Oddities Gleaned
From Day's News

Assured.

ATLANTA, July 10.—(AP)—Willie Houston, 34-year-old negro woman, walked into the municipal hospital yesterday carrying a baby about two hours old.

"Please sir, will you look at this baby and see if it's all right?" she said to an interne.

"The child's all right. Where is the mother?" the physician replied after an examination.

"In the mama," she answered simply, "and now I guess I better be getting back to my housework. I just wanted to know if the baby was all right."

Routine in Reverse.

BRISTOL, Va., July 9.—(AP)—Youngsters at Camp Cherokee near here celebrated a "topsy-turvy" day by acting to the strains of "Taps," putting clothes on backward, eating a dinner menu for breakfast, the breakfast menu for luncheon and lunch before taking a "morning dip" at 8:15 p. m.

A good time was had by all before the routine was reversed.

110, Gets Pension 1

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., July 10.—(AP)—The first old-age pension check issued in St. Clair county went to a negro woman who claimed she was 110 years old. Lucy Robinson, who said she was born a slave on a Tennessee plantation in 1826, accepted the $11 check with a smile.

"Please sir, will you look at this baby and see if it's all right?" she said to an interne.

"The child's all right. Where is the mother?" the physician replied after an examination.
