

News of Douglas County

MYRTLE CREEK

MYRTLE CREEK, July 23.—Mrs. Eleanor Golden, of Portland, is visiting here with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Bates, and granddaughters, Marjorie and Dorothy Bates. Mrs. Golden arrived Friday and expects to remain through the most of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Browning returned Saturday from a visit to Mrs. Browning's brother, J. E. Dunnavin, and wife, at Cottage Grove and to other relatives and friends at College Place, Wash., and Coeur d'Alene, Ida.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Lacy left Sunday for a pleasure trip up the Markenzie river and on into the lake region in the Cascades.

Dr. John P. Wilson returned Sunday from San Francisco, where he attended the American dental convention, held in that city last week.

Mrs. Naomi Burke spent last week visiting in Myrtle Creek. Mrs. Burke and her brother, John Whitsett, recently bought a home in Grants Pass, and she returned there Monday, accompanied by her son, Lloyd Roberts, and family.

The Masonic picnic held at Dunnavin's grove on Lees creek Sunday, was well attended and was a most enjoyable affair. Games and sports engaged the younger crowd, and the older people enjoying visiting with friends, many having been separated for a long time. Three large freezers of ice cream supplemented the abundant dinner and everybody went home feeling that the picnic was a decided success in every detail.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rice arrived from Redmond, Sunday, and are moving into the Rice house on Hill street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stearns visited with Mrs. Stearns' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dearliff, at Drain Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Stearns' sister, Miss Dessie Dearliff, was also present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dunnavin, of Portland, are visiting here with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Bates, and granddaughters, Marjorie and Dorothy Bates. Mrs. Dunnavin arrived Friday and expects to remain through the most of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Lacy left Sunday for a pleasure trip up the Markenzie river and on into the lake region in the Cascades.

Dr. John P. Wilson returned Sunday from San Francisco, where he attended the American dental convention, held in that city last week.

Mrs. Naomi Burke spent last week visiting in Myrtle Creek. Mrs. Burke and her brother, John Whitsett, recently bought a home in Grants Pass, and she returned there Monday, accompanied by her son, Lloyd Roberts, and family.

The Masonic picnic held at Dunnavin's grove on Lees creek Sunday, was well attended and was a most enjoyable affair. Games and sports engaged the younger crowd, and the older people enjoying visiting with friends, many having been separated for a long time. Three large freezers of ice cream supplemented the abundant dinner and everybody went home feeling that the picnic was a decided success in every detail.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rice arrived from Redmond, Sunday, and are moving into the Rice house on Hill street.

Perfection in Scout Physique

Henry McMaster, 14 (left), was adjudged winner, and Francis Mazejko, 16 (right), second in the New York Boy Scout Foundation's contest for the most perfectly developed boy between the ages of 12 and 16. They are shown with their trophies.

Behind the Scenes in Filmdom

This excellent photo behind the scenes in filmdom shows the casting director of a leading film company in the process of selecting chorines for a forthcoming musical comedy. One of the requirements is that the candidates pass a strict movie test showing whether they screen in the desired manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis and son made the trip to Crater lake Sunday, returning by way of Klamath Falls.

Ray and Mrs. A. J. Brown and daughter Phyllis and son Alan, and Miss Esther Olson, of Wolf Point, Montana, are visiting at the R. M. Eberle and Ira Lewis homes. Mrs. Brown will be remembered as Miss Mabel Eberle.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morey and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller were Grants Pass visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Henninger and son Larry attended the Red and White stores convention and picnic at Bandon Sunday.

Mrs. C. E. Austin and Mrs. Alice Redfield were Grants Pass business callers Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morey and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lindsey and family enjoyed a picnic dinner, including a chicken roast, Sunday up Cow creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Nye and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Price and children attended the baseball games between the Klamath Falls Red Sox and Grants Pass Merchants at Grants Pass Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Olson have as their house guest Mr. Olson's nephew, Olat Lee, of Kennerly, North Dakota. Mr. Lee expects to make an extended visit as he has not seen Mr. Olson since he was a child.

