Daily Devotions

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

It is a wonderful thing that in the very first chapter of Genesis, the greatest of all possible great truths should have such clear and emphatic expression. Man is a child of God. Made in His image with a moral sense and a power of choice and self-direction that links Him to the divine in the fullest and most complete way. That is why His failure to attain to goodness and virtue and real greatness is such a tragedy. Man was made for such high ends, but he allows selfishness and selfishness to rob himself of his high goal. Dear Father forgive us and help us by Thy grace to yield obedience into Thee. Amen.

PRE-CONVENTION Paragraphs

By W. H. BAILLIE, Executive-Secretary, Conventions Commission.

According to the box head on the first page of the News Review today only 12 days are left in which to complete the details and arrangements for the greatest show Roseburg will have ever seen. How these 12 days will fly by. The convention will be upon us before we can say Jack Robinson.

We suppose everybody has heard the convention commission has received word that it can have all the beds and bedding it will need for the big rally. This really was a break. The acquisition of this extra equipment will just about solve the housing situation, so far as organizations are concerned. The commission heaved a great sigh of relief when General Simons' wire was received. If it hadn't have been for another harrowing detail of trouble, some of the commissioners might have smiled for the first time in days.

A lady called up yesterday (bless her soul) and wanted to know what had been done with the Toledo girls' drum corps. She just knew the commission was worrying about taking care of them. Certainly they wanted to be housed together. Certainly it would be difficult for the commission to find a suitable place for them. This lady offered her whole house to these girls. Beds for all. Even some of their meals if they wished. We don't know as yet what the housing committee has done about these girls, but we'll bet this kind lady has her hands full during the convention.

Trophies of all sorts will be blossoming out in the windows of various merchants within the next few days. These are mighty fine looking pieces of equipment and will attract much attention. Dr. H. C. Church, chairman of the trophy and award committee, is busy uncrating and unpacking trophies coming in from all parts of the state. These will be put in store windows and under constant light so that everyone can get a good look at them. Dr. Church has had trophies in his window for several days. Those still to come will fill several windows.

Mrs. Ellen Post, chairman of the pre-convention sale of drum corps contest tickets, has an ardent and enthusiastic helper in Earl Wisner, president of the Roseburg 29-30 club. It is the members of Wisner's organization who will handle the sale of these tickets in Roseburg. They are going at it as if they meant business. In case you don't know it, the 29-30 club is another civic organization of Roseburg which volunteered to give the convention commission any help it could to put this big meeting across. They are a fine bunch of young fellows who have banded themselves together for mutual helpfulness and civic betterment. When word of their action came to Mrs. Post, who is informed of it and she lost no time in accepting their services. They are now all full-fledged salesmen in the drum corps ticket sale. They will be busy during all of next week.

"Well, I know they don't go on sale until Monday, but couldn't you just sell me a half dozen now? I have some friends coming from a long distance and I want to be sure they see the contest."
