THELMA THRONE GILDEA AND HURLEY WILSON MARRY IN ROSEBURG SUNDAY

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season occurred Sunday, June 21, at the residence of W. J. Clarke, 726 Mill street, when Thelma Throne Gildea was united in marriage to Hurley Wilson, of Myrtle Point, Rev. J. H. Turnbull, pastor of the Baptist church, performed the ceremony at one o'clock.

The home was beautiful in a profusion of spring flowers arranged about the spacious rooms. A lovely trellis, heavy with Dorothy Perkins roses, with a background of delphiniums, Madonna lilies and fern, formed a charming bowler for the wedding party. Tall tapers were used to light the rooms.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Vera Carey, a girlhood friend of the bride, sang "O Promise Me," accompanied by her daughter, Alice Jane. To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, the bride entered on the arm of her stepfather, W. J. Clarke, who gave her in marriage. Her two little sons, Norman Cecil Gildea and Howard Throne Gildea, dressed alike in suits of cream and blue, acted as ring bearers. They carried the wedding ring on a pillow of pink satin filled with rose petals, Ryce Wilson, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man and Mrs. Charles Snoddy acted as matron of honor.

The bride was lovely in a pastel blue dress with hand embroidered suit with accessories of shell pink. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of Tallman roses directed with a fluting of blue chiffon.

A reception was held following the ceremony to which over sixty guests were bidden. At a beautiful appointed table, Mrs. Herman Aydelott and Mrs. Fred Bourne, relatives of the bride and bridegroom, presided. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Gevornee Arnot, Miss Lois and Miss Margaret Schloeman, Miss Corinne Anne Perry, Miss Rosemary Schroeder and Miss Ruth Snoddy, who were attractive in pastel-colored afternoon frocks.

The bride cut the wedding and bride's cakes at a beautifully appointed side-table. Mrs. Hazel Schroeder served the cakes.

The bride will be remembered by many as Thelma Throne and for the past five years has been head of the home economics department of McMinnville high school. The bridegroom is a prominent business man at Grants Pass.

The couple left immediately following the reception for the south on their wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Grants Pass.

Is Modern Miss Object of Pity?

Henrietta Leaver, "Miss America—1936" and statue symbolic of modern young woman as represented by Miss Leaver.

Is the modern young woman, unattached and between the ages of 25 and 35, an object of pity? Survey of representative young women in different sections of the country—co-eds, debutantes, stenographers, teachers and shop girls—indicates that their "new freedom" is not entirely ideal. Their consensus of opinion is that 28 is the ideal age for a woman to marry; that the depression has made marriage a practical rather than romantic affair, and that the majority are of the opinion that careers and marriage do not mix. This survey, contacting representative young women of 1936, of whom Miss Henrietta Leaver, "Miss America 1936" is supposed to be the ideal example, indicated that their class, possibly more than any other, had suffered most from the depression.