Mrs. G. Ashman and children returned Saturday from a two weeks visit with relatives in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hamborne were Grants Pass visitors Monday. J. R. Stevenson returned Saturday from Santa Rosa, California, where he visited his wife who is confined to the hospital there following an automobile accident. Mrs. Stevenson is improving rapidly and expects to return to Grants Pass within the next two weeks.

Mrs. Florence Corum and brother Victor of Berkeley, California, are visiting relatives and friends here for a few days. Both are former students of the Glendale high school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Raess had as their dinner guests Saturday, Mrs. Earl Jardene and son Dickie, and Mrs. Carl Madison of Tacoma, Mr. Jardine and Mr. Madison have the contract for electric wiring of the new federal building in Grant Pass. Mrs. Madison is Mrs. Raess' niece.

Local News

Goed to Portland—Miss Thelma Morey, employee at Carl's Tavern, left today for Portland to spend the week-end visiting friends.

At Harris Home—Mrs. Charles Barnhardt, of Charlott, N. C. arrived here Friday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Harris on South Main street.

Vacation at Bandon—W. M. Campbell, city school superintendent, and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, and son, McAffee, spent this week vacationing at Bandon.

Visiting Here—Miss Desale Dearliff, of San Francisco, and Miss Kate Dearliff, of Oakland, are both guests of Mrs. Wallace McDonald in this city this week.

Coquille Visitors Here—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Starmer, of Coquille, are visiting here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Starmer, and other relatives and friends.

San Francisco Visitors Here—Mrs. Ben McNamee and son, of San Francisco, are visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Wharton, at the Wharton summer camp on the North Umpqua.

Undergoes Minor Operation—Miss Jean Manning, daughter of J. R. Manning of Oakland, underwent a minor throat operation yesterday with Dr. A. C. Seely in charge.

Return to Days Creek—Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Dean and son, John, have returned to their home in Days Creek, after enjoying a ten-day automobile trip through Washington, Idaho and Montana.

Arrive From Marshfield—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Swegel, of Marshfield, arrived here today to spend the week-end visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Black, and another daughter, Mrs. Lillian Grender.

Return to Medford—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peck have left for their home in Medford, after spending the past several days in this city visiting friends and attending to business.

Returns to Portland—Kenneth Clark, who was recently appointed district manager of the Pontiac Motor company with headquarters in Portland, returned north yesterday, after coming to Roseburg Thursday for a short visit with his family.

Goed to Bandon—Mrs. Thomas Parkinson has left for Bandon to spend the week-end with her sister and brother, Miss Mary and Albert Sala, and Miss Nell McDonald, all of Springfield, Ill., who are at the coast for the week.

Visiting on West Lane—Mrs. Earl E. Rider and daughter, Miss Lucile, of Portland, have arrived in this city to spend several weeks at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Rose on West Lane street.

Return Home—Mrs. J. E. Clougherty and daughters, Elizabeth and Joanne, left today for their home at Crescent Lake, Ore., after spending the past several weeks in this city visiting the former's mother, Mrs. S. L. Dillard, and brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard.

Leaves for Yakima—Roy Pettley, of this city, left today for Yakima, Wash., to bring Mrs. Pettley and children back to their home in Roseburg tomorrow. Mrs. Pettley and children have been spending the past month at Yakima visiting relatives.

Lotus Flower Blooming—The largest of the lotus lilies in the pond at the C. A. Brand place on the North Pacific highway near Winchester is now blooming. The lily is unusually beautiful this year and those desiring to see it in full bloom have been asked to call at the stand during the daylight hours, as the lily closes as the sun goes down.

Attend Game in Eugene—Judge Carl E. Wimberly and two sons, Carl Jr. and Leland Kent, Fred Radigan, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Crouch and two sons, George and Everett, Marshall Hunt, Mrs. Roy Young and son, Randall, Mrs. Ward Cummings and George Ames were among the Roseburgers attending the Eugene-Roseburg baseball game yesterday at Eugene.

