

SOCIETY

Social Calendar

Sunday, August 16
Riddle clan annual family basket picnic dinner and reunion at Umpqua Auto park between Myrtle Creek and Canyonville.
Wilson-Dickinson annual family reunion to be held at the Pleasant valley schoolhouse grounds. Members of the family who cannot be present have been asked to write greetings to either J. B. Wilson or George S. Wilson, Yoncalla.
Annual barbeque picnic to be held at Umpqua park as noon affair. Coffee and cream to be furnished. Those attending have been asked to bring their own dishes.
Tri-grange picnic, Glide, South Deer Creek and Melrose granges to be held all-day at Cedar Grove near Glide.

Monday, August 17
Lilac circle, No. 49, Neighbors of Woodcraft, to meet at 1 O. O. F. hall, Mrs. Mayne Dule in charge of refreshments and Mrs. Connie Black in charge of the social hour.
Past Presidents club of George Starmer auxiliary of United Spanish War Veterans to meet at two o'clock in afternoon at home of Mrs. Will Long.

Tuesday, August 18
Evening sewing club to meet at home of Mrs. L. A. Miles in south Roseburg.
Roseburg Bebekahs to visit Myrtle Creek lodge in evening. Those desiring transportation have been asked to call Mrs. M. R. Ivie or Mrs. Alba Spangh.
Riversdale grange members and invited guests asked to attend an ice cream social at eight o'clock at the grange hall.

Thursday, August 20
Baptist Missionary society meeting in church parlors with Mrs. J. F. Byrd, leader, on topic, "On the Road to Mandalay, a Journey to the Baptists' Oldest Mission Station."
Hostesses, Mrs. H. F. Hatfield and Mrs. Dave Harris, Mrs. George Caskey in charge of business meeting.
Ladies of Country club to enjoy golfing in the morning at club at 8:30, which will be the opening of the annual championship cup tournament. Potluck luncheon at noon and contract bridge in afternoon.

Presbyterian Missionary society to meet in afternoon at home of Mrs. W. L. Scott. Study book to be completed.

CHAMPIONSHIP CUP TOURNAMENT WILL OPEN NEXT THURSDAY
Attention is being called to all ladies of the Country club of the opening of the annual championship cup tournament next Thursday morning, August 20, at eight-thirty o'clock at the Roseburg Country club. This is one of the most interesting tournaments sponsored annually by the ladies of the club and all members are being urged to be out next Thursday for the opening.

The regular luncheon will be served at noon and contract bridge will be in play during the afternoon hours.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL TO BE HELD AT GRANGE NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT
The ice cream social announced for Riversdale grange members and their husbands for this past week was postponed and the new date has been set for next Tuesday evening, August 18, at eight o'clock at the grange hall.

TRI-GRANGE PICNIC TO BE HELD AT CEDAR GROVE ON SUNDAY
The Tri-Grange all-day picnic affair of Glide, South Deer Creek and Melrose granges, will be a very enjoyable affair of tomorrow, August 16, to be held at Cedar Grove near Glide. A basket noon dinner will be served.

DR. AND MRS. HOUCK ENTERTAIN AT LARGE PARTY THURSDAY NIGHT
Dr. and Mrs. George E. Houck entertained at one of the largest and most charming convention week parties Thursday evening, when they invited a hundred guests to their attractive home on South Stephens street. The rooms were especially lovely with bouquets of asters, zinnias and other colorful summer flowers.

The guests enjoyed viewing the Legion convention parade from the large verandah of the home. A spotlight in the yard lighted the entire street for the occasion.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mrs. R. H. Fields, Jr., of Portland (daughter of Mrs. Houck), Mrs. Lois Neiger, of Salem (niece of Dr. and Mrs. Houck), Dr. and Mrs. Byron G. Bailey of Grants Pass, and Mrs. George Adams of Woodburn, Mrs. C. A. Lockwood of Portland, Mrs. Robbins and daughter, Miss Bobbie, of Arkansas, Mrs. John Thorne of Salem, Royal Crests of Heliott, Kansas, and Mrs. and Mrs. E. T. Sims and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Austin of Woodburn.

