

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

MISS STOLBERG HAS PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

GLENDALE, July 22.—Miss Eleanor Stolberg was pleasantly surprised by a group of her childhood friends Monday evening at the home of her father, J. Elmer Nelson, in honor of her birthday. The evening was spent visiting, and ended with a handkerchief shower and lovely refreshments.

Friends helping to make her visit a happy one included Mrs. Charles Kates, Mrs. Mattie Toljar, Mrs. H. D. Blair, Mrs. W. R. Stevenson, Miss Alice Nebel, Mrs. T. E. Lawson, Mrs. I. H. Smith, Mrs. Alice Redfield, Mrs. Stanley Williams, Gertrude and Velma Wardrip, Mrs. Francis Nelson, Miss Laura Raess, Mrs. Charles Raice, Mrs. Wm. Wunch and Mrs. A. J. Raess.

Miss Stolberg will be remembered as Eleanor Nelson. Following the death of her mother, Mrs. J. Elmer Nelson, about eleven years ago, she went to make her home with, and has since been legally adopted by her father's sister and husband, Judge and Mrs. A. P. Stolberg, of St. Paul, Minn. This is her first visit home since that time and she has been the center of much entertaining.

REBEKAH MEETING IS HELD AT GLENDALE GLENDALE, July 22.—The local Rebekah lodge held its regular meeting Thursday evening, which included the initiating of five candidates: Scott Winchell, Mrs. Pirley Winkelman, Ora Miller, Bert Downey and Al Jackson.

An enjoyable program was given under the direction of Mrs. George C. Dyer. Visitors were welcomed from Longview, Wash., Roseburg and Canyonville. Mrs. Fred Cornell, of Roseburg, and Mrs. Bert Gilman, of Springfield, who have been members of the Glendale lodge for twenty-five years, were each presented with the 25-year jewel. Mrs. Joe Jones, a charter member of the local order, made the presentation. After the closing, refreshments were served in the banquet hall.

STUNG BY RUSE MILLERSBURG, O., July 23.—(AP)—When Sheriff Harry L. Fire was brought to water when the Augusta fire department couldn't get water to the fire. The firemen found a freight car loaded with 56 bales of cotton bales abeam on the Augusta bell line outside the city limits and beyond reach of the department's hose. A railroad switch engine crew moved the flaming car within range of the fire box. The blaze was extinguished quickly.

SHE MAY BE RIGHT. KANSAS CITY, Kas., July 23.—(AP)—Mrs. Martha Meyers, 106, resident of the county home, came to town for the first time in 17 years to register for the primary. Said she: "A woman should be president of the United States because a woman has what it takes—good common sense."

WENDEL KIDNAPING CASE TO BE PROBED NEWARK, N. J., July 23.—(AP)—A federal grand jury decided today to investigate the Paul H. Wendel kidnaping case shortly after it was advised by United States Attorney John J. Quinn that it had jurisdiction. Wendel, former Trenton attorney, charged he was kidnaped in New York, tortured into making a false confession in the Lindbergh baby kidnaping, and then brought to New Jersey.

OLDEST LIVING O.S.C. GRADUATE STRICKEN CORVALLIS, July 23.—(AP)—Mrs. Mary H. White, oldest living graduate of Oregon State college in point of years since graduation, is seriously ill at her home south of Corvallis. She suffered a paralytic stroke recently and has failed to rally. She was graduated with the class of 1871, the second in the history of old Corvallis college, forerunner of Oregon State. She attended the commencement reunions here last June.

LOGGING TRUCK BADLY WRECKED A heavy logging truck belonging to Orville White of Drain was badly wrecked yesterday when the brakes failed to hold the heavily loaded vehicle on a steep hillside west of Drain. Ray White, driver, "halted out" and escaped unhurt before the heavy load of logs demolished the cab. The truck was towed to Roseburg by the Stephens Motor company to be repaired.