Ohio Visitors Go to Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Brown and two daughters, Phyllis and Frances, of Mansfield, Ohio, have left for Portland to visit relatives and friends, after spending the past two weeks here visiting the former's two sisters, Mrs. Harold McKay on West First street, and Mrs. Kenneth Quinn on South Jackson street, and relatives and friends at Wilbur.

Here on Business—Ralph Smith, of Marshfield was a business visitor in this city this week.

Called to Eugene—Miss Martha Perry was called to Eugene yesterday by the illness of her niece.

Back From Klamath Falls—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard are back from a business trip to Klamath Falls.

Back From Portland—Miss Agnes Pitchford, Douglas county juvenile officer, returned here last night from a business trip to Portland. While in Portland Miss Pitchford called at Emanuel hospital to see Mildred Andrus Robertson, who recently underwent a serious operation there.

Returns Home—Mrs. Irene Elliott left today for her home in Portland, after spending her vacation in this city visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Wells. While here she enjoyed a trip with Mr. and Mrs. Wells to the coast and back.

Visits at Darby Home—Miss Vernie Marie Paul, of Hollywood, Calif., who is spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Paul, on South Deer creek, spent a couple of days this week in Roseburg visiting Miss Mary Ellen Darby at the H. C. Darby home on North Jackson street.

Leave on Vacation—B. C. Elliott, assistant manager of the local J. C. Penney store, and Mrs. Elliott and daughter, Norma Jean, are leaving this evening on their vacation to be spent at Astoria, Ore., visiting relatives in Portland and at various points in eastern Oregon.

Leave for Portland—T. H. Reeves, manager of the Western States Wholesale Grocers in this city, and Mrs. Reeves and twin sons, Teddy and Freddy, left this morning for Portland, where the former will attend a district meeting of managers and Mrs. Reeves and sons will visit relatives over the week-end.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Expected Here Tonight—Mrs. C. S. Heinline, who has been in Portland the past two months with Mr. Heinline, spent today in Salem, where she had charge of leading the singing at the state republican picnic at the McNary farm. Mrs. Heinline is expected to arrive in Roseburg this evening to spend a few days attending to business, before returning to Portland.

Heads New Bureau

Otto Jabelmann, assistant general superintendent of motive power and machinery of the Union Pacific Railroad, will head the newly created Research Bureau of that railroad.

Here This Morning—Mrs. Leslie Hatfield of Shady Nook, Glendale, spent Saturday in Roseburg.

Mr. Chenoweth Here—S. J. Chenoweth of Oakland, was in Roseburg today attending to business.

Back From Yellowstone—Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker and two sons, Sam, Jr., and Bob, have returned to their home on East Lane street, after enjoying a vacation at Yellowstone national park.

String Beans Presented—E. D. Lewis, who resides on Pine street, presented a plant of McAllister string beans to the Roseburg News-Review office yesterday. The beans, which are stringless, are a cross between the Kentucky Wonder and Case Knife beans and are unusually large. Mr. Lewis sells the beans to various local stores.

Miss Pinkerton Leaves—Miss Vera Pinkerton left Thursday for Portland to resume her nurse's training course at the Multnomah county hospital, after spending her two weeks vacation visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pinkerton, on Roberts creek, her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hatfield, on South Deer creek, and her sister, Miss Lucy Pinkerton, on East Douglas street.

Mrs. Donnelly Here—Mrs. J. G. Donnelly, who with her husband, Dr. Donnelly, has been vacationing the past week at Vancouver, B. C., arrived here Thursday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bricker, while Dr. Donnelly went on to Lake Tahkenitch to fish. The Donnellys, now located at San Francisco, formerly resided at the veterans facility post in Roseburg. Dr. Donnelly plans to come here to join his wife next week-end.

Blaskys Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blasky returned to their home on 925 Prospect street last evening from Missoula, Montana. Mrs. Blasky has been visiting her son, W. Lucas, who is working at Missoula.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sherry of Coats, Meas, California, were in town Thursday on their vacation trip. They are looking for a location in Oregon, and while in Roseburg visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred McIntee of South Deer creek.

Return Home—Mrs. A. W. Wampole and son, Roy, have returned to their home in this city, after spending the past month on the McKenzie river and at Miller lake. They were accompanied home by Miss Patty Cool, of Drain, and the three left yesterday for Glendale to spend a few days visiting.