Assisting in serving with Mrs. Houck were Mrs. R. H. Fields, Jr., Mrs. Lois Neiger, Mrs. Edwin Booth, Mrs. Boyd Dales and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Refreshments were served buffet style from a beautifully appointed table in the dining room. A lace cloth graced the table, which was centered by a box bowl of silver filled with pastel orchid asters and greenery.

BIRTHDAY PARTY IS ENJOYED AT LILLY HOME ON THURSDAY
Mrs. L. M. Lilly entertained at a delightful birthday party from three to five o'clock Thursday afternoon to celebrate the first birthday anniversary of her son, Jerry, and also to celebrate the first anniversary of Charles Verill.

The guests included babies in their first year and their mothers, who were Mrs. L. M. Lilly and son Jerry, Mrs. Ed Verill and son Charles, Mrs. Fred Hargis and daughter Janet, Mrs. Wallace Rapp and daughter Sandra Kay, Mrs. George Churchill and son Tommy, and Mrs. George Hart and small daughter.

Gifts were given to the two small guests of honor and favor gifts were given to each guest. At the tea hour Mrs. Lilly cut the birthday cake lighted by one candle and served lovely refreshments to the guests.

By LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

WALTER SANDQUIST AND BERNICE MAHONEY MARRY IN EUGENE SATURDAY

Miss Bernice Mahoney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Mahoney of Oakland, became the bride of Walter Sandquist, son of K. E. Sandquist of Roseburg, at a beautiful wedding in the First Congregational church in Eugene Saturday evening, August 8.

Rev. R. A. Hutchinson of the Dalles performed the ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated in gladioli, ferns and palms and lighted by tall ivory tapers in candelabras.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white satin gown made with long pleated sleeves and a slight train. She wore a half-dozen of white roses and a shower bouquet of cream roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Bernice Waincott of Roseburg was maid of honor and was charming in a frock of peach net over matching taffeta. She carried a bouquet of peach-colored roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Winifred Johnson of Pendleton and Miss Helen Worth of Salem, were lovely in similar dresses of blue net over taffeta. They carried attractive nosegays. Little Camille Maybee of Portland, niece of the bridegroom, acted as flower girl and was lovely in a pastel peach organza frock. She carried a nosegay of forget-me-nots and freckles.

Harry Sandquist, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. George Jette and Jack Danner, both of Eugene, were ushers.

Mrs. Mahoney, mother of the bride, wore a navy and white print dress with navy accessories. Her corsage was rosebuds.

The ceremony was officiated and Mendelsohn's recessional were played on the organ by Robert Gould.

A reception in the church parlors followed the wedding service. Miss Janet Hall, Miss Katharine Parsons, Miss Mary Graham and Miss Ina Curley, all of Eugene, served. Mrs. F. H. Hathaway and Mrs. E. J. Waincott acted as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandquist left following the reception for Los Angeles and other points of interest in California on a three week honeymoon and will later return to Eugene to make their home.

The bride, a prominent member of the women's set on the University of Oregon campus, attended the Oakland schools and later attended U. of O. She is a member of Alpha Delta Phi sorority. Mr. Sandquist attended the Roseburg schools and later attended Oregon State college. He is a member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity, and is now engaged in the landscape architectural department at the university. Mrs. Sandquist is a secretary in the school of journalism department at U. of O.

Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Waincott and daughter, Miss Bernice, K. E. Sandquist and son Harry of Roseburg, drove to Eugene Saturday afternoon for the wedding. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Harry Maybee, and her daughter, Camille, of Portland, were also among the out-of-town guests present.

DR. AND MRS. HOUCK ENTERTAIN AT LARGE PARTY THURSDAY NIGHT
Dr. and Mrs. George E. Houck entertained at one of the largest and most charming convention week parties Thursday evening, when they invited a hundred guests to their attractive home on South Stephens street. The rooms were especially lovely with bouquets of asters, zinnias and other colorful summer flowers.