UMPQUA PARK MAN INJURED BY COW J. W. McConnell, aged resident of Umpqua park, suffered a six inch scalp wound and numerous bruises when he was attacked by a cow last night. He was knocked down and trampled by the animal when he went out to milk. He was taken to the office of Dr. C. B. Wade for treatment of his injuries.

NO FUNDS TO PAY LINDBERGH REWARD TRENTON, N. J., July 23.—(AP)—Governor Harold G. Hoffman has announced that Attorney General David T. Wilentz had notified him the reward of $25,000 offered by New Jersey for information leading to the solution of the Lindbergh baby kidnap-murder cannot be paid because no funds are available.

PUBLIC INVITED TO ATTEND DEDICATION AND PICNIC AT ELKTON SUNDAY

ELKTON, July 23.—Sunday July 26 there will be a picnic and dedication at Paradise creek, several miles below Elkton on the Drain-Reedsport highway.

This is being sponsored by the Sons and Daughters of Oregon Pioneers. A sandstone monument will be unveiled in honor of the "old stage drivers" who through all kinds of difficulties and hardships, kept the mail going and also transferred passengers, from Scottsburg to Drain. There will be a speaker for the morning, some history given, basket dinner, and the dedication and unveiling of the bronze plaque on the monument.

The afternoon will be spent in visiting and renewing old friendships. Everyone is invited to enjoy the day.

SWIMMING PARTY IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

GLENDALE, July 22.—A most enjoyable evening was had when Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dobyns were hosts for a swimming party, and wicker roast, honoring Mrs. H. D. Blair and children, who left for their home in Pomona, Calif., Wednesday.

Guests enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Dobyns' hospitality were Mrs. Blair and children, Carolyn and Edna, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Raess, Mrs. Laura Raess, Mrs. and Mrs. George Olinchuk, and children, Eldon and Alice, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dobyns, Miss Edna Humphrey, Gene Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Price and children, Betty and Winfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Dobyns and son, Billie.

LOVELY PARTY ENJOYED AT ILLIDGE HOME

GLENDALE, July 23.—Mrs. C. E. Illidge was a most gracious hostess to a small group of friends Wednesday afternoon at her home on Madrone Heights, complimenting her daughter Dorothy, of Portland, and Miss Eleanor Stolberg, of St. Paul, Minn. After luncheon, which was served at two o'clock, the afternoon was spent in visiting.

Besides the two honor guests, covers were laid for Mrs. S. K. Ingham of Oklawaha City, Mrs. Robert Knight of Seattle, and Mrs. Jno. McCulloch, Mrs. J. K. Howard, Mrs. C. W. Ingham of Glendale, and the hostess, Mrs. Illidge.

PUBLIC CARD PARTY TO BE HELD NEXT MONDAY EVENING

A very charming affair of the coming week is the public card party to be sponsored by St. Joseph's Catholic Sewing society at eight o'clock Monday evening, July 27, in the parish hall.

Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. R. B. Maddox and Miss Coletta Langenberg are in charge of this delightful social affair. Prizes will be awarded high score winners in contract bridge, five hundred and pinocle and a door prize will also be given. At the close of the card play, refreshments will be served by the committee.

TENNILE CLUB TO MEET JULY 28TH

TENNILE, July 23.—The Tennile Home Economics club will hold their next meeting on the last Tuesday in July, the 28th, in place of the first Tuesday in August, their regular meeting day, at the home of Mrs. Jack Parrott in Camas Valley. This is to be the Polynama party when gifts will be exchanged and all members are invited to be present.

P. N. G. CLUB TO HOLD PICNIC SUPPER AT AUSTINS FRIDAY NIGHT

All Past Noble Grand members and their families have been invited to enjoy a delightful 6:30 o'clock potluck picnic supper, Friday evening, July 24, at the Willam Austin place at Green. Members have been asked to bring a covered dish, their own dishes and silverware.

VAGRANT JAILED ON CHANGED CHARGE

Morals charges brought against the Raymond Faust in the justice court here were dismissed today and Faust was permitted to plead to a charge of vagrancy. He entered a plea of guilty. Lacking money to pay the fine of $25 imposed by Judge R. W. Marsters, he was ordered committed to the county jail.

