MARKETS

WHEAT

PORTLAND, Aug. 6.—(AP)—The world is bidding for Pacific northwest wheat and flour. Confirmation of the sale of at least 100,000 tons of wheat to Liverpool and several cargoes was obtained by the Journal today. Demand is world wide and only the matter of getting sufficient ocean tonnage is expected to keep sales from assuming record proportions.

On the Portland cash wheat market soft white varieties went to the dollar mark, sack basis, for the first time in an extended period with demand keen and farmers not selling.

On the Portland futures market there was a closing advance of 1/2c in September, 1/2c in December while May was nominally unchanged. Sales included 8000 bushel December. Local cash wheat was 1-2 1/2c higher with Montana down 1c for spring and unchanged for winter.