The guests enjoyed viewing the Legion convention parade from the large verandah of the home. A spotlight in the yard lighted the entire street for the occasion.

Among the out-of-town guests present were Mrs. R. H. Fields, Jr., of Portland (daughter of Mrs. Houck), Mrs. Lois Neiger, of Salem (niece of Dr. and Mrs. Houck), Dr. and Mrs. Byron G. Bailey of Grants Pass, and Mrs. George Adams of Woodburn, Mrs. C. A. Lockwood of Portland, Mrs. Robbins and daughter, Miss Bobbie, of Arkansas, Mrs. John Thorne of Salem, Royal Crests of Heliott, Kansas, and Mrs. and Mrs. E. T. Sims and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Austin of Woodburn.

Assisting in serving with Mrs. Houck were Mrs. R. H. Fields, Jr., Mrs. Lois Neiger, Mrs. Edwin Booth, Mrs. Boyd Dales and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

YOUNG PEOPLE OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH ENJOY PARTY

The young people of the First Christian church entertained the Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church at a very delightful party at the home of Miss Kathryn DeLapp.

Games were played and later watermelon was served. The following guests, Virginia, Fraita and Anita Young, Francelle Kraam, Florence Hamilton, Marilyn and Corinne Harpham, Elmira Blake, Dorothy Dale Lancaster, from the Presbyterian church, and the following from the Christian church: Dora Carson, Dorothy Miller, Marguerite Stevenson, Patsy Abel, Clonise Brown, Claude Snell, Carmen and Doris Abel, Vivian and Elaine Bartley, Evelyn Kuntz, Harry and Doris Hated, Betty Starckers, Dorothy and Velma Crocker, Wilma, Alta, Alleen and Attea Lallaat, Neva and Daniel Keller, Virginia Smith, Howard Fritts, Ruta Wolfe, Gene Perry, Corinne-Anne and Donald Perry, Dorothy Pfaff, Billy Love, Mable Farmer, Paul McGowan, Lois Updike, Mrs. Van Horn, Miss Kathryn DeLapp and Dr. and Mrs. S. L. DeLapp.

EVERGREEN GRANGE POTLUCK SUPPER IS ENJOYED AT AUSTIN PLACE
The Evergreen grange members and their families enjoyed a very delightful potluck supper and lawn party Monday evening at the attractive gardens of William Austin at Green. Games and a pleasant social hour followed.

Thursday evening the grange visited the Canas Valley grange, where the former put on the degree work and during the lecture hour presented a program consisting of "Address of Accomplishments of the Evergreen Grange," by J. E. Picken; "History of Evergreen Grange," by Susie Winston; reading by Mrs. Martin Brucker; reading by Susie Winston and a demonstration of "How to Make Useful Things from Cast Offs."

After the lecture hour the guests adjourned to the banquet room, where the Canas Valley grange members served lovely refreshments.

REBEKAHS WILL VISIT MYRTLE CREEK LODGE NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT
The Rebekah lodge met Tuesday evening at the U. O. F. hall for a business session, followed by a short program, at which time Donna Junham favored the group by a delightful tap dance, accompanied by Mrs. Dayne Beach at the piano.

It was decided to accept Myrtle Creek Rebekah lodge's invitation to visit there next Tuesday evening, August 18. Mrs. Leah Ivie and Mrs. Myrtle Spangh have charge of the transportation and any Rebekah desiring to attend this meeting and wanting transportation has been asked to call either Mrs. Spangh or Mrs. Ivie.

The next meeting of the Roseburg Rebekah lodge will be a social and program affair to be held at the I. O. O. F. hall the evening of August 20.

ANNUAL PIONEER PICNIC TO BE HELD AT CALAPOOIA SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 6TH
Anyone interested has been invited to enjoy the annual pioneer picnic to be held Sunday, September 6, at Calapooia. A program will open this annual affair at ten o'clock in the morning with District Attorney Maurice L. Hallmark as the guest speaker.