Visiting at Morgan Home—Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dow and Misses Ethel and Erma Dow of Badaxe, Michigan, arrived Wednesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morgan of Roseburg. They came to Oregon by motor and visited in California and the Grand Canyon en route. Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Morgan took their guests on a trip to Crater lake and back.

Miss Pinkerton Leaves—Miss Vera Pinkerton left Thursday for Portland to resume her nurse's training course at the Multnomah county hospital, after spending her two weeks vacation visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pinkerton, on Roberts creek, her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hatfield, on South Deer creek, and her sister, Miss Lucy Pinkerton, on East Douglas street.

Mrs. Donnelly Here—Mrs. J. G. Donnelly, who with her husband, Dr. Donnelly, has been vacationing the past week at Vancouver, B. C., arrived here Thursday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bricker, while Dr. Donnelly went on to Lake Tahkenitch to fish. The Donnellys, now located at San Francisco, formerly resided at the veterans facility post in Roseburg. Dr. Donnelly plans to come here to join his wife next week-end.

Blaskys Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blasky returned to their home on 925 Prospect street last evening from Missoula, Montana. Mrs. Blasky has been visiting her son, W. Lucas, who is working at Missoula.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sherry of Coats, Meas, California, were in town Thursday on their vacation trip. They are looking for a location in Oregon, and while in Roseburg visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred McIntee of South Deer creek.

Return Home—Mrs. A. W. Wampole and son, Roy, have returned to their home in this city, after spending the past month on the McKenzie river and at Miller lake. They were accompanied home by Miss Patty Cool, of Drain, and the three left yesterday for Glendale to spend a few days visiting.

Visiting at Morgan Home—Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dow and Misses Ethel and Erma Dow of Badaxe, Michigan, arrived Wednesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morgan of Roseburg. They came to Oregon by motor and visited in California and the Grand Canyon en route. Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Morgan took their guests on a trip to Crater lake and back.

Miss Pinkerton Leaves—Miss Vera Pinkerton left Thursday for Portland to resume her nurse's training course at the Multnomah county hospital, after spending her two weeks vacation visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pinkerton, on Roberts creek, her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hatfield, on South Deer creek, and her sister, Miss Lucy Pinkerton, on East Douglas street.

Mrs. Donnelly Here—Mrs. J. G. Donnelly, who with her husband, Dr. Donnelly, has been vacationing the past week at Vancouver, B. C., arrived here Thursday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bricker, while Dr. Donnelly went on to Lake Tahkenitch to fish. The Donnellys, now located at San Francisco, formerly resided at the veterans facility post in Roseburg. Dr. Donnelly plans to come here to join his wife next week-end.

Blaskys Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blasky returned to their home on 925 Prospect street last evening from Missoula, Montana. Mrs. Blasky has been visiting her son, W. Lucas, who is working at Missoula.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sherry of Coats, Meas, California, were in town Thursday on their vacation trip. They are looking for a location in Oregon, and while in Roseburg visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred McIntee of South Deer creek.

Return Home—Mrs. A. W. Wampole and son, Roy, have returned to their home in this city, after spending the past month on the McKenzie river and at Miller lake. They were accompanied home by Miss Patty Cool, of Drain, and the three left yesterday for Glendale to spend a few days visiting.

Visiting at Morgan Home—Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dow and Misses Ethel and Erma Dow of Badaxe, Michigan, arrived Wednesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morgan of Roseburg. They came to Oregon by motor and visited in California and the Grand Canyon en route. Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Morgan took their guests on a trip to Crater lake and back.

Miss Pinkerton Leaves—Miss Vera Pinkerton left Thursday for Portland to resume her nurse's training course at the Multnomah county hospital, after spending her two weeks vacation visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pinkerton, on Roberts creek, her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hatfield, on South Deer creek, and her sister, Miss Lucy Pinkerton, on East Douglas street.

