Proud of Scoop

Gloria Lee Hoyt, 11, publisher of a one-page weekly at Mountain Lakes, N. J., scored a scoop on the country's great papers with the first personal letter from Gov. Alfred M. Landon, following his nomination, thanking her for endorsing his campaign.

Marked by "Legion"

William W. Voisine, mayor of Ecorse, a Detroit suburb, is shown above. He is said to have been marked for death by the Black Legion, which boasted that Ecorse had the only fully-recruited "regiment" in Michigan. Mayor Voisine's home was mysteriously bombed last August.

STRANGLER'S WIFE TO STAND BY HIM

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Mrs. Angela Walter today met her husband, Albert Walter Jr., confessed strangler of an Idaho woman, and expressed her love for him and a determination to help him escape death on the gallows.

Mrs. Walter and her father-in-law, a Boston salesman, saw the younger Walter in his jail cell and none displayed visible emotion.

Walter shook hands with his son, who merely nodded at his wife.

"I still love him," said Mrs. Walter, red-eyed and sobbing, as she left the prison. "I'm sorry for him and have all the sympathy in the world for him. This has not altered my affection.

"I should have known he was this way, by his strange actions, even before I married him. He was always up and going away without reason, giving the excuse he was looking for something he never seemed to find."

Mrs. Walter said her husband, admitted strangler of Miss Blanche Cousins of Idaho Falls, Idaho, whom he met on a bus here, had expressed willingness to cooperate with them in his defense plans.

TWO IN RACE FOR EAGLES' PRESIDENT

SILVERTON, Ore., June 26.—(AP)—Keen rivalry for the state presidency and choice of a 1937 convention city developed as the annua lstate convention of the Fraannual state convention of the Fraits second day.

There were two names mentioned most prominently for the chief state office of the lodge. A. Warren Jones, Salem, retiring vice-president, was backed by a group headed by Barnett H. Goldstein, of Portland, retiring president, and A. H. Bramwell, Medford, had behind him the forces of D. D. Hall, Portland, state organizer.

Aeries from Astoria and Klamath Falls were making a determined campaign for the bid as the 1937 convention city.

Meanwhile steps were being taken to develop an old age pension program, and H. J. Langlo and William S. Shenker of Portland and Dr. R. S. Scofield of Marshfield were named as an old age pension committee.

Committee reports made Thursday afternoon showed that the 38 aeries in the state had made a marked increase in membership, many having doubled and some trebled their last year's roll.

In the women's auxiliary the names of Hazel Marshall of Salem and Betty Wood of Klamath Falls were being mentioned for the next president.

ENDEAVORER HITS AT RACE HATRED

LAKESIDE, O., June 25.—(AP)—Arthur Stanley of Portland, president of the Oregon Christian Endeavor organization, was elected chairman today of the first youth conference of North America.

Harriett Lewis, of Great Falls, Mont., and Peggy Woodruff, of Greenville, N. Y., both representing the Methodist Episcopal church, were chosen as secretaries.

Juanita Jackson, of New York City, deploring what she described as racial discrimination in administration of relief, urged the conference to adopt a platform of concerted action in breaking down racial barriers.

"The Black Legion, Ku Klux Klan and similar fascist organizations are merely practicing on minority groups what they are planning to administer the nation at large," she said.

SCANTY CLOTHING NOT CAUSE OF T-B

VANCOUVER, June 25.—(AP)—Scanty clothing is not to blame for the tuberculosis death rate among young girls Dr. H. A. Farris of Saint John, N. B., said here today.

Dr. Farris said although a decrease had been noted in deaths from the disease generally, there had been no improvement in the fatality rate among girls between 15 and 25.

"It was thought at first that this was caused by their desire to grow slim and wear scanty clothing," Dr. Farris said. "Investigation within the last few years, however, shows they are living at a high tension and burning the candle at both ends."

EVANGELIST WILL TELL LIFE'S WORK

Tonight, Friday, at First Christian church, Evangelist Teddy Leavitt will bring a message in which he will tell of his work in the evangelistic field. He promises a thrilling story of missionary work along the inside passage to Alaska, of preaching in dance halls, turning pool halls into churches, etc. There is already evidence that one of the largest audiences of the series of meetings will be out to hear this message. It is reported that large delegations will be present from other towns in the county; so that good seats will need to be secured early, according to all expectations for attendance.

Another baptismal service is to be held at the close of the Saturday night message.

NOTICE

Beginning Tuesday night, June 30th, the Krocker family, west coast Eyeographic Evangelists, will hold meetings every night at 7:30 at the North Methodist church. The word of God in music, song, pictures and heart to heart talks. Special singing accompanied by vibra harp and guitar by the Krocker sisters. Everybody welcome.—Adv.

PORTLAND, June 25 — The red menace of northwestern forests apparently is due for another major setback. Officials of the forestry department said 288 miniature radio receiving and transmitting sets and more than 60 larger outfits, will augment 13,000 miles of telephone lines in the national forests of Oregon and Washington under a new fire control program.

ATTENTION! Do you know the Standard Chevrolet is not only the lowest priced full size car but the only low priced car with all steel safety one-piece top, hydraulic brakes, level floors, and no-draft ventilation system.—Adv.

Real lager TASTES better
Ever taste true lager beer?
The Federal definition of "lager" says, "It must be aged at least 3 months."
But Rainier is aged longer—a perfected lager!
Here is far finer flavor, a richer, creamier head, and sparkling, clear color—all without artificial flavoring, foam-maker, or coloring matter—and so a pure lager too! Rainier's taste will tell you.
FOR COMPLEXION . . . Leading physicians say pure beer aids body-tone, nerves, sound sleep, digestion and the complexion.
Try Rainier for the finer flavor of true lager; and for its healthfulness also, if your doctor agrees. Don't say "beer," say "Rainier."
