

BROWNS BEAT YANKS 3 STRAIGHT GAMES

Giants Regain Third Place in Race; Cubs Increase Lead Over Cards.

By SID FEDER
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)
Bill Terry and Rogers Hornsby, a couple of McGraw boys who learned their lessons well under the "old man," are carving "miracle man" reputations for themselves out of the hides of such pennant favorites as the St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankee these days.

For instance, there's Terry, who's New York Giants were expected to collapse and sink out of the picture about mid-season. They collapsed, but Terry brought them right back, and they're in third place again, hot after the creaky Cardinals.

And Hornsby, with the St. Louis Browns, has become the only man in the American league to solve the slugging dynamite of the Yanks. "Feed 'em slow balls," he told his pitchers. They did, and the Browns became the only club to hang three straight losses on "murderers' row" this season.

When Hubbell and Ott are right, Terry's Giants go places. At the moment, both "The Hub" and the "Kid Veteran" are red hot, so the Giants have taken two straight over the Cards. Hubbell's pitching won Tuesday's game, and Ott, Gus Mancuso and young hurler Gabby Gabler, making his first start of the season, combined to take an 8-2 decision yesterday.

With the Pirates losing a 16-4 slugfest to the Phillies, in which Johnny Moore belted three homers, the Giants shot into third place and the Cubs slipped to fifth. The Cincinnati Reds, who won their second straight over the Boston Bees, 7-4, took over fourth place. The league lead of the Cubs was stretched to three full games by the Cardinals' best start of the Chicago champions nipped out the Dodgers 3-2 with Larry French posting his tenth pitching win. The Browns, who came out of the American league cellar by downing the Yankees Sunday and Tuesday, beat the Yankees 6-4, chiefly on the hitting of Bottomley and the hurling of Andrews.

The Yankees' American league lead was cut to seven games, smallest it has been in weeks, for the second place Cleveland Indians again slugged the Red Sox, winning 8-3, with Averill leading a 19-hit attack to drop the gold plated Boston to fifth place.

The Chicago White Sox took over fourth place, just beating the Senators in a 12-inning pitching thriller that saw Whitehead best Whitehill 3-2. The Tigers found Fink in particular and the Athletics in general too tough and suffered a 7-5 setback but managed to hang onto third place.

FATHER, NINE SONS MAKE BALL TEAM

CLINTON, Mass., July 23.—(AP)—Martin P. McNamara, pitcher on a softball team, will step onto the mound tomorrow with nine sons backing him up.
The McNamaras will play the Hanks Spa team in an adult educational program game.

JUNIOR LEAGUERS FACE CRUCIAL TEST

(By the Associated Press)
Crucial games faced four Oregon Junior League baseball teams today as the race for the right to compete in the state championships at Woodburn August 1 and 2 slowly drew to a close. Nine teams remain in the running.

This afternoon, El Rey Roofers (Jefferson high) and Postoffice Pharmacy (Lincoln high) will open their series for the Portland district title. The second game will be played tomorrow and the third, if one is necessary, Saturday. Tonight, Woodburn and Astoria will battle in the second game of a district playoff. Woodburn won the first 27 to 2 and needs but one more victory to clinch a berth in the finals.

Tomorrow night, Roseburg will trek to Eugene for the second game in the southwestern Oregon playoff. Eugene won the first game, at Roseburg, 9 to 0. If a third game is necessary it will be played at the city which drew the largest crowd at the first two contests.

Other games to determine the four finalists included those between Hood River and The Dalles and between the winner of that series and Vale.
The winner of the state title at Woodburn will meet the Washington state champion at Roseburg during the American Legion state convention in August in the northwest finals.

bell Manuel brought a left upper cut up from his shotstop and planted it on Sarron's open chin.
The lanky Cuban shot at Sarron's bleeding mouth again in the second but Sarron, back on his usual busybody style, recovered quickly and handled the southpaw almost as he pleased the remainder of the way.

EX-JUNIOR GIVEN COAST LEAGUE BID

WOODBURN, Ore., July 23.—(AP)—Floyd (Bill) Bevens, former member of the Salem Senators' baseball team and once a star with the Woodburn junior leaguers, received word to report to the Oakland training camp of the New York Yankees at Modesto, Calif., for a tryout on the mound.

DAVE LEVIN WINS OVER SONNENBERG

PORTLAND, Ore., July 23.—(AP)—Dave Levin, claimant to the world's heavyweight wrestling title, dodged one of Gus Sonnenberg's flying tackles just in time last night.
The 197-pound New Yorker defeated Sonnenberg in straight falls after the former title holder missed a wild leap, crashing into referee Verne Harrison and knocked out both himself and the third man.

Levin jumped atop the prone Bostonian for the first fall and went on to win the second with a body slam a minute later.

Leo Anderson, 235, Seattle, was awarded a victory over Jack Washburn, Boston, after each had won a fall. Washburn was disqualified for roughing.
The Johnson, 238, Sweden, took a one-fall special event from Nick Daviscourt, 225, Vista, Calif., in 10-18.

SEATTLE EXTENDS LEAD TO 3 GAMES

(By the Associated Press)
Pacific northwest ball teams, playing on home grounds, dominated Coast league play in doubleheaders last night, with Seattle stretching its lead over Oakland to three full games, and Portland displacing San Francisco Mission in third place.

Seattle gained two games over the Astoria by taking both games from Sacramento, 11-9, 5-2, while the Oaks lost as many to Portland 5-2, 5-0.
The Mission won their game from San Diego, 3-1, but dropped into fourth place anyway. Los Angeles trimmed San Francisco 5-2, 7-4.

Posselt and Linka had the Oakland team hamstrung, limiting them to eight hits for the 16 innings. Portland didn't exactly go on a hitting spree, but their total of 15 hits produced 10 runs as they clustered them in bunches of three and four.

SARRON DECISIONS MANUEL IN FIFTEEN

DALLAS, Tex., July 23.—(AP)—Aging Petey Sarron, tireless bundle of energy who was a ring star 13 years ago, had the first defense of his national boxing association featherweight title belated him today—a decisive 15-round victory over Baby Manuel, left-handed Cuban youth.
Ten weeks ago he won the title from Freddie Miller at Washington, D. C., and immediately announced he was ready for all comers. Manuel was the first and he took him in stride.