CITY VISITORS

Mrs. Patchen and Mr. and Mrs. Kenney, of Drain, spent yesterday in town on business. Iver Erickson, of Lookingglass, was here attending to business for a few hours yesterday. Mrs. W. Waggoner and two children, of Oakland, spent yesterday in town on business.

Mrs. Edward Newton, of Willis creek, was here attending to business for a short time yesterday. Mrs. J. P. Williams, of Dillard, shopped and visited friends in town Wednesday. Mrs. Oscar Gorrell, of Oakland, was here shopping and visiting friends yesterday. Mrs. Viola Jennings, of Myrtle Creek, spent yesterday in this city on business.

Sidney Adams, of Oakland, was a business visitor in this city yesterday. Mrs. L. Bomer, of Willis creek, shopped and visited friends in town yesterday. Miss Boss Clough, of Canyonville, spent yesterday in town shopping and visiting. Mrs. Ida Bailey, of Canyonville, spent yesterday in this city shopping and visiting.

Address orders to News-Review Pattern Dept., Roseburg, Ore.

Local News

Working With Highway Crew

Erlend Bloomquist has accepted employment with the state highway crew. He formerly worked for the Dairy lunch.

Miss D. L. Houghtaling, WPA instructor at this camp, was operated on for appendicitis at Sacred Heart hospital, Medford, this past week.

Here Couple of Days

Walter Hayward, Boy Scout official from the Spokane office, was in Roseburg Tuesday and Wednesday attending to business.

Returns Home Today

Miss Jean Stubblefield left today for her home in Cottage Grove, after visiting here at the home of her aunt, Dr. Catherine A. Smith.

Returns to San Diego

Leslie Hoyt has returned to his home in San Diego, Calif., after spending the past few weeks here visiting at the A. J. Geddes home.

Attends to Business

Don Seely, sales manager for the Roseburg Home Appliance store, is spending a few days in Portland attending to the showing of new models in radios.

Vacationing

G. M. Krell, manager of the Western Auto Supply store here, and Mrs. Krell and son, Bobby, are spending a week vacationing near Steamboat on the North Umpqua.

Visiting Here

Mrs. Ralph Crawford and small daughter have arrived in Roseburg from Washington to visit the former's father, Walter Prinz. Mrs. Crawford was formerly Miss Mary Prinz of this city.

Back From Diamond Lake

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard and two daughters, Miss Charlotte and Miss Jeanne, have returned to their home on South Jackson street, after enjoying a week vacationing at Diamond Lake.

Back From Minnesota

Mrs. Ed Borgen and daughter, Wyona, and son, Dale, have returned to their home on Roberts street, after enjoying the past month at Kensington, Minnesota, visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tollefson.

Leaves for Portland

Miss Annabelle White left yesterday for her home in Portland, after spending the past couple of weeks visiting at the summer camp of Dr. and Mrs. Clair K. Allen at Winchester. Miss White is a niece of Mrs. Allen.

Stops Here Short Time

Mrs. H. W. Loeff, of Seattle, formerly of this city, stopped over here Tuesday for a short visit with Mrs. George Wharton on route to Grants Pass to visit her parents for a week or ten days. She plans to stop here again en route home.

Here Yesterday

Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Miller and daughter, Patricia, came to Roseburg yesterday from Dillard. Miss Patricia went on to Winchester to spend the next few days as the guest of Miss Carolyn Allen at the Dr. Clair K. Allen summer camp.

Enters Hospital

Orville Willis, resident of Riddle, was brought to Mercy hospital last night by the Roseburg Ambulance company and is reported in a very serious condition as the result of infection. The infection started from a splinter and has involved the entire arm.

Leave for Convention

Miss Violet Rose, delegate from the Young Peoples group of the M. E. church, South, and Mrs. Fred L. Southwick left this morning for La Grande to attend the state convention. They plan to stop over in Prineville for a short visit with Miss Rose's brother. They will be gone about 12 days.

