

FIVE STAR WEEKLY

Section of
Roseburg News-Review
 THE DOUGLAS COUNTY DAILY
Saturday, Aug. 15, 1936

Entire issue copyrighted by Five Star Publishing Corporation. Reproduction without permission prohibited. Great Britain rights reserved.

The Bride

There is a world inhabited by two! Oh—o—o! And in this world is food "Food for the gods", may be only burnt potatoes, prepared by the goddess for the ruler of her heart, but it can be celestial fare just the same. Having taken off her wedding gown and donned a dainty house frock, the bride of today sets about making a study of the culinary art. She has determined to be "The Perfect Wife"!

That there are stumbling blocks in her way any husband can testify, and she is bound to make mistakes, regardless of the thoroughness of her cook book, but nevertheless "Dinner at Eight" will be "perfect". Of course there will be an awakening, when bride and bride-groom realize that they live in a matter-of-fact world and that millions of other people inhabit the same sphere, but it's grand to be a bride!