RIDDLE FAMILY PICNIC TO BE HELD SUNDAY AT UMPQUA AUTO PARK
The annual Riddle clan family reunion will be a large and enjoyable affair of Sunday, August 16, at the Umpqua auto park between Myrtle Creek and Canyonville.

WANDA ARMOUR OPENS ROSE PIANO STUDIO ON WASHINGTON STREET

Wanda Armour, prominent Roseburg pianist and voice organist, has announced the opening of the "Rose studio" at her home on Washington street, opposite the junior high school building.

Mrs. Armour is an accredited piano instructor and formerly taught at University of Idaho school of music at Moscow, Idaho. She is also a graduate of the school of music there.

Mrs. Armour has made her home in Roseburg for a number of years, where she has become recognized as one of the finest pianists and teachers in this city. Upon her arrival here, she was pipe organist at the Antlers theatre until "talkies" came in, after which she did considerable radio work both in Oregon and California. Her musical programs over KRNR in this city have been very popular and her playing is always in demand on numerous programs throughout the year here.

Enrollment of piano students is already under way and a fine class will be completely organized by September.

MISS JANE GILBRATH HONORED AT DINNER ON BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY
Miss Jane Gilbrath was delightfully surprised on her birthday anniversary Tuesday evening, when her mother entertained at a six o'clock dinner party at their home at Dixonville.

Covers were placed for Miss Jane, guest of honor, Miss Eleanor Fies, Miss Lola Duncan, Miss Nadine Pinkerton, Miss Carol Carpes, Miss Dorothy Dale Jackson, Miss Janet Fickenscher, Miss Edna Brown, Miss Theresa Gunn, Miss Phyllis Gilbrath and Mrs. Letha Waasong Henbest.

A pretty pink and white decorative motif was carried out on the table, which was centered by a beautiful birthday cake.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY GIVEN AT HARPHAM HOME MONDAY NIGHT
Miss June Morse, of Prineville (guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Radigan of this city), was complimented at a delightful evening party at Winstan Monday evening, after which the group was entertained at a most enjoyable picnic supper and wicker roast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Harpham on Winchester street.

Guests included Miss Morse, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Radigan and daughter, Miss Alice, and son, Fred, Vernon Boucock, Raymond Speed of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Harpham and two daughters, Miss Corinne and Miss Marilyn, Miss Dolores Cays, Miss Florence Morris and Howard Fritts.

MR. AND MRS. HEBARD ENTERTAIN FRIENDS OVER WEEK-END
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hebard entertained a group of friends at a delightful week-end party at their summer cabin on the Umpqua river. Boating and swimming were diversions of the two-day stay at the cabin.

Those enjoying the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Hebard included Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Decker and son, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Strickling and children, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Teater and children, and Mrs. Arthur Breckner, a sister of Mrs. Hebard, who is visiting here from Fort Wayne, Indiana.

WILSON-DICKINSON FAMILY REUNION TO BE HELD TOMORROW
The annual family reunion of the Wilson-Dickinson family will be held at Pleasant Valley schoolhouse grounds Sunday, August 16. A noon basket dinner will be served. Members who will be unable to be present have been asked to send greetings to either J. B. Wilson or George S. Wilson, Yoncalla.

GEORGE STARMER PAST PRESIDENTS' CLUB TO MEET NEXT MONDAY
The Past Presidents' club of the George Starmer auxiliary of United Spanish War Veterans will meet next Monday afternoon, August 17, at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Will Long. All members are most cordially invited to be present.

BARKER FAMILY REUNION TO BE HELD AT UMPQUA PARK SUNDAY, AUG. 16
The annual Barker family reunion will be an enjoyable affair to be held at Umpqua park tomorrow, August 16. A basket dinner will be served at noon. Coffee and cream will be furnished by the committee. Those attending have been asked to bring their own dishes and silverware.

PRESBYTERIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO MEET NEXT THURSDAY AT SCOTT HOME
The Presbyterian Missionary society has planned a very interesting and enjoyable meeting for next Thursday afternoon, August 20, to be held at the home of Mrs. W. L. Scott. The study book will be completed at this meeting. All members are most cordially invited.

N. OF W. WILL MEET NEXT MONDAY NIGHT AT I. O. O. F. HALL
Lilac Circle No. 49, Neighbors of Woodcraft, will meet next Monday evening, August 17, at the I. O. O. F. hall for an interesting business session and a delightful social.

Mrs. Connie Black will be general chairman of the social with Mrs. Mayne Galle in charge of the refreshment committee. All members are urged to be present.

M. O. A. CLUB WILL NOT MEET UNTIL WEDNESDAY, AUG. 26
The M. O. A. club meeting previously planned for August 15, has been postponed to Wednesday afternoon, August 26, at which time the members will meet at the home of Mrs. Ed Hahnbeck on South Pine street.

Fashions For The Fashionable

Rosalind Russell
Satin and lace fashion, this pale pink negligee was designed for Rosalind Russell Saturday afternoon. For the ladies' negligee features accord with the latest fashion. Sleeves are wide at armholes and snug below. Jewel clasped at waistline is the only fastening included.

SURPRISE PARTY IS ENJOYED AT VAN BRIESEN HOME ON SATURDAY
A group of friends gathered at the Van Briesen home on West Washington street Saturday afternoon to surprise Mrs. Eva Van Briesen and Mrs. W. H. Gammon on their birthday anniversaries.

Lovely gifts were presented to the two guests of honor and the afternoon was spent in playing bridge until the tea hour, when a lovely potluck luncheon was served to Mrs. Van Briesen and Mrs. Gammon, guests of honor, and Mrs. G. R. Singleton, Mrs. Marie Moore, Mrs. E. Rhoads, Mrs. Henry F. Snyder, Mrs. Grace Pope, Mrs. H. Shogel, Miss Doris Gammon and Miss Ruth Thompson.

WILL TEACH IN THE PHILIPPINE DURING COMING SCHOOL YEAR
Miss Delilah Endicott, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Endicott of Eugene, who has been spending the summer enjoying a tour of the island, has sent word to her parents that she has secured a position teaching at the University of Manila, Philippine Islands, and will be gone for the coming year.

Miss Endicott is well known in Roseburg, having visited here at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stearns, on South Pine street.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY WILL MEET NEXT THURSDAY
All members of the Baptist missionary society have been asked to meet next Thursday afternoon, August 20, in the church parlors with Mrs. George Caskey in charge of the business session.

Mrs. J. F. Byrd will be the leader of the topic "On the Road to Mandalay." Hostesses for the tea hour will be Mrs. H. F. Hatfield and Mrs. Dave Harris.

MICHIGAN QUEEN
The convention days of the American Legion and their auxiliary certainly added color and excitement to the usual every day life at the veterans' facility. Members of the many drum corps from the different parts of the state, in their warty uniforms, gave demonstrations in front of the hospital where the patients could view them from the screened porches.

Many of the visitors took advantage of our open house Friday and all seemed favorably impressed with our facility in general. Two of the most beautiful gifts for our recreation building were received from our visitors. An oil painting of a scene with the most inviting stream in it, which has all the men imagining the best fishing holes just around the corner, from the American Legion auxiliary of Albany. Two beautiful tables made of maple, hickory and holly wood from the American Legion and their auxiliary of Condit.

The tops of the tables are inlaid squares of the different kinds of wood, made up in the form of a checker board. Metal plates are fastened to the tops with the names of the donors upon them. We are very grateful for these gifts and feel sure the men will derive much pleasure from them.

A large group of ambulatory patients who have been unable to leave the hospital for some time was taken to town to see the convention parade Thursday evening. This broke the monotony of their daily routine and proved to be a very happy adventure.

Another gathering of monopoly was received this week for our recreational social from the D. A. V. auxiliary of Medford.

