of Eugene, plan to move to Roseburg within the next few days to make their home at the H. L. Connelly residence on East Douglas street. Mrs. Hurlst has been transferred here in the sales department of the Shell Oil company to take the place of Mr. Connelly, who was transferred to Portland. Mrs. Connelly and son, Brian, plan to leave within a few days for Portland to join Mr. Connelly and make their home.

Missionary Society to Meet—The Baptist Missionary society will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the church parlors. A program on Africa, "Off the Beaten Track," will be in charge of Mrs. George Caskey. Members have been asked to bring donations for the Porto Rican quota. Refreshments will be served at the tea hour by Mrs. Elmer McKean and Mrs. August Schloeman.

Working Here—Bert S. Weekly, of Albany, has been transferred as third trick telegrapher at the local Southern Pacific office to take the place of W. O. Simon, who is being retired. Mr. Simon recently left Roseburg for the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco for medical treatment. He
