U. S. V. HOSPITAL

By Ottilia K. Ashton
Our July birthday party was held Wednesday evening in the recreation building with Mrs. Irving Riegel acting as hostess. Those parties being sponsored by the state department of the American Legion auxiliary. Large vases of geraniums added much color to the occasion. The game of monopoly was played until Elmer Morgan had most of the property in his possession and most of the money.

A very happy evening was brought to a close with the serving of ice cream and individual birthday cakes. Printed invitations, graced with the American Legion auxiliary emblem, were extended to the following men having birthdays in July: Howard M. Bailey, Joseph Cardwell, Lewis Carter, Howard Hobbs, Edward Rouneau, George Small, Owen Wolfe, Charles Carman, Wesley Gordon, E. B. Hughes, Oscar Lewis, Gus Magnusson, Minner Mayfield and Elmer Morgan.

An unexpected but delightful surprise came Wednesday evening in the appearance of the Justice Elks band of Portland on their return trip from Los Angeles, Calif. Their concert was presented in front of the hospital where all could hear and was greatly appreciated by everyone.

Twelve pillows with removable bright colored covers were presented by the state department of the U. S. V. auxiliary for use in our lounging room in the new recreational building. The covers were made by Mrs. Ruth Schaeffer, state hospital chairman.

With the help of Mrs. Riegel of the American Legion auxiliary we have been operating several mopeds in the hospital for the patients who are unable to visit the recreational building, with the result that the "boys" play until the lights are turned out.
