Athletics and Character.

THERE is a place for athletics in school and college programs, though it may not be the one frequently claimed. Character development has always been a considered one of the chief virtues of athletic competition. Now a college professor, after a year's study of the situation in four colleges, reports that the character-building quality has been over-emphasized.

Instructors are much more significant factors in influencing the attitudes of students than are the subjects they teach. That holds for any academic subject quite as much as for athletics. The student who is honest and square in his dealings with others carries that attitude into all his activities, including athletics. The one who is mean, selfish, or a cheat in any relationship doesn't suddenly become a good sport when he plays tennis or football. Playing the game helps, but could not do the job alone.

Character-building cannot be accomplished in one branch of living alone. It begins with parents' training of children and goes on through every phase of life. Part icipation in athletics is more likely to reveal character than to develop it.

Sunflowers are great, and may yet become our national emblem.
But why don't the Kansas people go a step farther and introduce sunflower seed—the Old World substitute for popcorn?

"There are no traffic problems in Italy," boasts a fascist. There wouldn't be any here, either, if gas was $1.25 a gallon.

leged to have exposed to the life of a rattlesnake.

The state charges also that he murdered his third wife, asserting that he first hit her on the head with a hammer, then toppled her over a mile-high embankment on the Pike's Peak highway, in Colorado, and when that didn't kill her drowned her in a bathtub.

Women are said to like permanent men, and some color of truth is lent to the saying by the fact this fellow has had seven wives.

WHATEVER happened when he killed them, it will have to be admitted that he was a persistent case when he started in to murder them.

IT is charged by the state that he first married them, then induced them to take out insurance in his favor and finally killed them off.
So, girls, if your new husband wants you to take out an insurance policy in his favor, you'd better watch him.

NEW OFFICERS OF LIONS INSTALLED

New officers of the Roseburg Lions club were installed at the regular meeting held last night at the Grand hotel. Phil Barth, new president, outlined briefly plans for the coming year. This was followed by a talk by Pete Mosenbacher, who summarized interesting features of a recent vacation trip, dealing principally with lava flows and caves.

Daily Devotions

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS
What a wonderful lesson is to be found in the conversation of Jesus and the woman of Samaria at the well. "He that drinks of this water shall thirst again, but whosoever shall drink of the water that I shall give shall never thirst." Is it any wonder this woman became, not only a convert to His cause, but an enthusiastic witness for it. This woman became an example and witness of the "living water" Jesus offered.
Thou hast done great things for us, whereof we are glad. Do thou help us to be glad and grateful witnesses of Thy goodness and grace. Amen.

TEAMS UNCHANGED IN COAST LEAGUE

(By the Associated Press.) Neat pitching performances, punctuated by the perfect hitting of the Missions' Harry Rosenberg, left the positions of Coast League teams unchanged today. Only 54 games separated fifth and first place teams.

Schulmerich spoiled Crughead's bid for nobility fame as the rejuven-ated San Diego blanked Los Angeles, 2-0, in the finest hurling act of the present series.

Rosenberg collected five for five against the San Francisco Missions to lead the San Francisco Seals to an 8-4 triumph, while the pace-setting Seattle club trounced Portland 6-2 and Oakland hammered out a 5-0 decision over Sacramento.

Kempal was in a pitching mood, which coupled with a Seattle flurry in the first inning, caused Portland's second successive downfall in the north.

The Indians' perennial mound star restricted the Beavers to four hits, while his teammates took advantage of three hits and two errors in his initial outing to tally four times and win easily.

Crughead has proved an enigma to coast leaguers since his transfer to San Diego, from Seattle, where he lost seven games and won only two.

Last night he won his fourth in a row for the Padres in most impressive fashion, holding every sophomore, but Schulmerich hit for nine innings. Big Wes touched him for a double and a single.

The Reds made it two up on the Seals, with Rosenberg's triple, two doubles and two singles adding in scoring four runs. The Seals made a battle of it for seven innings, but the Missions went ahead in the ninth, added three more
runs for good measure.

Sacramento was completely handcuffed by Larocca, and got only four singles off the Avon ace.
Oakland fielders had an easy time of it, Larocca striking out 12 batters and allowing only three hits to be hit out of the infield.

CRATER LAKE INFUX CREATES NEW HIGH

CRATER LAKE NATIONAL PARK, Ore., June 30.—Over 100 per cent ahead of 1935 figures at this time, current Crater lake attendance has reached a total of 10,000 visitors, already representative of every state in the union.

By entrance, the travel approximates 20,000 people for the year, 17,500 for the west and 2500 for the east. With the north entrance just opened, checking will start at this station July 1.

As a result of new road completion from Diamond lake, The Dalles-California highway, this entrance is expected to be a popular route of entry for summer visitors.

Park concessions are now in complete operation, meaning particularly stage service to Medford and Klamath Falls and boat service on the lake for fishing, tripping and launch excursions. Other concessions, such as the lodge, dining rooms, housekeeping cabins, cate-teria, and store, have been in operation for the past fortnight.

Campgrounds are open at Cold spring on the south road, Lost creek on the east road and at Aonie spring, the junction of the south and west roads. The latter camp is equipped with fireplaces, stoves, fuel and other conveniences.
Snow depths are still making the ice impracticable for camping, but with the present sunmer sun melting the snow rapidly, it is probable sites will be available in another week or so.

The management of the Crater Lake National park company advises prospective guests to make reservations at least two or three days ahead of their arrival, in view of heavy travel indicated by reservations already received. Reservations a week ahead, if possible, are advised if certain types of rooms or housekeeping cabins are desired.

GOLD PLATED SOX STARTING TO CRACK

Drop Sixth Straight Game While Yankees Increase Lead in American.

By SID FEDER
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)
Mr. Tom Yawkey, from all indications, will be a wiser, if not sadder, young man by the time this American league race has run its course.

The big ivory hunter from Boston is finding out almost daily that the million dollars, more or less, he threw into building up the glittering array of Red Sox won't buy the American league pennant.

In fact, from the way things are going now, it's highly doubtful if the at present slightly-tarnished gold plated lineup will finish one-two in the current pennant chase.
The Sox sank out of second place yesterday, dropping their sixth straight game as the Yankees made it three in a row over the Bostons with a 5-0 victory, to stretch their league lead to 10½ games. The Tigers, who seem to have recovered somewhat from the loss of Manager Mickey Cochrane, took over the runner-up position with their fifth straight win, a tremendous 21-6 scoring spree against the White Sox.

The Detroiters expressed the trend of the day for the league, as pitchers came at a dime-a-dozen against slugging bats on all sides. The twice St. Louis Browns blasted the Indians 15-2 in the first game of a doubleheader and deadlocked the almost as wild-hitting nightcap, 5-5, called in the ninth because of darkness. Meantime, the Senators who went into a tie with the Red Sox for third place, teed off against Connie Mack's pitching youngsters with a total of 32 hits, for a twin bill win, 13-5 and 14-1.

The hurling brigade had a slightly better time in the National league, although the Pirates' 15-thru St. Louis pitchers for 15 hits and a 4-0 win, to cut the Cards' lead to half a game over the Cubs, who were rained out at Cincinnati.
The Giants were shoved deeper into the second division when the Bees came through 8-6, and the Phillies stayed out of the cellar by splitting a doubleheader with the Dodgers, winning 10-3, after losing the opener 6-1 to Munoz's three-hit pitching.

MEDFORD, Ore., July 1.—(AP) geles, Calif., died this noon from
