D. N. G. CHAPLAIN PLANS CANOE TRIP

PORTLAND, Ore., July 6.—(AP)—A boyhood dream of emulating some of the exploits of two great pioneers, Lewis and Clark, may come true this summer for the Rev. John W. Beard. With his 18-year-old son, Robert, a University of Oregon sophomore, and the 54-year-old pastor of the Mount Taber Presbyterian church here, hopes to backtrack part of the trail of Lewis and Clark by paddling a canoe from the start of the Missouri river to Sioux City, Ia. If the trip is successful, Mr. Beard will have realized a boyhood ambition of a canoe journey the length of the big river. But you say Sioux City isn't the end of the Missouri? Right. In 1919, he made the 1000-mile journey from Sioux City to St. Louis by canoe. Mr. Beard, who is chaplain of the Oregon national guard and served overseas as chaplain of the 81st infantry, 91st division, and his son expect to leave here July 27, their canoe lashed to the top of their automobile. Six days later, August 1, they hope to set out from Three Forks, Mont., junction of the Madison, Gallatin and Jefferson rivers forming the Missouri, for Sioux City, Mr. Beard's boyhood home. They expect to travel the 3740 miles in a month. He made the first part of the journey with Francis Jones, of Portland, shortly after his return from France but he saved the last leg until his son could accompany him.

U. S. V. HOSPITAL

By OTTILIA K. ASHTON Our Fourth of July table and tray decorations are the gift of the state department of the American Legion auxiliary. Also the chorale covered ice cream bars distributed the evening of the Fourth are the special treat of the same organization. We are all looking forward to the fireworks display which will be held about nine o'clock as a colorful and appropriate closing for this particular day. A small group of patients, who seldom have the pleasure of an outing, were taken to town to see the parade Saturday morning. The state departments of the D. A. V., V. F. W. and American Legion auxiliaries have purchased a General Electric radio for our new recreational building. This will be a delightful surprise and pleasure to the veterans, especially those who follow the national baseball leagues so closely. An engraved plate with the names of these organizations upon it will be placed on the machine. CARD OF THANKS We wish to take this opportunity of expressing our appreciation for the kindness and sympathy shown by friends during the illness and death of our mother, Mrs. Ann Hall; and for the beautiful floral offerings. THE FAMILY.
