MRS. W. C. TIPTON IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY AT REUNION

A family reunion and birthday celebration that will long be remembered was held at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo T. Tipton, south of Roseburg last Sunday, July 5, in honor of Mr. Tipton's mother's 80th birthday.

Mrs. Tipton has just returned to her home in Roseburg from Piedmont, Calif., having recovered from a serious automobile accident which kept her confined at her daughter's home in Piedmont for the past six months.

Besides her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Williams, who accompanied her, there were present her oldest son, Alvin Tipton of Alliance, Neb., and her grandson, Billie, her oldest daughter, Miss K. Elliott and granddaughter, Miss Betty Anne Elliott of Boston, Mass.

The party took the form of an old time country gathering and under the skillful direction of Mrs. Lester Wimberly, beautiful bouquets of garden flowers, ferns and wild tiger lilies were used in an artistic arrangement on tables and tripods under the spreading oak trees.

About 250 of Mrs. Tipton's friends and neighbors from Roseburg and surrounding towns and countryside congratulated her and remained awhile to chat while Mrs. Cleo Tipton served ice cream assisted by Mrs. C. E. Marks, who presided graciously over the cakes, and Mrs. E. A. Helmholdt at the punch bowl, and Betty Elliott and Betty Helmholdt attended to the serving.

Among the happy group were many Oregon pioneers who, like Mrs. Tipton, have lived in this community for 60 years or more, and have seen Roseburg grow from a small railroad center to a flourishing city with smart shops and beautiful homes amid a setting of fertile valleys.

Mrs. Tipton was literally showered with beautiful and useful gifts which she will cherish and the memory of her 80th birthday will linger in her mind as one of the brightest and happiest of her life.

POET'S CORNER

VALUES By L. B. ROSE Woman is to man As man is to digit The value depends On where you place it.

Place it on The right side of the figure Will increase its value Ten times bigger. So woman to man, If she's on the right, Adds value to him And makes life bright.

Placed on the other side Lo! and behold The poor man's value Is decreased ten-fold.

To add value To a man Requires a good woman At his right hand.