Virginia Pound, saleslady in a Grand Rapids dress shop, was chosen queen of the Michigan Blossom festival at Benton Harbor and St. Joseph, May 3 to 10.

COUNTRY CLUB LADIES ENTERTAIN VISITORS AT GOLF, LUNCHEON AND BRIDGE

The ladies of the Roseburg Country club entertained a number of interesting auxiliary convention visitors at the clubhouse Thursday. Golfing was enjoyed from ten o'clock in the morning until noon with Mrs. Mayne Miller, of Forest Grove, winning the first prize and Mrs. George Giddins, of Medford, winning the second prize.

A charming luncheon was served at noon by the inter-club relations committee including Mrs. Broadway and Mrs. H. C. Stearns, joint chairmen, assisted by Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. C. H. Wade, Mrs. E. F. Tandy, Mrs. W. F. Chapman and Mrs. C. W. Wharton.

The clubhouse was decorated with large bowls and baskets filled with salmon-colored gladioli, a gift to the club women from the ladies of Grants Pass. The luncheon was served buffet style from a table, covered by a lace cloth and centered by an immense round platter filled with artistically arranged foods. At both ends of the table were lovely bowls of gold and amber summer blossoms. Mrs. A. A. Wilder and Mrs. E. F. Tandy entertained at tea and coffee urns.

Mrs. Walter Fisher, captain, welcomed the guests and introduced the committee in charge of the luncheon. Guests introduced included: Mrs. Ben Moore, Mrs. O. H. Ford and Mrs. George Beter, all of Portland; Mrs. George Adams, Mrs. E. T. Wims and Mrs. Harold Austin, all of Woodburn; Mrs. Andrew Broadwing, of Provo, Utah; Mrs. Mayne Miller, of Forest Grove; Mrs. F. G. Hatch, Mrs. George Giddins and Mrs. Goodwin Humphrey, all of Medford; Mrs. Sidney George and Mrs. Sam Tyler, of Eugene; Mrs. Paul Gemmel and Mrs. Spencer Crawford, of Heppner; Miss Catherine DeVoe, of San Francisco, and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Mrs. Gordon Hibbs and Mrs. M. F. Rice were introduced and welcomed as new members of the Country club and the following members were present: Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. Edward Hines, Mrs. E. G. Kohlman, Mrs. Frank Coen, Mrs. F. L. Crittenden, Mrs. Edgar Lewis, Mrs. Arthur W. Baum, Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, Mrs. J. F. Barker, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. W. E. Oll, Mrs. D. E. Faxon, Mrs. H. A. Simmons, Mrs. M. L. Ganay, Mrs. J. E. Marks, Mrs. H. C. Stearns, Mrs. Beter Rice, Mrs. R. D. Bridges, Mrs. W. F. Chapman, Mrs. B. Casey, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mrs. Phil Harth, Mrs. Ivan Pickett, Mrs. O. M. Berrie, Mrs. H. T. Hansen, Mrs. Broadway, Mrs. C. W. Wharton, Mrs. E. F. Tandy, Mrs. A. A. Wilder, Mrs. J. M. Judd, Miss Joyce Bridges and Miss Madlyn Stearns.

Contract bridge was the diversion of the afternoon hours with Mrs. Broadwing, of Provo, Utah, winning the prize for high score and Mrs. B. Casey winning the club prize.

Next Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock the annual championship cup tournament will open. All lady golfers are most cordially invited to enter this tournament.

REPUBLICANS PLANNING PICNIC TO BE HELD SOME TIME THIS MONTH
The Douglas county republicans, headed by a committee of prominent republican men, are making arrangements for a large and interesting picnic affair to be held some time during this month, the date of which will be announced within a short time. Frank Long, Douglas county chairman, is at the head of the committee.

The members of Douglas unit of Pro-America will assist the men with the picnic, and Mrs. H. C. Waddell, chairman of the unit, has appointed Miss Mable O. Vaaker of Walden, Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. L. B. Riddle and Mrs. O. E. Brown of Dixonville, to assist the men with arrangements.