Elected to Lions

Harold Fickenscher, of the local office of the U. S. weather bureau, was elected to membership in the Roseburg Lions club at its regular meeting last night. Phil Harth, president, who returned this week from a vacation trip, presided. Robert Franks, Safeway store manager, was present as a guest.

Building Garage—Frank Long is having a new garage built on his place at 513 Court street.

At Hospital—James Ewart, of this city, is a patient at Mercy hospital.

Fountain Installed—A new drinking fountain has been installed this week in the lobby of Hunt's Indian theatre.

Goes to Portland—Robert Helliwell drove to Portland yesterday to spend a short time attending to business.

Applies for Bounty—Nelson McKee, of Astoria, applied to County Clerk Roy Agee yesterday for bounty on a coyote.

Mrs. Templeton Home—Mrs. Clara Templeton has returned to her home in this city, after visiting in Seattle.

Visiting Sister—Mrs. Minerva Smith, of Portland, is at Mistletoe farm visiting her sister, Mrs. George Campbell.

Here on Business—J. Parker, of the state highway department at Salem, is here for a few days attending to business.

Go to Washington—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Laurance and son, Hayden, left Wednesday for Pasco, Wash., to visit for a week.

Visiting From Los Angeles—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones, of Los Angeles, have arrived at Mistletoe farm to visit Mrs. George Campbell.

Back From Alaskan Trip—Miss Frances Hardy, of Ashland, a Roseburg high school teacher, has just returned from her trip to Alaska and is spending a few days in this city visiting friends.

Visiting Parents—Bob Coen, student at the U. of O. medical school in Portland, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Coen, and two brothers, Frank and R. D. Coen.

Goes to Tacoma—Rev. S. Raynor Smith, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in this city, has left for Tacoma to attend the School of the Prophets. He will be back a week from today.

Back From California—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Catching and daughter, Miss Helen Marie, have returned to their home in this city, after spending several days vacationing in San Francisco and other California points of interest.

Visiting Here—The Messes Mess, sisters of W. J. Mess of this city, are here from Canada visiting. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mess and two daughters and Mr. Mess' two sisters plan to go to Bandon for the weekend.

Vacationing—Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Cooper are spending several days vacationing on the McKenzie. Mrs. Cooper is employed in the district attorney's office, and Mr. Cooper works at the Shell Oil station at the corner of Jackson and Douglas streets.

Goes to Vancouver—Dr. D. H. Hubar has left for Vancouver, B. C., to attend to business for a few days. He plans to be back in Roseburg Friday. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Gay Hubar, who stopped over in Tacoma to visit Miss Mildred Ziegler, formerly of this city.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wickham, of Halsey, spent Tuesday here visiting the former's mother, Mrs. C. H. Wickham; his two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Deets and Mrs. Hugh Whipple, and his brother, Franklin Wickham. They are also visiting this week at Wilbur with Mrs. Wickham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Parker.

Working at Sandwich Shop—Darrell Corbin has accepted employment at the Sandwich shop.

Back From Vacation—George Braughton has returned to his home after spending a week vacationing.

Return Home—A. A. Abraham, of this city, took Mrs. M. E. Shupe and daughter, Miss Margaret, and Miss Elizabeth Abraham, back to their homes in Corvallis this week and returned here Tuesday evening. Mrs. Shupe and Miss Margaret visited Miss Alice Mann and Mrs. Lillie Plaster while in this city. Miss Elizabeth Abraham is a sister of Mr. Abraham and a former resident of Roseburg.

Stop Here Yesterday—Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ogle, of Portland, stopped over in Roseburg for a short visit with friends yesterday en route home from a vacation spent in California. They returned north from California to Medford via the coast and Redwood highway. At Medford they visited Mr. Ogle's brother, Everett Ogle, who was formerly with the Union Oil company in this city, before going to Portland to make his home.