Mrs. Donnelly Here—Mrs. J. G. Donnelly, who with her husband, Dr. Donnelly, has been vacationing the past week at Vancouver, B. C., arrived here Thursday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bricker, while Dr. Donnelly went on to Lake Tahkenitch to fish. The Donnellys, now located at San Francisco, formerly resided at the veterans facility post in Roseburg. Dr. Donnelly plans to come here to join his wife next week-end.

Blaskys Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blasky returned to their home on 925 Prospect street last evening from Missoula, Montana. Mrs. Blasky has been visiting her son, W. Lucas, who is working at Missoula.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sherry of Coats, Meas, California, were in town Thursday on their vacation trip. They are looking for a location in Oregon, and while in Roseburg visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred McIntee of South Deer creek.

Today's Pattern

FLATTERING FROCK IN LINE FOR NEXT-SEASON POPULARITY. PATTERN 4056

Would you like a sparkling, new frock—a gay bit of flattery to take you brightly through all the busy days of mid-season activity? What woman wouldn't? So Anne Adams has planned this charming model for you to stitch up easily—a frock within reach of the smallest budget! Make one version with short, slashed yoke-sleeves in a bright printed silk or cotton for immediate wear—and another frock (with long puff sleeves) of matisalee or bright sheer wool crepe for crisp autumn days! You'll love the soft flattery of the dainty bow at the V-neck, and the grace of the slightly flared skirt.

Pattern 4056 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 takes 2 1/2 yards 29 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15 in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number.

BE SURE TO STATE SIZE. Be sure to order four copy of our ANNE ADAMS PATTERN BOOK! See all the cool, lovely clothes you need for summer fun—pictured in smart, simple models that are even fun to make! Perky house dresses and play outfits. Fetching frocks for parties. The latest slenderizing designs for stouts. Practical models for children. Advice on fabrics and sewing. BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. PATTERN FIFTEEN CENTS. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS FOR BOTH WHEN ORDERED TOGETHER.

Address order to News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Ore.

VITAL STATISTICS

MARRIAGE LICENSES—GEORGE HENSHOBSON—George A. Stephens, Myrtle Creek and Odessa Hobson, Oakland, California.

KOVAR-COOK—Harold Frank Kovar and Isabelle Cook, both residents of Oakland, Ore.

WILLIAMS-THOMAS—Charles B. Williams, Sutherlin, and Grace Thomas, Drain.

Here Today—Victor Short, of Drew, was a business visitor in this city today.

MARKETS

WHEAT—Open High Low Close July 91 91 91 91 Sept. 90 90 90 90 Dec. 90 90 90 90

Cash wheat: Big Bend bluestem, 13 per cent $1.09, 12 per cent $1.03, 11 per cent $0.97. Soft white, western white, northern spring, hard winter, and western red, 90c.

WOOL—BOSTON, July 23.—The Commercial Bulletin today says: "There is a little more activity in some directions but at the new low price level. Not all the manufacturers are getting business, however, and those who are taking on a little in goods, yarns and tops, do not find it altogether easy to cover their requirements on the lower price level. Holders of wool are fairly firm."

"In the west there is scattered activity, especially in Texas and Montana, with prices little changed."

"Foreign markets are firm on the new price level established over the past fortnight. Mohair is moderately active and very firm."

The Bulletin publishes the following quotations: Scoured basis: Oregon: Fine and f. m. staple $3.87; fine and f. m. clothing 78.50; Mohair: Oregon 55-57.

Today's Your Last Chance! To See the Hit of Hits

Join the happy hundreds—Get pixilated! COOPER "MR. DEEDS... GOES TO TOWN" with Jean ARTHUR George BANCROFT

Bank Night Tonight $50 and Preview After 2nd Show "FORGOTTEN FACES" Herbert Marshall and Gertrude Michael

Starts Sunday Contagious Comedy An Epidemic of laughter and a malady of mirth!

BOB, isolated wireless man, hadn't seen a pretty girl (or any girl) in two years! Then along came Myrna and her fiancé... exit fiancé!... enter Bob! And YOU'LL exit laughingly!

Robert MONTGOMERY MYRNA LOY in "PETTICOAT FEVER" with REGINALD OWEN