

BEAVERS BATTLE TO TOP OF LEAGUE

Defeat Missions in Tenth While San Diego Trims Seattle in 11th.

(By the Associated Press.)
 The Seattle Indians, leading the coast league race by four full games less than two weeks ago, held a runner-up position to Portland today after extra-inning games in the northwest last night.
 The Beavers finished up their short series with the San Francisco Missions by winning a 10-inning game, 2-1, while the San Diego Padres knocked the tribe out of the league leadership, 5-3, in 11 frames.
 A pitching castoff, who found a haven in the San Diego dugout, was largely responsible for the change in leadership. Dick Ward, released earlier in the season by Sacramento, pitched the entire 11 innings, allowed only seven hits, and scored the deciding run himself in the last bracket. The contest went extra innings because Ward zipped one for Donovan in the second inning, and two men scored ahead of the resulting homer. In Wednesday night's game, Craghead, Seattle Castaway, humbled his former teammates. Ward and Craghead have consistently won for the Padres since joining the club.
Gaster Gets Revenge.
 Only snappy playing and good pitching by the veteran Walter Stewart kept Portland from winning earlier than it did last night. Stewart was nicked for 17 hits during the evening, but managed to limit the Beavers to a single run for nine innings. In the 10th, however, Catcher Brucker singled, went to third on Bedora's fourth hit of the game, and tallied on Conner's bingle. The Missions ruined a "George Gaster night" for the pitcher Tuesday, by knocking him off the hill in one inning, but he got revenge last night.
 Oakland triumphed over San Francisco, 6-4, for the first time in the three-game series, as a result of a five-run rally in the seventh. Only one earned run was made off Cole, who saved an inexperienced, substitute third baseman, Ernie Raimond, throw the game away. Lieber outpitched three Solon slubsters to win a 6-4 verdict for Los Angeles.
 New series open tonight with San Diego playing a doubleheader in Portland. In single games, the Missions play at Seattle, Sacramento at San Francisco, and Oakland at Los Angeles.

CARDINALS WALLOP CUBS 3RD STRAIGHT

By SID FEDER (Associated Press Sports Writer.)
 St. Louis Cardinals pulled out three full games in front of the National league pack by knocking off the hitless Chicago Cubs for the third straight yesterday.
 With Dixie Dean hearing down in the pines to chalk up his 18th victory of the year, the Cards won out 2-0 in the 11th inning on Mize's game-wrecking homer.
 Pitchers Dietrich and Cain combined yesterday to pin back the ears of the St. Louis Browns in both ends of a doubleheader, thereby pulling the White Sox up to a bare half-game back of the slowing Cleveland Indians in the American league.
 Cain, although he failed to go the route, won the opener, 2-0. Dietrich let the Browns' down with just five hits in taking the nightcap 4-1.
 The Indians meantime lost to the Tigers 9-6.
 They were shut out by Rookie Jake Wade's seven-hit pitching and a 16-hit Tiger attack, featured by Goolbsy's 18th homer of the year and Owen's eighth.
 Although their game with the Red Sox was washed out, the Yankees found their American league lead stretched to 11 1/2 games by the Indians' defeat.
 Rain and threatening weather washed out the rest of the major league program.