Visiting Relatives—Miss Adah Marie Ruhl, who attended school here this past year and made her home with Miss Ila Laubach on South Stephens street, is now visiting her uncle, Sydney L. Gross, at Malcom, Iowa, and with her mother, Mrs. L. W. Ruhl, and sister, Miss Ruth Anne, Adah Marie's father was formerly a captain in the CCC camp near Roseburg and when he was transferred back to the middlewest with his family, she returned here last fall to attend the Roseburg school.

Visiting From Los Angeles—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones, of Los Angeles, have arrived at Mistletoe farm to visit Mrs. George Campbell.

Back From Alaskan Trip—Miss Frances Hardy, of Ashland, a Roseburg high school teacher, has just returned from her trip to Alaska and is spending a few days in this city visiting friends.

Visiting Parents—Bob Coen, student at the U. of O. medical school in Portland, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Coen, and two brothers, Frank and R. D. Coen.

Goes to Tacoma—Rev. S. Raynor Smith, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in this city, has left for Tacoma to attend the School of the Prophets. He will be back a week from today.

Back From California—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Catching and daughter, Miss Helen Marie, have returned to their home in this city, after spending several days vacationing in San Francisco and other California points of interest.

Visiting Here—The Messes Mess, sisters of W. J. Mess of this city, are here from Canada visiting. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mess and two daughters and Mr. Mess' two sisters plan to go to Bandon for the weekend.

Vacationing—Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Cooper are spending several days vacationing on the McKenzie. Mrs. Cooper is employed in the district attorney's office, and Mr. Cooper works at the Shell Oil station at the corner of Jackson and Douglas streets.

Goes to Vancouver—Dr. D. H. Hubar has left for Vancouver, B. C., to attend to business for a few days. He plans to be back in Roseburg Friday. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Gay Hubar, who stopped over in Tacoma to visit Miss Mildred Ziegler, formerly of this city.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wickham, of Halsey, spent Tuesday here visiting the former's mother, Mrs. C. H. Wickham; his two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Deets and Mrs. Hugh Whipple, and his brother, Franklin Wickham. They are also visiting this week at Wilbur with Mrs. Wickham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Parker.

Working at Sandwich Shop—Darrell Corbin has accepted employment at the Sandwich shop.

Back From Vacation—George Braughton has returned to his home after spending a week vacationing.

Return Home—A. A. Abraham, of this city, took Mrs. M. E. Shupe and daughter, Miss Margaret, and Miss Elizabeth Abraham, back to their homes in Corvallis this week and returned here Tuesday evening. Mrs. Shupe and Miss Margaret visited Miss Alice Mann and Mrs. Lillie Plaster while in this city. Miss Elizabeth Abraham is a sister of Mr. Abraham and a former resident of Roseburg.

Stop Here Yesterday—Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ogle, of Portland, stopped over in Roseburg for a short visit with friends yesterday en route home from a vacation spent in California. They returned north from California to Medford via the coast and Redwood highway. At Medford they visited Mr. Ogle's brother, Everett Ogle, who was formerly with the Union Oil company in this city, before going to Portland to make his home.

Visiting Relatives—Miss Adah Marie Ruhl, who attended school here this past year and made her home with Miss Ila Laubach on South Stephens street, is now visiting her uncle, Sydney L. Gross, at Malcom, Iowa, and with her mother, Mrs. L. W. Ruhl, and sister, Miss Ruth Anne, Adah Marie's father was formerly a captain in the CCC camp near Roseburg and when he was transferred back to the middlewest with his family, she returned here last fall to attend the Roseburg school.

Visiting From Los Angeles—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones, of Los Angeles, have arrived at Mistletoe farm to visit Mrs. George Campbell.

Back From Alaskan Trip—Miss Frances Hardy, of Ashland, a Roseburg high school teacher, has just returned from her trip to Alaska and is spending a few days in this city visiting friends.

Visiting Parents—Bob Coen, student at the U. of O. medical school in Portland, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Coen, and two brothers, Frank and R. D. Coen.

Goes to Tacoma—Rev. S. Raynor Smith, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in this city, has left for Tacoma to attend the School of the Prophets. He will be back a week from today.