Plans are being made for every republican in the county to attend this picnic, which will be in the form of an old-time rally with interesting speakers and an enjoyable program. Republicans are being asked to watch for the date of this picnic and to make their plans to be present.

Fashions For The Fashionable

Olivia de Havilland
No summer wardrobe is complete, says Olivia de Havilland of Saratoga, Cal., and noted Hollywood star without a dotted Swiss dress. This original design has jacket and vest with large white buttons. The skirt, collar and cuffs are all piped in white. The picture shows Miss de Havilland modeling this latest creation.

CALIFORNIA VISITORS ARE ENJOYING VACATION VISITING HERE
Numerous informal affairs have been given during the past week for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Casworth, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. "Ted" Jewett and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bell and Maynard Bell, all visitors from San Francisco who are spending their vacation in Roseburg. They are former residents of this city and have a large number of relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Casworth, nee Beulah Jewett, was formerly society editor of the Roseburg News-Review. Raymond and Maynard Bell are sons of W. D. Bell, of this city, and are nephews of Miss Minnie Bell.

Guests registered at the tea by Mrs. T. G. Watson and Mrs. H. A. Simmons included about four hundred. Special guests besides the Gold Star Mothers, sisters and nieces, were Mrs. M. J. Pargeter, World War nurses and representatives from women's organizations included the wife of the mayor of Roseburg, the wives of the Legion commission men and the ladies of Roseburg who assisted the Umpqua unit auxiliary members in the many various activities sponsored during the convention.

The three tea tables were greatly admired by the guests. Girls serving at the tables were pretty summer frocks matching the decorative scheme of the tables used by the hostesses. Mrs. C. B. Waddel decorated her tea table in a lovely green and orange color scheme; Mrs. H. C. Waddell had her table entirely in ivory and Mrs. H. O. Pargeter carried out an attractive blue and gold motif.

Mrs. W. F. Chapman received the congratulations and expressions of appreciation from the hundreds of guests as well as the Umpqua unit auxiliary hostesses for her most gracious hospitality and was highly complimented on her beautiful gardens and home. The affair was one of the most outstanding social events ever to be held here and special credit is being given to Mrs. H. C. Church and her committee for managing the function.

NORTHSIDE SUNSHINE CLUB ANNUAL PICNIC WILL BE AUGUST 27TH
Thursday evening, August 27th, has been announced as the date of the annual Northside Sunshine club picnic for members and their families. This is always the largest and most enjoyable occasion of the club year and members have been asked to remember the date.

U. S. V. HOSPITAL
By Outilia K. Ashton
The convention days of the American Legion and their auxiliary certainly added color and excitement to the usual every day life at the veterans' facility. Members of the many drum corps from the different parts of the state, in their warty uniforms, gave demonstrations in front of the hospital where the patients could view them from the screened porches.

Many of the visitors took advantage of our open house Friday and all seemed favorably impressed with our facility in general. Two of the most beautiful gifts for our recreation building were received from our visitors. An oil painting of a scene with the most inviting stream in it, which has all the men imagining the best fishing holes just around the corner, from the American Legion auxiliary of Albany. Two beautiful tables made of maple, hickory and holly wood from the American Legion and their auxiliary of Condit.

The tops of the tables are inlaid squares of the different kinds of wood, made up in the form of a checker board. Metal plates are fastened to the tops with the names of the donors upon them. We are very grateful for these gifts and feel sure the men will derive much pleasure from them.

A large group of ambulatory patients who have been unable to leave the hospital for some time was taken to town to see the convention parade Thursday evening. This broke the monotony of their daily routine and proved to be a very happy adventure.

Another gathering of monopoly was received this week for our recreational social from the D. A. V. auxiliary of Medford.

Virginia Pound, saleslady in a Grand Rapids dress shop, was chosen queen of the Michigan Blossom festival at Benton Harbor and St. Joseph, May 3 to 10.

AUXILIARY TEA IS LARGEST AFFAIR OF CONVENTION WEEK

The largest social function of the year in this city was the Umpqua unit Auxiliary tea given yesterday afternoon from 10:30 to six o'clock in the beautiful gardens of the W. F. Chapman home in compliance to Gold Star Mothers and sisters and World War nurses. All Legion wives, auxiliary members attending the convention and representatives from every woman's organization in Roseburg were entertained by the Umpqua unit members.

The Chapman gardens are the most spacious and beautiful in this city and were greatly admired and enjoyed by the many guests attending the colorful affair. The lawns are especially verdant and green, while the large terraces and garden furniture were well shaded by the many flowering shrubs and trees. The rockeries were colorful with many summer flowers and the pretty winding red stone paths overlooking the Umpqua, were a delight to the visitors.

Miss Mary Margaret Ellsworth and Miss Marian Elizabeth Church greeted the guests, who were then received by Mrs. Thomas Parkinson, Mrs. John Mayne Chapman, Mrs. William H. O'Fallon, Mrs. Charles Gunn, Mrs. J. W. McInturff, Mrs. J. H. Turbhill, Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, Mrs. E. B. Stewart, Mrs. Irving Refal, Mrs. George Caskey, Mrs. Roy O. Young and Mrs. L. A. Dillard.

Mrs. H. C. Church, general chairman, who so very capably managed the delightful affair, acted as hostess and was assisted by Mrs. C. W. Waddell, Mrs. J. O. Pargeter and Mrs. H. C. Waddell. The arrangement of the garden furniture was in charge of Mrs. L. E. McClintock, with Mrs. Will H. Gerretson acting as chairman of the cookies and cakes; assisted by Miss Virginia Gilbrath; Mrs. Willard Johnson, Mrs. A. W. Dashford and Mrs. E. S. Young in charge of punch and Mrs. Earl E. Wimberly, acting as chairman of the tea used by Fanny Lu Wimberly, Andy Snearns, Mrs. Joan Parkinson, Louna Hatfield, Joyce Bridges, Mildred Grimm, Virginia Young, Joan Jenkins, Patsy Beigal, Dorothy Lillard, Evelyn Van Voorst and Evelyn Kuntz.

The favors for the guests of honor were in charge of Mrs. E. E. Lang, Mrs. D. E. Faxon and Mrs. Paul Finkbeiner. Foodity and invitations chairman was Mrs. Walter Fisher.

The W. E. O. U. orchestra, composed of Mr. Ott, Mrs. F. G. Burr, Mrs. Josephine Chamberlain and Mrs. Campbell, furnished a most enjoyable and beautiful performance in the back garden. Allen Corbin delighted the guests with his accompaniment section and also special interest was the harmonizing expert, who did character reading for the guests giving her samples of their writing. Mrs. Marjorie Ellsworth was chairman of the afternoon's program and entertainment.

Guests registered at the tea by Mrs. T. G. Watson and Mrs. H. A. Simmons included about four hundred. Special guests besides the Gold Star Mothers, sisters and nieces, were Mrs. M. J. Pargeter, World War nurses and representatives from women's organizations included the wife of the mayor of Roseburg, the wives of the Legion commission men and the ladies of Roseburg who assisted the Umpqua unit auxiliary members in the many various activities sponsored during the convention.

The three tea tables were greatly admired by the guests. Girls serving at the tables were pretty summer frocks matching the decorative scheme of the tables used by the hostesses. Mrs. C. B. Waddel decorated her tea table in a lovely green and orange color scheme; Mrs. H. C. Waddell had her table entirely in ivory and Mrs. H. O. Pargeter carried out an attractive blue and gold motif.

Mrs. W. F. Chapman received the congratulations and expressions of appreciation from the hundreds of guests as well as the Umpqua unit auxiliary hostesses for her most gracious hospitality and was highly complimented on her beautiful gardens and home. The affair was one of the most outstanding social events ever to be held here and special credit is being given to Mrs. H. C. Church and her committee for managing the function.

REBEKAHS