Back From California—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Catching and daughter, Miss Helen Marie, have returned to their home in this city, after spending several days vacationing in San Francisco and other California points of interest.

Visiting Here—The Messes Mess, sisters of W. J. Mess of this city, are here from Canada visiting. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mess and two daughters and Mr. Mess' two sisters plan to go to Bandon for the weekend.

Vacationing—Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Cooper are spending several days vacationing on the McKenzie. Mrs. Cooper is employed in the district attorney's office, and Mr. Cooper works at the Shell Oil station at the corner of Jackson and Douglas streets.

Goes to Vancouver—Dr. D. H. Hubar has left for Vancouver, B. C., to attend to business for a few days. He plans to be back in Roseburg Friday. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Gay Hubar, who stopped over in Tacoma to visit Miss Mildred Ziegler, formerly of this city.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wickham, of Halsey, spent Tuesday here visiting the former's mother, Mrs. C. H. Wickham; his two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Deets and Mrs. Hugh Whipple, and his brother, Franklin Wickham. They are also visiting this week at Wilbur with Mrs. Wickham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Parker.

Working at Sandwich Shop—Darrell Corbin has accepted employment at the Sandwich shop.

Back From Vacation—George Braughton has returned to his home after spending a week vacationing.

Return Home—A. A. Abraham, of this city, took Mrs. M. E. Shupe and daughter, Miss Margaret, and Miss Elizabeth Abraham, back to their homes in Corvallis this week and returned here Tuesday evening. Mrs. Shupe and Miss Margaret visited Miss Alice Mann and Mrs. Lillie Plaster while in this city. Miss Elizabeth Abraham is a sister of Mr. Abraham and a former resident of Roseburg.

Stop Here Yesterday—Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ogle, of Portland, stopped over in Roseburg for a short visit with friends yesterday en route home from a vacation spent in California. They returned north from California to Medford via the coast and Redwood highway. At Medford they visited Mr. Ogle's brother, Everett Ogle, who was formerly with the Union Oil company in this city, before going to Portland to make his home.

Visiting Relatives—Miss Adah Marie Ruhl, who attended school here this past year and made her home with Miss Ila Laubach on South Stephens street, is now visiting her uncle, Sydney L. Gross, at Malcom, Iowa, and with her mother, Mrs. L. W. Ruhl, and sister, Miss Ruth Anne, Adah Marie's father was formerly a captain in the CCC camp near Roseburg and when he was transferred back to the middlewest with his family, she returned here last fall to attend the Roseburg school.

Visiting From Los Angeles—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones, of Los Angeles, have arrived at Mistletoe farm to visit Mrs. George Campbell.

Back From Alaskan Trip—Miss Frances Hardy, of Ashland, a Roseburg high school teacher, has just returned from her trip to Alaska and is spending a few days in this city visiting friends.

Visiting Parents—Bob Coen, student at the U. of O. medical school in Portland, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Coen, and two brothers, Frank and R. D. Coen.

Goes to Tacoma—Rev. S. Raynor Smith, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in this city, has left for Tacoma to attend the School of the Prophets. He will be back a week from today.

Back From California—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Catching and daughter, Miss Helen Marie, have returned to their home in this city, after spending several days vacationing in San Francisco and other California points of interest.

Visiting Here—The Messes Mess, sisters of W. J. Mess of this city, are here from Canada visiting. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mess and two daughters and Mr. Mess' two sisters plan to go to Bandon for the weekend.

Advertisement for NORGE Concentrator Gas Range. Features include: Full Body Frame Construction, One-Piece Top Panel, Divided Drip Pans, Broiler, Smokeless Plate Broiler, Level Slide Oven Racks, Combination Oven Valve and Heat Regulator with Automatic Oven Lighter, Measured Time Clock or Fully Automatic Clock, Choice of Four Color Combinations. Text: 'Only the Norge Concentrator Gas Range has all these features...yet you'll not want to do without one of them'

Advertisement for Radio Music Store. Text: 'Radio Music Store GROSS AND HARGIS 225 N. Jackson St. Phone 93'. Includes a small image of a radio.

Large advertisement for the movie 'The New Frontier' starring Gary Cooper and Jean Arthur. Text: 'STARTS TODAY FOR 3 GLORIOUS DAYS! Hold Your Sides! Here's the Biggest Laugh Hit of the Year. A grand new—brand new gay—romantic comedy! IT'LL EVERY PIXILATE EVERYONE. GARY COOPER and JEAN ARTHUR. Mrs. Deeds Goes to Town. Shows 1:30-7:9 P. M. Mats. 25c, Eves. 35c, Children 10c'. Includes images of the lead actors.

Advertisement for 'Port of Lost Dreams' by Wm. Boyd and Lola Lane. Text: 'Today Only "Port of Lost Dreams" Wm. Boyd and Lola Lane Coming Friday Western Action!'. Includes a small image of the movie poster.

Advertisement for 'Practically a Cripple' shoes. Text: 'ACHING FEET with Agonizing'. Includes an image of a foot in a shoe.

Advertisement for 'Anne Adams' pattern book. Text: '2535 Anne Adams HOUSE AND RUN-ABOUT FROCK IS SUITED TO BUSY DAYS PATTERN 2535 by Anne Adams'. Includes an image of a woman in a dress.

Advertisement for 'Sport Shirts'. Text: 'Sport Shirts For hot weather and vacation time. Solid colors and fancy patterns in nice cool rayon and cotton lisle materials. $1.00'. Includes an image of a man in a shirt.

Advertisement for 'HARTH'S Oddities Gleaned From Day's News'. Text: 'Custom in Reverse. AUGUSTA, Ga., July 23.—(AP)—Fire was brought to water when the Augusta fire department couldn't get water to the fire. The firemen found a freight car loaded with 56 bales of cotton bales abeam on the Augusta bell line outside the city limits and beyond reach of the department's hose. A railroad switch engine crew moved the flaming car within range of the fire box. The blaze was extinguished quickly.' Includes an image of a fire scene.

Advertisement for 'Today's Pattern'. Text: '2535 Anne Adams HOUSE AND RUN-ABOUT FROCK IS SUITED TO BUSY DAYS PATTERN 2535 by Anne Adams'. Includes an image of a woman in a dress.

Advertisement for 'WENDEL KIDNAPING CASE TO BE PROBED'. Text: 'NEWARK, N. J., July 23.—(AP)—A federal grand jury decided today to investigate the Paul H. Wendel kidnaping case shortly after it was advised by United States Attorney John J. Quinn that it had jurisdiction. Wendel, former Trenton attorney, charged he was kidnaped in New York, tortured into making a false confession in the Lindbergh baby kidnaping, and then brought to New Jersey.' Includes an image of a man.

Advertisement for 'OLDEST LIVING O.S.C. GRADUATE STRICKEN'. Text: 'CORVALLIS, July 23.—(AP)—Mrs. Mary H. White, oldest living graduate of Oregon State college in point of years since graduation, is seriously ill at her home south of Corvallis. She suffered a paralytic stroke recently and has failed to rally. She was graduated with the class of 1871, the second in the history of old Corvallis college, forerunner of Oregon State. She attended the commencement reunions here last June.' Includes an image of a woman.

Advertisement for 'LOGGING TRUCK BADLY WRECKED'. Text: 'A heavy logging truck belonging to Orville White of Drain was badly wrecked yesterday when the brakes failed to hold the heavily loaded vehicle on a steep hillside west of Drain. Ray White, driver, "halted out" and escaped unhurt before the heavy load of logs demolished the cab. The truck was towed to Roseburg by the Stephens Motor company to be repaired.' Includes an image of a logging truck.

Advertisement for 'UMPQUA PARK MAN INJURED BY COW'. Text: 'J. W. McConnell, aged resident of Umpqua park, suffered a six inch scalp wound and numerous bruises when he was attacked by a cow last night. He was knocked down and trampled by the animal when he went out to milk. He was taken to the office of Dr. C. B. Wade for treatment of his injuries.' Includes an image of a cow.